J. P. SQUIRE.

HON. JAMES LAIRD

Will speak in McCook on Thursday, October 8th. Time and place will be announced later by bills.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 30, '86. [Special to THE TRIBUNE.] Laws was nominated on the third ballot. The ticket is Thayer, Shedd, Laws, Willard, Babcock, Leese, Scott and Lane.

FINALLY the Bee goes back on "the old man" Van Wyck. Oh, base ungrateful man.

THE removal of Gere from the railroad commission by Secretary of State Roggen, was the absorbing them at the state capital, last week.

CHURCH HOWE knocked the persimmons in the "big first," and there is "weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth" in the Bee hive, and Rosewater refuses to be comforted, true to his instincts.

S. L. GREEN, the railroad candidate for the legislature, has bright prospects for serving his constituents—at home. Willow Grove precinct will be in the van of the precincts that will "snow him under" in November.

DRIFTWOOD precinct's favorite candidate for the commission of the second district—Mr. J. P. Squire—has also received the endorsement of the prohibitionists of Red Willow county in convention assembled. Endorsement number three will occur early in November.

It is a matter of reflection that while the republicans of the second district of Nebraska renominated Congressman Laird, the hitter, by acclamation, the democrats of the district in Indiana to which Cobb, the hittee, belonged, have decided to retire him to private life by acclamation.—State Journal.

THERE is blood on the pale moon of Lancaster. Secretary of State Roggen, has fired Secretary Gere, of the railroad commission, perforce of the latter's opposition to Roggen in the late county convention. Judge O. P. Mason has been appointed to the vacant sinecure on the innocuous commission.

THERE seems to be a good deal of old blue stocking Presbyterianism in the quality of the Lincoln Daily State Journal's political economy. Being a wise (?) conservator of forces, its views on any question of reform, or what not, are never given lucid expression until after that question is a demonstrated fact. In other words, it never leads the public thought.

HENRY GEORGE is a full fledged candidate for mayor of New York, and expresses his belief that he is going to be elected. He says he has 65,000 votes pledged to him, and if all the other parties and factions run a separate ticket that will be enough to put him in. George would doubtless make an average New York Mayor in spite of his inveterate crankiness. It doesn't require much but the requisite number of votes to qualify a mayor of New York.

HATED and despised as Rosewater no doubt is by many Nebraskans, the fact, stubborn fact, remains that Rosewater continues to be one of the most important factors in the politics of this state. Nor is his declining star. His journalistic success is among the phenomenal ones in the history of this commonwealth. A success consummated in the face of opposition, which has relegated to the solitude of oblivion many a man of more brilliant parts, more wealth and more pleasing address, though possibly with less determination.

THE Boston women, who have the credit of keeping even with the intellectual status of the times, have taken to getting their hats checked at the theater and sitting without them during the performance. "Not ladies in full dress, either," says the Post of that city, "but ladies in the ordinary garb of the feminine American citizen." The voluntary new departure and abandonment of woman's right is to be commended. This Bostonian example should be emulated elsewhere, and give shrinking men a chance to see the stage without suffering from partial paralysis of the neck on the succeeding day.

QUITE a commotion is now being raised in Chicago over large numbers of diseased cattle (pleuro pneumonia) that are being condemned by the commission. Two thousand head at the Phoenix and Shugeldt distilleries will be condemned. The trouble is, there is not sufficient money available to pay for them; and the Chicago beef packers say it will injure their trade badly to have it go out to the world that so many of these cattle are not in good condition. We would say for the benefit of those who like canned meat, that all the condemned are cremated, and that with the vigilance of the commission, none of the diseased meat is put up.

WHAT has Bourbonism cost Missouri? It has cost the difference between the per capita wealth of Missouri ($706) and that of Illinois ($1,005), which Missouri would now have if the Republican party had been in power in the state as long as the democratic party has been. This is just $299 for each man, woman and child in the state, or $215,669,620 in all. Each individual in the state, old and young, has been robbed of $299 by the Bourbon oligarchy as really and truly as if those creatures had stolen it from him by the aid of the bludgeon or jimmy. And it is scarcely necessary to add that it is to the interest of every individual in the state that this Bourbon monster be driven from power.—Globe-Democrat.

