TOWN 4, RANGE 30.

S. G. Shaffer sowed wheat, last week.
M. H. Cole went down to Indianola, Monday, and brought up forty bushels of oats for seed.
H. Thrallkill moved from McCook onto section 2, town 3, range 30, and is now playing granger.

Carrie Moore has been spending this week, "homesteading" with her sister Hettie, and attending school.

Frank Amend don't appear to be satisfied with his farm, as he is at work, early and late, turning top side down.

Wm. Coleman gave his peach trees a thorough mulching to keep them from budding too early. Good plan.

We are pleased to announce that Mrs. Chas. K. Coleman, who has been sick, is much improved at this writing.

Mr. Frame went down to Indianola, last week, and transacted business in the interest of school district No. 65.

J. W. Corner was in McCook and brought out some seed oats that was shipped to him from Jones county, Iowa.

Wm. Epperly, recently from Iowa, moved onto a farm of his own, this week, in this town. He has a very choice quarter.

We are sorry to learn that our friend, Geo. Coleman, is confined to the house, by reason of a severe attack of rheumatism.

On Wednesday morning, when the moon was half in sight setting, the sun was just one half in sight rising. Who saw it?

Miss Hettie Moore visited her sister, in McCook, on Saturday. She returned to her claim on Sabbath afternoon, accompanied by her sister.

Wm. Coleman has been appointed assessor for this precinct. This is a new precinct that was formed last fall, and comprises all of town 4, range 30.

J. W. Corner found the old government corner to his claim, last week, which gives him fifteen acres more land than he thought he had. Now he is happy.

A three months term of school in our district closes, to-morrow, March 10th. The scholars have made unusually rapid advancement under the efficient management of Miss Hettie Moore, teacher.

This certainly is a wonderful stout country, and great activity prevails in the attempt to increase the population of our school district. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran, on March 1st, 1897, a daughter. All doing nicely.

Mr. Wilson, of Minburn, Iowa, drove over this town, last Saturday. He said, "this is the finest country I have seen, and if I can dispose of my property in Iowa, I shall be with you again soon, and shall come to stay."

Divine services will be held at our school house next Sabbath, the 13th, conducted by Rev. Berry of McCook. These services will be kept up during the summer. Preaching regular once in two weeks. Sabbath school every Sabbath.

L. Gougar and family of Polk county, Iowa, arrived at McCook, last week. They report the roads well high impassable there, on account of mud, and were surprised to find the roads dry and smooth here. They are well pleased with the country and climate, and intend locating and making this their future home. They brought seven horses, farm implements and household goods.

Mr. Saunders of Jones county, Iowa, was looking over this town, last week in January, and he was so well pleased with the country, that he decided at once to make this his future home. He went back to Iowa and settled up his affairs, and returned here, arriving in McCook, on Saturday evening and bringing four other families with him. We extend them a hearty welcome.

March 3, 1897. GRANGER.

PLEASANT RIDGE DOINGS.

From the record of time we note the following items:

Old March is here in dead earnest, and the conflict of Jack Frost with Mr. Spring, is fairly begun—only a few weeks and the triumph of Spring will be complete.

The farmers sowed a considerable quantity of spring wheat, last week.

W. W. Dunham has commenced to erect a large sod stable, 1x80 feet.

Our President thinks a great deal of the boys that used to wear the blue, and remembers them in all his votes. Let him crack away; he will need another substitute in 1898.

Red Willow county is not large enough to hold the boundary lines of School District No. 37. They want Hitchcock county and Decatur county, Kan.

The school board of District No. 73 made a flying trip to Bartley, Monday, February 28th, to stir up the County Superintendent on school business.

W. F. Thorp proves up on his homestead, March 15th. That puts another drop in Uncle Sam's treasury box.

Danbury is a way-up town—anyone can buy anything from a cambric needle to a threshing machine, or a steamboat to start navigation on the Beaver.

Our live blacksmith, James Kanouse, has established a splendid business in our midst. No wonder, for what he does is well done and at fair rates.

