The Probst Bros. of the City Bakery desire to call particular attention to some plain facts that may not be generally known to the public. Firstly, They not only sell MORE (18) loaves of bread for One Dollar, but their loaves are HEAVIER, than any other bakery in the city. Secondly, While they run their bread wagon but once a day, in the morning, these bread is always fresh from the oven.

The old B. & M. Pharmacy building, occupied by Smith's barber shop, has again been moved, this time to West Dennison street, near Willey & Walker's drug store.

THE TRIBUNE force sampled a luscious watermelon, last Saturday, a kind remembrance from our sterling young republican friend from Grant precinct, Fr. J. Benjamin.

The odors, (gentle ambrosial perfume,) that come softly wafted on the breezes from the old meat market corner, can discount a glue factory. Shut it off. Disinfect it.

From all over the land district come words of encouragement to the management of the fair. Bad weather alone can interfere with a grand and successful exhibition.

REAL ESTATE.—Rev. Joel S. Kelsey, of the Congregational church, last week, disposed of his residence property on Madison Avenue, to Cal. Reed, for a consideration of $800.

Remember the meeting of the Hocknell Hose Co., next Friday afternoon, Sept. 24, at 4 o'clock. It is of importance that there be a full turnout of the company. Let each member make it a point to be there.

The man who first makes arrangements to secure funds to loan on city property will have what is generally styled a "soft snap." There is a heavy demand for money on such security, and what is the matter with the security.

Last Friday, while switching cars at Haigler, brakeman Herb Barber was knocked off a box car and painfully, though not seriously, injured. He was brought to this city on 40, the same evening. His rapid and early recovery is expected.

A NEW MEAT MARKET.—Chas. D. Phelps, of Culbertson, has rented the building now occupied by this office, and will open up a meat market therein in a few weeks, or as soon as THE TRIBUNE's new quarters on Main Avenue are ready for occupancy.

THE TRIBUNE has in course of erection on Main Avenue an office building, which, when completed, will be among the finest newspaper headquarters in Western Nebraska. Other prominent features will be added in due time, notice of which will appear hereafter.

The present officials of the McCook U. S. Land Office, Register Laws and Receiver Babcock, have received official information to the effect that Messrs. Hart and Steinmetz will, on and after October 1st, occupy their places at the government crib, at this place.

The first of the week, C. T. Brewer moved into his new quarters, lately occupied by McCracken, on the east side of Main Avenue. The City Market is now in very snug quarters, and we might add, highly ornamental ones, taking the patriotic coloring into the account.

The members of Hocknell Hose Co. are requested to meet at the hose house, Friday afternoon, Sept. 24th, at 4 o'clock, mountain time, for practice and the transaction of such other business as may come properly before the company. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

The addition, alterations and improvements which Messrs. W. C. LaTourette & Co. have been making to their brick store building on Main Avenue, are about completed. Both commodiousness and convenience have been subserved, and their store now ranks among the largest and finest in the city.

The handsome McNeely brick received the finishing touches, this week, and is now ready for the counters, shelving, etc. The building is one of the most substantial and artistic structures in the city, to which it is a credit, as well as to the contractor, J. F. Collins. It may be properly styled, "a thing of beauty and a joy forever."

Last week, Messrs. Stokes & Troth, of the Willow, disposed of eight car-loads of "feeders," three-year-olds, to a Salem, Kansas, stockman, at three cents. On account of the destruction by fire of the railroad company's scales at the Culbertson stock yards, the cattle were "lumped." They were shipped to Red Cloud, Wednesday evening.

McCook will have a "way up" fair this year and our people ought to and will be so far interested in it that they will turn out in large numbers. Nothing would be better than for every one to put some article on exhibition, for no county in the state can make a better showing than this. The fair comes off October 5, 6, 7 and 8.—Stockville Faber.

It is generally understood by the citizens of McCook that as soon as Jacob Steinmetz is installed as receiver of the McCook land office, that Joseph LeHew, his son, and daughter, will be provided with positions in the office. Mr. LeHew was one of Mr. Steinmetz' strong supporters and he is thus to be awarded for his work.—Hastings Democrat.

