THE completed election returns show that there is a republican majority in the brains of congress.—Phila. North American.

WHEN the president begins to mend his fences, he will hardly know where to begin amidst such a profusion of starting points.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

TAKEN altogether, the returns mean that the next president of the United States will be the nominee of the National republican party.—Youngstown Telegram.

MUGWUMPERY has had its day. Prohibition as a third-party movement has spent its force; but organized labor will have much to do with determining the people's choice in 1888.—New York Telegram.

THE Dallas (Texas) News, asks: "What shall it profit a president if he gains a whole world of Mugwumps and lose his own party?" It is very evident that the president has been asking himself the same question.

LINCOLN is said to be the most religious city in the state. It is only fair to state, however, that she gained this reputation before Will Jay commenced to write the "Topics of the Times" in the State Journal.—Gazette-Journal.

A NEW party has been born in the United States, a party of principles, composed of the brain and brawn and muscle of the country. Many names have been suggested for this child of progress and we will add another to the list. Let it be called the INDUSTRIAL PARTY.—The Truth.

THE New York Sun, speaking of Land Commissioner Sparks' report, says: "Why should the government be called to bear the expense of publishing a lot of personal trash that is of no possible use to any one aside from the Commissioner himself?" The Sun don't know Sparks. He imagines he is the government.

CALLED to the presidency under circumstances that aroused a prejudice against him even among members of his own party, Mr. Arthur proved one of the best presidents this country has ever had. He was, first of all, a gentleman in every sense of the word. Under him the White House became famous for its hospitality, and was in every sense the social center of the Union. In every relation in which he was thrown, Mr. Arthur proved himself hospitable, courteous, considerate to all. But he was more than this. He was throughout the patriotic American, recognizing party obligations, it is true, but thoroughly patriotic, free from narrow partisan and sectional prejudice, and the president of the whole country.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup

Will relieve that cough almost instantly and make expectation easy. Acts simultaneously on the bowels, kidneys and liver, thereby relieving the lungs of that soreness and pain and also stopping that tickling sensation in the throat by removing the cause. One trial of it will convince any one that it has no equal on earth for coughs and colds. McMillen & Weeks have secured the sale of it and will guarantee every bottle to give satisfaction.