W. H. Allen is suffering from his old complaint, the quincy. He has a hard time with that complaint every winter.

Quite a number of farmers have rented their farms, and will work on the railroad up the Beaver, this coming summer.

J. C. Ashton has returned from the western part of Indiana. When he left there, February 18th, the mud, slush and snow, was hub deep. He thinks he will take his abode in the balmy state of Nebraska, and let the old hoosers stamp the mud to their heart's content.

YOUR CORRESPONDENT.

Mr. Wm. Westlake, stock raiser and breeder of thoroughbred horses, living near Ayoca, Nebraska, was badly injured by being thrown from a sulky. After using numerous liniments and consulting physicians, without being afforded any relief, he obtained a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm from the druggist at Ayoca, which he began using and noticed a change for the better, after a few applications; in two weeks he entirely recovered the use of his arm. It is unequalled for severe bruises and sprains, rheumatism and lame back. Sold by Willey & Walker and McMillen & Weeks.

Itch, Mange, and Scratches of every kind cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. A sure cure and perfectly harmless. Warranted by S. L. Green, Druggist, McCook.

SOUTH SIDE LOCALS.

Andrew Carson has lately built a grout house near the river.

A. C. Nettleton's house is conspicuous on a rise of ground overlooking the valley.

Among the late arrivals is W. Adelbert Graves from Wisconsin. He stands like Saul, head and shoulders above his fellows. How many boys of 17 years can measure 6 feet, 2 inches in height?

The South Side west of the Driftwood re-joice in a bridge across that creek, nearly due west of John Whittaker's. It has been under construction for more than a year, and is at last an accomplished fact. It makes the going to McCook less paradoxical. To travel two miles or so on the way to McCook, to find yourself further from it than when you started, is a striking example of retrograde progress. South Side exhibits the spirit of improvement in other respects.

School in District No. 8 commenced, last Monday, Feb. 28th, with Miss Ella E. Nettleton as teacher. This is one of the pioneer districts of the county. For years there was only a sod house with a dirt floor, a contrast to the neat framed house of the present. In that primitive building there was taught many terms of school. The teachers were Miss Sarah E. Nettleton, Mrs. Eliza Nettleton, C. L. Nettleton, Miss Bessie Ausbourne, Miss Nora Kelley and Scott Eaton. The pupils of that early period are scattered widely. Drought and grasshoppers, emphasized by some nomadic instinct, impelled many of the early settlers to move on. There were some pleasant times in that old house, which was only redeemed from squallidness by the spirit of those who used it for good purposes. It was the place of preaching services and Sunday school. In 1876, Messrs. Beecher and Mowry, students from Yale Theological Seminary, held regular services there and in other parts of the county. They were succeeded by Father Pugh of Fairfield, Neb., and he by Father Dresser—all held services in the old sod building. In 1876, grasshopper year, it was the scene of Christmas festivity. There was a bountiful supper and well laden Christmas tree, and a brave, cheerful-hearted company, to celebrate the season of good will, notwithstanding the discouragements and gloom of the outlook. The irrepressible Aryan, wanderers through so many centuries, from Central Asia, were not to be turned from their westward course by the petty fiction of the Great American Desert. It might be a country for flocks and herds for grazing, not for agriculture. It probably was. But none the less did they argue prosperity and wealth for the country. They expected pecuniary success. They translated without the aid of Latin, pecuni—cattle, into pecuni—money. Nebraska, as well as Nature, is full of surprises. She would have her children something more than nomads, and is now proving herself to be a country for agriculture.

Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup

Will relieve that cough almost instantly and make expectation easy. Acts simultaneously on the bowels, kidneys and liver, thereby relieving the lungs of that soreness and pain and also stopping that tickling sensation in the throat by removing the cause. One trial of it will convince any one that it has no equal on earth for coughs and colds. McMillen & Weeks have secured the sale of it and will guarantee every bottle to give satisfaction.

THE act making drunkenness a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment, passed the Kansas senate without a dissenting vote. Under the present circumstances getting drunk is regarded an exhibition of willfulness and cussedness.
