

The Tribune Supplement.

McCOOK, NEBRASKA, APRIL 28, 1887.

OUR state fish commission has sent for 25,000,000 more eggs of wall-eyed pike. Our prairies will be alive with 'em by next fall.

FEE, fi, fo fum, I smell the blood of a Bohemian Jew, is the song of the daily papers of the state. In the meantime Rosewater continues in business at the old stand.

DR. LYMAN BEECHER once replied to an inquiry of Dr. Hawes, "How are you getting along?" "First-rate! first-rate! first-rate! never since I stopped running to run this world."

MRS. YEAST—This is very nice cake. Did you get the receipt out of a cook-book? Mrs. Fussanfeather—No; I made it out of my own head. "You don't say? It is certainly very light."

ON an orchard of Italian chestnuts, near Los Gatos, now coming bearing, $300 is said to have been realized this year per acre. The chestnut is said to do well generally in the foot hills of California.

WOMAN is working wonders in Kansas. A judge who no doubt was captivated by the sirenical blandishments of a woman suffragist, recently decided that 'a woman does not change her name by marrying, but that she retains what is general known as her maiden name through life.

THE Salvation army parades the street of Peoria, Ill., and defies the chief of police. A town with thirteen distilleries running night and day and a Salvation army running at large should repose in the arms of happiness and be oblivious to all the struggles of the outside bustling world.

THE wife of an Illinois man did not want her husband to vote for a certain measure. So she talked him sick and then covered him with mustard plasters till he could not turn over in bed much less go to the polls. She kept him blistered till the crisis was past. Some women have great heads.

JUDGE COCHRAN.

Oberlin Eye: J. E. Cochran, of McCook, has been appointed judge of one of the new districts, the 11th, in Nebraska. Judge Cochran is well known here, having practiced law in this city, and served as county attorney of this county. Our acquaintance dates back ten years, when he was county superintendent of York county, Neb., and we were doing educational work in that state.

Reveille: The appointment for Judge of this district was made this week, the same being received by J. E. Cochran of McCook. From considerable acquaintance with Judge Cochran, we have confidence that the district will have an honest Judge and one who will dispense justice impartially. The appointment was made in accordance with expressed will of a large majority of the district.

Cambridge Kaleidoscope: Gov. Thayer, on Monday, appointed Mr. Cochran of McCook, as Judge of the Eleventh judicial district. Judge Cochran is a lawyer of ability and we believe his appointment will almost universal satisfaction throughout the district.

Bartley Inter-Ocean: Gov. Thayer appointed Mr. Cochran of McCook as judge of this, the Eleventh Judicial District, Monday. Judge Cochran is a lawyer of ability, and we believe his appointment will give almost universal satisfaction.

HOME GIRLS.

The girls that are wanted are good girls,
Good from the heart to the lips;
Pure as the lily white and pure
From its heart to its sweet leaf-tips.

The girls that are wanted are home girls,
Girls that are mother's right hand.
That fathers and brothers can trust to
And the little ones understand.

Girls that are fair on the hearthstone,
And pleasant when nobody sees;
Kind and sweet to their own folk,
Ready and anxious to please.

The girls that are wanted are wise girls,
They know what to do and to say;
That drive with a smile or soft word,
The wrath of the household away.

The girls that are wanted are girls of sense,
Whom fashion can never deceive;
Who can follow whatever is pretty
And dare what is silly to leave.

The girls that are wanted are careful girls,
Who count what a thing will cost;
Who use with a prudent, generous hand,
But see that nothing is lost.

The girls that are wanted are girls with hearts;
They are wanted for mothers and wives;
Wanted to cradle in loving arms
The strongest and frailest of lives.

The clever, the witty, the brilliant girl,
They are very few, understand;
But, oh! for the wise, loving home girls,
There's a constant and heavy demand.