Last Friday, W. Z. Taylor, of Culbertson, was taken dangerously ill, in this city, with epilepsy. He was taken into the Star restaurant, where he received medical attendance until Saturday noon, when he was removed to his home at Culbertson. His condition was considered quite critical during part of Friday night.

The Circle-W ranch people, Messrs. Kilpatrick Bros. of Beatrice, last Sunday evening, shipped a train load of feeders from Culbertson to their farm near Beatrice, where they will be fed during the coming winter for the market. The steers were of various ages, from two years upwards. They were gathered on the Frenchman range.

The time for holding the county fair, October 5, 6, 7 and 8, will soon be here. Let every energy be exerted to make it such a notable success as that it will be a credit and an advertisement to our county. All people should feel interested in the matter and lend their aid and encouragement. When barring bad weather, we will have a grand fair.

The buildings on the old Farley corner are being moved to make room for the new brick building, which V. Franklin will have built thereon, this fall. Brown's restaurant building is being moved onto the lot adjoining Hofer & Cooley's late implement house. The meat market building will occupy the rear of the lot upon which it is now located.

The publishers of THE TRIBUNE have commenced the erection of a commodious office building on Main Avenue. This enterprise will absorb all the available means of the firm, and more too, and we take this means of gently suggesting to our subscribers our immediate need of funds, hoping that they will come forward promptly and pay the small sum they are now owing us.

HIS MAIDEN EFFORT.—Will A. Clute went down to Arapahoe, Tuesday morning, to take a position as freight brakeman on the B. & M. His first attempt to couple two freight cars at that station, resulted in the loss of his left thumb, which is now with the company's physician at this place. Dr. A. J. Willey, who amputated it, Tuesday noon. The accident is a very unfortunate one, indeed.

INDIAN RELICS.—A few days since, while some workmen were making an excavation on J. B. Meserve's ranch, on Brush Creek, they dug up a partial skeleton of a "noble red man," who, no doubt, in the hey-days of yore, roamed the classic Brush Creek country with all the native freedom of his people. Shells and other trinkets were also unearthed. There are other indications of Indian mounds in the vicinity.

A crowded house greeted Rev. J. S. Kelsey, of the Congregational church, last Sunday evening, upon the occasion of his special sermon to the "merchants of McCook." The sermon showed careful preparation, thorough research and deep thought, on the part of the reverend gentleman, and it was listened to with more serious attention than is usually accorded efforts from the pulpit. Every merchant in the city should have heard it.

The band boys have secured the services of Prof. F. G. Minkler, of Minneapolis, under whose valuable and thorough instructions they are now practicing three times a week. The professor is considered by authorities in the musical line a fine instructor in the various branches of instrumental and vocal music, and our citizens will not be able to recognize their favorite band in a few weeks. To in a measure lighten the heavy expenses incurred, the boys propose holding a number of concerts in due time.

A plain drunk was taken in by the Chief of Police, Monday, for begging on the streets, (the lucre being promptly resolved into "liquid lightning") and making himself otherwise a nuisance. The fellow rather got the Chief "on the hip," while en route to the "base burner," and by a dexterous movement our cop was thrown prone upon mother earth "righteously violent." The prisoner paid dearly for his amusement, being summarily punished by the Chief's cane, generously handed. The fellow was financially embarrassed and upon his release, promptly hid himself away to more congenial climes. The chief suffered some inconvenience and pain from a bruised ankle.

McCracken's new jewelry store is the largest and finest there is in the west, and he always carries the finest assortment of goods.

