

GERONIMO IS OUT OF THE WAX.

But Now Come Rumors of Indian Troubles Outside of Arizona.

Washington special: Nothing is known at the war department or Indian bureau of the alleged outbreak of trouble between the Indians on the Great Blackfoot reservation...

It is believed at the war department that the capture of Geronimo has practically put an end to Indian hostilities in that country.

San Francisco dispatch: General O. O. Howard, commander of the division of the Pacific, received a dispatch from Lieutenant General Sheridan to-day directing that the Apache and Warm Spring tribes be sent immediately to Fort Marion, Fla., with the exception of Geronimo and other Apaches recently captured.

GENERAL NEWS AND NOTES.

The democrats carried the election in Arkansas. The New York emigration committee are allowing moneyed Mormons to land. Charleston Knights of Labor have increased the scale of prices 50 cents per day.

IMPORTANT TO MANY FARMERS.

Disregard of the Atlantic and Pacific for an Act of Congress.

Washington special: A decision by the commissioner of the general land office is made public which may prove of very great importance to many farmers in the west.

The decision of the land office is to the effect that patents for the odd numbered sections were issued in direct violation of law, and are therefore void.

The decision means that all these people are occupying land which really belongs to the government, so that the effect of the decision would be much more severe to them than to the railroad company.

MINNEAPOLIS SPECIAL: The receipts of wheat are now very heavy from first hands in Dakota, but, considering the big yield, light in Minnesota.

A SHORT YIELD OF CORN.

The Chicago Farmers' Review in this week's issue prints the following crop summary: The frost which prevailed throughout a portion of the corn belt during one night of the last week causes very little damage to growing corn.

SUCCESS THAT IS PLEASING.

Washington dispatch: The treasury officials are pleased with the success that has thus far attended their invitations to holders of 3 per cent bonds to surrender them for redemption.

SEARCHING FOR LOST TREASURE.

A Doctor Looking for Money Buried Near New Orleans.

New Orleans dispatch: Dr. George J. Adams of Massachusetts was arrested here to-day charged with embezzlement by a number of persons whom he defrauded out of money to search for hidden treasure.

His two companions were killed and Adams was desperately wounded soon after. Adams was taken to a southern hospital and left it paralyzed and perfectly helpless.

AN IMPROVEMENT NOTED.

September Report of the Department of Agriculture.

The September report of the department of agriculture showed a better yield of spring wheat than was expected a month ago. There has been an improvement in the northern belt of Wisconsin, Minnesota and Dakota.

HE KILLED HIS WIFE.

A Woman Shot, Being Mistaken for a Burglar.

Word comes from Carlinville, Ill., of a terrible tragedy which occurred there on the 5th at the residence of J. B. Willoughby. Two burglars entered the room of Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby and while searching the room they awakened Willoughby.

NO MORE ELECTIONS.

DUBLIN, Sept. 9.—The troops engaged in the Woodford evictions on their return to the barracks at Birr protested against the work of forcibly putting helpless, infirm and starving people out of shelter into the roadway and declared they would in future refuse to perform such an obnoxious duty.

AN AMERICAN IMPRISONED.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—An American citizen named Percidaris, resident in Tangier has been fined and imprisoned by the American consul for offering armed resistance to native officials, and officials from the American consulate who were endeavoring to enter his house to arrest a Moor accused of extortion by the consul.

JUDGE ZUBIA'S DECISION.

Why the Mexican Jurist Held Cutting as Guilty of a Crime.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 13.—The Diario, the official government organ, to-day contains important documents regarding the Cutting case, including the full text of the decision of Judge Zubia at Paso del Norte, which show clearly and unmistakably that the court held Cutting for a crime based on Mexican soil, and continued simultaneously in Texas and Mexico.

His track of land is densely wooded and covers an area a little more than a mile square, but Hardenburg land, according to the Ulster county tax roll, is not the coldest in the world.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR CHARLESTON.

Catholics Called on—A Good Sum from New York.

Baltimore special: Copies of the following circular letter have been sent to all pastors of the Catholic churches in province of Baltimore: Rev. and Dear Sir: In this hour of distress the stricken city of Charleston appeals to our pity and our practical charity.

IN A BAD CONDITION.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 9.—A sharp but harmless shock of earthquake occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning, but the city is quiet to-day. Shelter has been pretty well provided for all the homeless, but the expected rains will cause much suffering.

NO MORE ELECTIONS.

DUBLIN, Sept. 9.—The troops engaged in the Woodford evictions on their return to the barracks at Birr protested against the work of forcibly putting helpless, infirm and starving people out of shelter into the roadway and declared they would in future refuse to perform such an obnoxious duty.

AN AMERICAN IMPRISONED.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—An American citizen named Percidaris, resident in Tangier has been fined and imprisoned by the American consul for offering armed resistance to native officials, and officials from the American consulate who were endeavoring to enter his house to arrest a Moor accused of extortion by the consul.

REV. JAMES BEECHER.

A Description of His Hermit Life and Hermit Home in the Catskill Mountain Region.

The suicide of Rev. James Beecher, writes Halston in The New York Times, ends an extremely unique career. Six or eight years ago I met him away up in the Catskill Mountain region; he had built him a home there in the depths of the backwoods and was living the life of a hermit.

Col. Judson (Ned Buntline) was one of the self-exiled preacher's friends, and it was largely through the influence of a letter that Buntline wrote me that I managed to find time on a short vacation to hunt up "the genius"—Buntline's title for him.

His track of land is densely wooded and covers an area a little more than a mile square, but Hardenburg land, according to the Ulster county tax roll, is not the coldest in the world.

Little Drops.

In Limestone, Ky., the water is so hard that the inhabitants use plates of it for window-glass. The drought in Arizona is so severe that the water in a mint julep rustles like a bunch of dried leaves.

A Wayward Father.

"What is the matter, Johnny?" asked a Texas widower of his little son. "You are not acting right, father. You are not behaving as a father should. You have secrets."

Thought It Was a Goat Fight.

"This honest butter fight has been a long one, hasn't it?" she asked. "Yes, indeed, and both sides have spent lots of money."

WOMEN DON'T OWN BABIES.

A Startling Bit of Information for the Mothers of the Land.

Millions of mothers all over the United States gather their little ones around them, never dreaming that by the law they have no right to these children. They do not know that the sole legal right to the children rests with the father in all except three of the states.

Not long ago, within a short ride of Boston by rail, lived a young man and his wife and their 7-month-old baby. Apparently they were at peace and prosperous. One day the husband told his wife at noon that a certain family had sent her an earnest invitation to spend the afternoon. The wife said she "had too many things to do that day to go to visit."

The parents of this husband lived in Canada. It was most likely he had taken the child to them. She had been to their home and knew how to find it. Making such arrangements as were possible, she started for Canada.

The brother of this cruel father took his child a few years ago away from its mother. Her relatives gave him $700 to bring it back. It is supposed that this man hoped to make money by a similar torture of his wife.

Little Drops.

In Limestone, Ky., the water is so hard that the inhabitants use plates of it for window-glass. The drought in Arizona is so severe that the water in a mint julep rustles like a bunch of dried leaves.

A Wayward Father.

"What is the matter, Johnny?" asked a Texas widower of his little son. "You are not acting right, father. You are not behaving as a father should. You have secrets."

Thought It Was a Goat Fight.

"This honest butter fight has been a long one, hasn't it?" she asked. "Yes, indeed, and both sides have spent lots of money."