THE republicans of Ohio have opened their campaign with rather more vigor than is usual in an off year. Governor Foraker and Congressman McKinley are already in the field, and next Tuesday evening Senator Sherman will enter the list. Having an exceedingly strong case against the democracy of the state by reason of its mal-administration, corruption and venality in all directions, the republicans appear disposed to make the most of their opportunity. With abundant ammunition in the ballot box frauds, the corruption of a United States senator, the prostitution of the supreme court and the bankrupting of the state treasury, the republicans have just made an addition to it by an exposure of the corrupt and swindling management of the penitentiary under democratic officials, and they are making good use of their last "find." Governor Foraker has been making a special study of state affairs under democratic rule and will devote himself chiefly to presenting these, while Senator Sherman will discuss the national questions and Congressman McKinley will keep the tariff question well to the fore. It will thus be seen that the republican cause in Ohio will not suffer for able, eloquent and thorough advocacy.

DEMOCRATS are whining "about the Republican failure in Maine." As the Legislature of Maine has on joint ballot just 116 republican majority it would seem as if it should satisfy reasonable people.

THEY have a new name for genuine Milwaukee beer at Sac City. It is said to be very amusing to see an old hooper with a nose like an oriole breastpin and a stomach like the swell to a lamp shade, put on a six by eight smile and call for a maiden's blush, and get it, too.

STOUC CITY was touched by the earthquake, Tuesday night. An incipient panic in a public hall was quieted by the presiding officer, who boldly announced that the "tremor" was caused by a loaded schooner sailing over the bar in the basement. The audience survived.

THE old Charter Oak insurance company, of Hartford, Conn., is wrecked through the prodigality and defalcations of its president, who slips out with more than $100,000. The Charter Oak is but one of many victims. Banks, insurance and trust companies, and large manufacturing concerns throughout the entire east, are having their tills tapped in this modern scientific manner.

A GAMBLER who had been driven out of Dodge City in 1877 for shooting a woman in a dance house belonging to the mayor, lay dying last week in Deadwood. His lips moved feebly, and a friend leaned over him to hear his last words. In a faint whisper he said: "Everything I've got is in the pot, and Death throws down a straight flush. I'm cleaned out. I've been a tough cuss. I don't suppose the Lord ever made a meaner villain. And if the Bible is true I reckon I'm going straight to Dodge City again. They can't keep me out—this time." A gasp, and he was gone.—Ex.

McCOOK.

A representative of the Republican, stopped in the thriving village of McCook since our last issue. It is the division station of the B. & M., and a neater, more comfortable appearing town it is difficult to find. McCook possesses a great advantage over many other Nebraska towns, having a system of water works which enables the denizens of the town to keep their blue grass and clover lawns in fine condition. The freshness of the green grass and shrubs will strike the stranger's eye quite as forcibly in McCook as will the home-like residences and substantial brick business houses.

Hon. G. L. Laws, the prospective secretary of state, now Register of the land office at McCook, will turn the office over to his successor about October 1st. A visit to THE TRIBUNE printing office revealed the fact, that THE TRIBUNE office is in many things a duplicate, mechanically, of the Holdrege Republican office. Mine host, Rockwood, of the Windsor hotel, looks well after the comfort of his guests and keeps a quiet hotel, which makes it a home-like resort for the traveling stranger. Taken in all, McCook is as bustling a city as will be found in southwestern Nebraska.—Holdrege Republican.

SOUTH SIDE LOCALS.

Quite a hard frost last Monday night. D. H. Babbitt is decidedly on the gain. W. T. Stone was up on the Medicine, last week. Eaton Brothers are putting up a fine dairy barn, 40x60 feet. Tim Hanan is plastering house, preparing for cold weather. Al Canaga returned, last Saturday, from his visit to Illinois. Mrs. John Stone, of the Medicine, is down to stay until after the fair. Joe Mundal and family were up to Hayes Centre, last week, to visit their farms. Perry Stone has done gone and bought himself a span of those meek and gentle bronchos. A very pleasant birthday party for Miss Dossa Hileman, at her sister, Mrs. Perry Stone's, to-night, the 30th. Jim Hill and Sam Fisher start, next week, for old Michigan. They will make the trip in a wagon. Good luck to you, boys. Will Long's father and mother failed to put in their appearance. Will got a letter saying they would wait a couple of months. Last Tuesday night, Verne, the youngest daughter of C. H. Jacobs, while playing on the floor, hurt her left arm. Dr. Kay, upon examination pronounced it dislocated at the elbow, with a slight fracture of the bone just below. UNO.

PLEASANT PRAIRIE ITEMS.

Mr. Dodge has put up about 55 tons of hay. Messrs. John and Amos Goodenberger have purchased windmills and will erect them on their farms soon. A temperance rally will be held on Dry Creek, at the same place as before, on the 10th day of October, by Mrs. Kanouse. All come and bring your baskets. Last Sabbath, a large crowd from this place, after passing over some beautiful country, arrived at Stoughton to be in attendance at the gospel and temperance meeting which was largely attended. A good time is reported. DNIL.