"Fools rush in where angels fear to tread," seems to be particularly applicable to the editor of the Indianola Courier. We had hoped that the friends of Bishop might be able to restrain the arch-kicker within the reasonable bounds of consistency and decency, but in this week's issue that fond hope is blasted. The editor seems to be laboring under the consuming inspiration of a serious attack of delirium tremens. His tongue runs away with him. He froths and gnashes his teeth upon all who oppose the very individual whom he so bitterly and violently opposed in 1883. In support of this statement, we will next week produce a few articles from the Courier of November 5, 1883. We will do so simply to prove Bishop's consistency. Not satisfied with thus "letting down the bars," he ventures into the troublesome and oft-times dangerous province of personal journalism. This is a move that may well fill his friends' souls with horrible anticipation. For if there is one person more than another in Red Willow county who can ill afford such an encounter, it is G. S. Bishop, of the Indianola Courier. This statement we have the papers to substantiate. We hope it will not be necessary. One who will thus complacently enter that province must be the superlative product of the gods to come out recognizable. No man who is commendably endeavoring to out live an unfortunate record should presume to do it.

Those settlers living in the extreme northwestern portion of this county, on the line between this and Frontier county, have always been more or less annoyed by reason of the notoriously bad survey made in that section. On another page we produce a letter from Acting Commissioner, S. M. Stocksberger, of the department of the interior, which has an important bearing on that troublesome subject, the existence of which he seems to recognize. In his opinion the only remedy is an official re-survey, which, he further says, will not be ordered by his office without specific authority from congress. Thus it appears that the only means available are petitions by the settlers, and perhaps the County Commissioners, to Congress, to order a re-survey. It is clear that the sooner the survey is made and the matter settled, the better it will be for all parties concerned.

In order to accommodate the entire school going population and to relieve the overcrowded condition of the present buildings, the Board of Education have commenced the erection of an additional room, 22x40 feet in dimension, on West Douglas street, at the section line. This will necessitate the employment of another primary teacher, as it is in the lower grades that the largest attendance exists. With this new room and teacher the schools will be able to get along very comfortably this year. Another year and the district will be in a shape to put a building in keeping with the city, and one that will meet the every demand of the schools.

ABOUT OUR SURVEY.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, GENERAL LAND OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., September 13, '86.

MR. G. W. MINKLER, McCook, Red Willow Co., Neb. Sir: Referring to your letter of June 21, 1886, requesting information in regard to the restoration of lost corners in certain cases not covered by the printed rules issued by this office, I have to state: It appears from your letter that in subdividing township 4, north, range 30 west 6th P. M., Nebraska, the Deputy Surveyor carried his lines across the First Standard Parallel North and established his closing corner from twenty to thirty chains north thereof; that at the southeast corner of Section 16, a plain government corner with mound and four good pits are found, but that the distance from said corner to the Standard is 2 miles, 33.33 chains, instead of 2 miles 78.96 chains, as recorded in the field notes. Also that a plain government corner is found at the southwest corner of section 4, and the distance from said corner to the Standard is 50.00 chains, instead of 39.18 chains, as per government field notes. Admitting your statements as to the actual location of the section corners and the closing corners to be true, it would appear that a gross fraud had been perpetrated in the original survey, and the closing corners having been established without regard to the location of the Standard upon which they should have been established, the usual rule requiring the restoration of lost corners by proportionate measurement between existing original corners, cannot be applied, and I am of the opinion that the only remedy in the case presented by you, would be an official re-survey. Under existing regulations, re-surveys will not be ordered by this office without specific authority of Congress. Very Respectfully, S. M. STOCKSBERGER, Acting Commissioner.

PROSPECT PARK.

Bert Brewer has a new wind-mill up on his place. There is to be a dance at St. German's, Friday night. Miss Mamie Widgeon was the guest of Mrs. R. W. Wade, yesterday. School district No. 48 have bought the Brewer house and will move it on the school house site at once. N. O. Wickwire came very near losing his horse, recently, by the animal getting entangled in its picket rope. September 22, 1886. N. O. W.

The best treatment for cuts, bruises, lameness, sprains and swellings is to apply Cham Berlin's Pain Balm. Sold by Willey & Walker and M. A. Spalding. Remember the fair and date—October 5, 6, 7 and 8th.

C. M. Ashmore, who is now engaged in the drug business at Yuma, Colo., was a profitable and pleasant visitor at these journalistic headquarters, Monday.

