EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

MAY O'BRIEN, ANNA STARBUCK,
Editor, Assistant.

THERE are 120 school teachers in Brown Co.

THE school census gives Lincoln a population of 39,340.

THE school treasury of Fremont is financially well fixed, having $16,000 cash in sight.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in New York to erect a statue of the late ex-President Arthur.

By the U. S. census report of 1880, the value of churches, school houses, and public buildings was placed at $2,000,000,000.

THE Garfield statue in Washington, erected under the auspices of the Army of the Cumberland, was unveiled May 12th.

DR. JAMES B. CAYWOOD, who held a position on the staff of the Long Island College Hospital, died April 15, at his residence in Brooklyn.

THE school treasurer of Lee's Park, Valley county, has disgraced the defaulting profession by disappearing with the insignificant sum of $200.

A CREW will probably come to this country, this summer, from Cambridge University, England, to row with the Harvard crew at New London, Conn.

AMONG the passengers on the steamer "La Bretagne" which arrived at New York, recently, was Rev. Brother August Groc, the distinguished deaf mute teacher of the Institute des Sourds Muets in Montreal.

THE first of the Shermans to come to this country lived in England in 1630. He afterwards became a Professor of Mathematics at Harvard and published several almanacs. From this brainy man are descended Senator Sherman and General W. T. Sherman.

THE graduating class of Bunker Hill school numbers 12—Mr. Bickerdryers eighth class at that place. The commencement week includes a school entertainment, Thursday evening, May 29th, a field day of sports May 30th, and graduating exercises that evening.

Lane, Room 57, Court House, Chicago, and Jerome Allen, 25 Clinton Place, New York.

ANN ARBOR, Michigan, offers its attractions also to the teacher, this summer. A summer session of the National School of Elocution and Oratory, Philadelphia, will be held in the University buildings, Ann Arbor, from July 5 to August 18. There will be two courses of instruction—the short course, embracing voice culture, orthology, gesture, analysis in reading and expressive reading. The extended course, comprising a fuller discussion of the subjects of the short course, dramatic reading, artistic recitation, and extemporaneous speech. The instruction will be given with a view to the pupils completing the course at the school in Philadelphia, but it will be none the less valuable for those who come only for the single term.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The 30th day of May has been recognized and set apart throughout the United States as Memorial Day, and a due observance has been recommended.

NOW, I, THURGOOD, I, the undersigned, Mayor of the City of McCook, State of Nebraska, do hereby proclaim and give notice of the observance of Memorial Day in said city on the 30th day of May, 1887, and recommend that all places of business be closed from one o'clock, P. M. to 4 o'clock, P. M. on said day, as a fitting tribute to those honored dead, who sacrificed their lives on the altar of their country.

WITNESS my hand and seal this 23rd day of May, 1887.

T. M. HELM, Mayor.

June 13—circus day.

The young people will participate in a social hop at McNeely hall, this evening.

The educational column is short this issue, by reason of lateness in delivering copy.

A communication from the South Side will have to go over on account of lack of space.

Judge Cochran arrived home from Gosper county, last night. His next session of court will be held in this county, without jury, commencing on Tuesday of next week.

A party of railroad men passed through this station, yesterday noon, for Akron, on a hunting expedition. They traveled in Hol-drege's car—he being among the number.

A telegram to David Bryan from the groom announces the marriage of William Capps, of the B. & M. water service, yesterday, to one of Parkersburg's (Ill.) fair daughters.

A. F. & A. M.—The annual meeting of McCook Lodge, A. F. & A. M., for the election of officers, will be held, Tuesday evening, June 7th. All members are expected to be present.

W. S. WEBSTER, Secretary.

A more auspicious time will not soon come for the agitation of the project to build a bridge over the Republican, east of the city. Mr. Hatfield is now visiting on his ranch, and offers to pay $100 toward the enterprise and to donate the right of way for a road through his lands. Will not some action be taken.

PROF. W. S. WEBSTER, principal of the McCook city schools, is rapidly coming to the front among leading Nebraska educators. Under his direction the schools of the best town in the Republican valley have been rapidly advanced, and THE JOURNAL is well pleased to know that his work and worth are attracting due attention.—State Journal.

Last evening, J. T. Smith, who lives north of the city, was severely injured in a run-away by his own team, a spirited span of horses. He was thrown to the ground and badly shaken up and bruised. The injured man was rendered insensible by the concussion, and was very sick for some time, but finally recovered sufficiently to be conveyed home.

The body of a contractor on the Beaver branch, named James Keenan, was brought to the city, yesterday noon, from Beaver City, and interred in Longview cemetery by Undertaker Miller, the same afternoon. The deceased had sustained a badly fractured leg, and stoutly refusing to have amputation performed, blood poisoning set in, and caused his death. He was over 60 years of age.

THE sum total of advantage gained by the recent confab between the state railroad commission and Kimball of the U. P., and Holdrege of the B. & M., may be expressed in the famous interrogation of Boss Tweed, "What are you going to do about it?" Probably the commissioners are unable to answer.

The people of Nebraska are eminently qualified, however, to elucidate the proposition. We will wager a quantity of back accounts that they will do so in the not remote future.

FRANKLIN received a visitation, last Saturday, in the shape of a hailstorm of terrific proportions. Buildings were blown down, crops damaged, animals injured, windows demolished, and a lively time in general was had.
