THE immigration into the land of the free, this year, it is estimated, will reach 1,000,000.

THE late census indicates Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, to be the richest agricultural county in America.

THE South is threatened with another siege of yellow fever. It is stated that the pestilential visitor has already made its appearance in Key West, Fla.

CRETANS are just essaying to lisp the song so dear and familiar to the average Nebraskan, in its harmony and cadence, "The Way We Boom."

If the richest bottom land was 3 cents an acre, the Henry George school of patriots would not buy an acre—if the condition was that they must plow it.

CAMBRIDGE has performed a proper caper in voting $4,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a school house. They will put $5,000 or $6,000 in the enterprise.

THE newspaper men throughout the state favor a law making the rate for passenger traffic two cents per mile. The law would be popular with the masses as well.

THE state railway commission has been rapping the roads over the knuckles in an imperative manner with a brass-edged ruler. To what effect remains to be seen.

In addition to an annual salary of $40,000, it is stated that Tom Potter will receive a bonus of $40,000 from the U. P. for his first year's services as manager of their consolidated lines.

THE Omaha Herald places the "morality" of Western Nebraska cattle at a dreadfully low ebb—5 per cent. The Herald is mistaken. The morale of Western Nebraska quadrupeds is excellent.

ASSASSINATION seems to be the lot of the average active prohibitionist. The blood of such martyrs as Haddock, Northrup, Gambrell, et al., is never spilled in vain; but woe betide the murderous saloonists by whom the blood was shed.

THE Chautauqua assembly grounds in Crete are being improved and beautified for the coming meeting. A number of nobby private cottages are going up and a number of society buildings contracted for. It is expected that the state press association will erect quarters.

THE "Topics Man"—Will S. Jay—of the Lincoln Journal can betimes exhibit a lack of modesty at once rare and phenomenal, even for a journalist. Just what the great world loses in this discrepancy of values—personal estimate and market value—will never be computed.

THE Chicago Inter Ocean passes this deserved compliment: "The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers should be given large credit. They don't strike. No class of workmen are more thrifty or more intelligent than the men who make up 'The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.'"

MAYOR ROCHE is purifying Chicago with a rapidity that makes the average citizen's head swim. He has closed up two hundred saloons and is refusing licenses every day, has shut up assignation houses in every direction, and it is said that he has carried so much terror to the criminal classes that an unprotected lady can walk the "levee" in perfect safety from molestation and insult after dark.—Journal.

It has been the impression that pension money was exempt from levy or attachment under the United States statute. The Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania has ruled that pension money or its proceeds was liable to legal process, execution, or attachment execution. United States statutes on the subject say that pension money due is not liable to levy under any legal or equitable process, but shall insure wholly to the benefit of such pensioner. The State Court holds that this provision only applies to the fund while it is in the course of transmission from the Government to the pensioner. Therefore, after it once reaches the recipient, it is thereafter subject to judicial seizure like the property of other defendants, whether it is kept in the name of another for him.