W. D. Dillon and family arrived in the city, last week, from Exter, and will make this their future home. Mr. D. is a brother-in-law of C. W. Paine, of our city.

Miss Emma Meeker of Illinois, sister of C. H. Meeker, of the City Water Works, arrived in town, Sunday evening, on a visit of three or four weeks to her brother.

Prof. W. S. Webster, of the city schools, was confined to the house, a day or two the fore-part of the week, with a slight attack of illness, but is now at his post of duty.

Miss Laura Harris, we are informed, departs for her Illinois home, to-morrow, an announcement the many friends she has made in our city, will hear with regret.

Our old and aged friends, Mr. Mahard and wife, of McCook, are visiting at the residence of L. A. Hasking across the river, also Mrs. Hogeboom, their daughter.—Red Cloud Argus.

Mrs. McAlpin and three daughters, mother and sisters of Jack McAlpin, of the Superintendent's office, arrived in the city, last week, and have gone to house keeping in the north-western part of town.

R. M. Snavely, Esq., of Indianola, smiled upon the denizens of the chief city, Friday afternoon. The Colonel simply has a complete walk-away for County Attorney—no opposition whatsoever.

Fowler Wilcox, of McCook, Neb., arrived here Saturday, and remained the guest of relatives until Tuesday, when he took his departure for home. He had been in the east for a number of weeks, where he went for the purpose principally of receiving treatment for his hearing, at the same time availing himself of the opportunity to see his relations back there.—Gilman (Ill.) Star.

Call at THE TRIBUNE office for cheap stationery, pen holders, pens.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Wheeler returned from the Sidney conference, Wednesday evening. We are happy to chronicle the fact of the reverend gentleman's return to the McCook charge for the ensuing year. May he successfully continue the work he has so favorably initiated in our city.

BORN.—To Register and Mrs. G. L. Laws, yesterday morning, a daughter.

"AS YOU LIKE IT"

That boomerang is working nicely. It means the loss of 50 good republican votes. A paradox: To make a law-breaker a law-maker. Possible! This city is assuming considerable proportions for star chamber work. "Like and I" are out of town—and great confusion and uncertainty reigneth. The $2,500 ball between the Board of Education and the City Council is open. Hear that music! To Messrs. Squire and Flynn, late of New York City, come west and take pointers on municipal affairs. "It riles light as air," lay in a stock of cold to last all winter. Ker-chew! Political science: Opportune visit east. Absent from commissioners' meeting. Can't divide commissioner district. A fact: S. L. Green cannot carry his own precinct—Willow Grove—violent measure to the contrary notwithstanding. Put a peg here. Probably you have not noticed it, but McCook is the most metropolitan city of its size and years in Uncle Sam's wide domain. Just observe her gait and general style. The relative positions of the Board of Education and the City Council were deftly changed, Monday. The former knocked the chip off the latter's shoulder, in fine form, and we calmly and confidently await the aldermanic onslaught. Will some one stand up in the synagoge and explain to the citizens of McCook what disposition has been made of the demimode and tin-horn lines which have been raised since the new regime have held the municipal reins? The salary warrants have been issued just the same. The country editor who makes this "confession," is known only to the Danville Breeze: "My son, if you want a real soft snap, where you can lie abed until 9 a. m., and have somebody else open the office; where you have only to work a few hours one day in the week; where you will have nothing but smiles and pleasant words; where you will have plenty of money and complimentary tickets to all the shows, suppers, fairs and dances; where you will have nothing to do but squat down on a flowery bed of ease and sail along the straight road to heaven, get to be editor of a newspaper. It is by far the puddings pudding that mortal man can fall into and live." At THE TRIBUNE stationery department may be found the following line of fraternity cards in stock: G. A. R., B. of L. E., H. of L. E., O. R. C., B. of R. B., A. O. of U. W., I. O. O. F., K. P., A. F. & A. M., Telegraphers, etc. Call and inspect them, if you desire anything in that line. Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is a safe and certain cure for sore nipples, skin eruptions, scald head, tetter, piles, and all smarting, itching diseases of the skin, and is unequalled for chronic sore eyes.
