The McCook Tribune.

"STORMY JORDAN," the famous nose painter of Ottumwa, it is said, will soon go to Chicago and open up a studio there. Iowa seems to have too chilly an atmosphere for Mr. Jordan's aesthetic temperament.

THE man who can look upon the magnificent array at the state fair grounds and not feel his heart swell with honest and manly pride, is a stick whom it were flattering elevation to drive into the ground and hitch a mule to.—Lincoln Democrat.

"TEMPERANCE," said the great and wise and good Benjamin Franklin, a hundred years ago, "puts wood on the fire, meat in the barrel, flour in the tub, money in the purse, credit in the country, clothes on the bairns, intelligence in the brain, and spirit in the constitution."

JAMES G. BLAINE'S youngest son, a lad of eighteen, was married the other day to a girl not too old to be spanked and sent to bed. The Democrat is minded to recall a suggestion from its favorite work to the effect that the eating of sour grapes by the father sets the children's teeth on edge.—Lincoln Democrat.

THE attempts of some of the democratic leaders to twist the Maine election in some way so as to make 'em feel that they had got something for the money they lavished on St. John and the other prohibition stumblers, are somewhat ludicrous. The total vote is reported at 66,635 for the Republican candidate for governor and 53,251 for the democratic candidate, giving a plurality of 1,359. At the last state election not held in a presidential year, which was in 1852, the republicans polled 69,514 votes and the democrats 60,100. If that is a democratic gain it is perfectly satisfactory to the republicans of Maine, and they will pray for more of the same sort. The prohibition vote was a little over 3,000.—Journal.

Do not be afraid of a little fun at home, good people. Do not shut up your house, lest the sun should fade your carpets; and your hearts, lest a laugh should shake down a few of the musty old cobwebs that are hanging there. Young people must have fun and relaxation somewhere. If they do not find it at their own hearthstones they will seek it at other and less profitable places. Therefore, let the fire burn brightly at night in the winter, and let the doors and windows be cheerfully thrown open in summer, and make the homestead delightful with all those little arts parents so well understand. Half an hour of merriment within doors, and merriment of a home blots out the remembrance of many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safeguard they can take with them into the world, is the unseen influences of the bright little sanctum.—Exchange.

Watch for it! The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness, and if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given at once and the doses frequently repeated, the dread disease may be entirely prevented and all danger and anxiety avoided. Sold by Willey & Walker and M. A. Spalding.
