CALIFORNIA AND RETURN.

FIRST CLASS, $80.00.

A first-class excursion, accompanied by a responsible agent of this company, will leave Omaha and Pacific Junction on the morning train, Thursday, October 28th, for California.

RATE.

The rate from all stations on the Burlington and Missouri R. R. for FIRST CLASS ROUND TRIP TICKETS will be as follows:
To San Francisco and return.....$80.00
To Los Angeles and return (direct route).....$80.00
To Los Angeles and return (via San Francisco).....$85.00

Tickets will only be sold for the morning train of the 28th, from the Missouri River, and all trains connecting with it.

LIMIT OF TICKETS.

Tickets will be good for return at any time within six months from date of sale; they are good thirty days westbound, and provide for stamping at return point on the day you start home, after which they will be good for thirty days eastbound. Upon application to General Passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific Company a further extension will be granted of sixty days, upon payment of twenty-five dollars additional.

Tickets may be exchanged at San Francisco or Los Angeles for return by a different route upon payment of ten dollars. Stop over tickets will be allowed in accordance with the regulations of each line within the limit of the ticket.

The Burlington Route, in connection with the Scenic Line of America (the Denver and Rio Grande Ry.) offers unrivaled opportunity for sight-seeing on the trip, taking you through Denver, the Queen City of the Rockies, the Royal Gorge or the Black Canon of the Arkansas, over the Marshall pass, 10,000 feet above the sea level, and through the Black Canon of the Gunnison.

At Salt Lake City a day will be spent among the many points of interest of the Mormon metropolis. Individual members need only accompany the main party as far as may suit their own convenience. Remember that this is the only route carrying you through Denver and Salt Lake City without tedious side trips, and enabling you to view the grandest scenery on this continent on the main line of travel.

Parties should early advise the B. & M. R. agent, from whom they intend purchasing tickets, of the number required and Pullman berths desired, in order that ample accommodations may be furnished.

BOX ELDER BLOSSOMS.

Autumn tints bedeck the Willow.

Hello, Bro. "Sivart," glad you have resurrected again.

Mrs. Turner has commenced school in the Doyle district.

Rev. Hoxwell preached in the M. E. church last Sunday evening.

A niece of Mrs. Turner, is stopping for a while at the farm on Dry Creek.

The boys around here have all quit going with the girls. What's the matter, boys?

Mat. Stewart has been riding around a good deal of late in a top buggy. What's up, Mat?

Rev. Chapin will preach at Box Elder every first and third Sunday of the month at 11 A. M., central time.

Tommy Coward looks rather down-cast of late; he says, however, that she has only gone to Kansas on a visit.

Joe Stephens has bought a fine young team of horses, and we expect Joe will turn out to church and Sunday school, pretty lively now.

Stephen Bolles has gone on a hunting excursion up the Stinking Water. He took Joe Miller and Tip Long with him, to haul the game back.

We enjoyed a call from Rev. Chapin, the new M. E. preacher for this point, on Monday. The reverend gentleman was around doing some much needed pastoral work, and seems to be making friends for himself and Christianity wherever he goes.

SELOXN.

NORTH DIVIDE DOTS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnson, of Newark, Kearney county, are visiting at his father's, Wm. Johnson.

This is the season of the year for making up the year's "sweeties," and the farmers here are busy cutting up their cane and hauling it to the cane mill to be made into syrup.

Frank Lytle gave a dance and supper at his residence on Pilot Knob, on Friday evening, the 8th inst. We understand there was a good attendance and that all enjoyed themselves.

Cause & Wooley are boring a well for Wm. Y. Johnson. We are anxiously waiting to see which will be the nearest to water, the bottom of the well, when it is finished, or the Red Willow creek, a mile distant.

Rev. Berry, of McCook, preached at Wm. Johnson's on Sunday last, and will preach there again three weeks from that day at 3 P. M. Sunday school is also held there every Sunday at the same time. Everybody is cordially invited to both services.

Miss Ida King invited a few of her friends in to celebrate her 21st birth day, on the evening of the 5th. The evening passed away quickly and pleasantly, and we think all enjoyed themselves. She received the following presents: Glass pickle dish, Mrs. Osborne, Creston, Iowa; glass bread plate, Miss Maggie Osborne, Creston, Iowa; toilet set, Mahlon Campbell and Ed. Powell, Box Elder; fruit dish, Miss Nellie Campbell, Box Elder.

JASON.

Salt Rheum or Eczema,

Old sores and ulcers, Scaldhead and Ringworm, Pain in the back and spine, Swelling in the knee joints, Sprains and bruises, Neuralgia and toothache, Tender feet caused by bunions, corns and chilblains, I warrant Beggs' TROPICAL OIL to relieve any and all of the above.

M. A. SPALDING.

At THE TRIBUNE stationery department may be found the following line of fraternity cards in stock: G. A. R., B. of L. E., B. of L. F., O. R. C., B. of R. B., A. O. of W., I. O. O. F., K. P., A. F. & A. M., Telegraphers, etc. Call and inspect them, if you desire anything in that line.

Miss MAUD HOWE says "the fashionable American family consists of one child." This is a big boost for the lonely orphan child; he can now start out "solitary and alone" and become a "fashionable American family."

The ordinary American woman can form some idea of the social standing of her new neighbors when the furniture wagons unload of course; but she is never really certain about them until the hired girl has hung out the first wash.

Miss CLEVELAND, it is said, is to retire from Literary Life. She should never have tried to edit. She cannot write. She is a school girl of mature years, and has lost by her presence before a larger public than a country village.

Purify Your Blood.

If your tongue is coated,
If your skin is yellow and dry,
If you have boils,
