

The McCook Tribune.

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 2, 1898.

Remember Noble for groceries.

Sweet cider at the City Bakery.

Noble for superb hanging lamps.

Fine cass pants and suits at THE FAMOUS.

Dr. Hall's office, over First National bank.

Another tumbler in gold watches at McCracken's.

Fresh sausage at the B. & M. Meat Market.

Boys, buy one of those $2.50 watches at McCracken's.

Queenware and glassware at Berry's Grocery House.

Everything in summer underwear and hosiery at THE FAMOUS.

Use Paxton's Havana cigar scraps. They are all right.

All kinds of chewing tobacco at Paxton's, Main Avenue.

Banjos, accordeons, guitars, etc., at McCracken's Music Store.

Fresh and smoked meats of all kinds at the B. & M. Meat Market.

Everything fresh and clean in the way of groceries at Noble's store.

Everything usually kept in first class establishment at Oswald's restaurant.

Cash paid for live stock, poultry and hides at the B. & M. Meat Market.

Unlaundered Shirts, all sizes, at THE FAMOUS.

There is no other way. Buy your groceries, queensware, etc., at Noble's.

You must not fail to read the new advertisement of THE FAMOUS.

Plumbing in all its branches promptly and skillfully performed by F. D. Burgess.

The latest from the strike is that H. H. Berry has reached bottom prices in Groceries.

The price of liberty is eternal vigilance, but Noble's prices on groceries are sure to catch you.

You will find one of the finest assortments of fresh candies in the city at Oswald's restaurant.

For an easy, clean shave drop into Simpson & Jay's new shop in the Citizens bank building.

The little girl who lost her hat at the grand stand, July Fourth evening, can have same by calling at this office.

An immense line of silk, pongee alpaca and flannel coats and vests.

THE FAMOUS.

A shipment of fresh candies just received at the City Bakery. Call while they are fresh and nice.

The celebrated Olds wagon for sale by Leland & Morrow. Also spring wagons, buggies, etc. All very cheap.

The thermometer has been up on its high horse for the past week or two—over 100 degrees above in the shade.

Is selecting the stars and stripes as an offset to the bandana, the republicans have "scooped" the bourgeois again.

If you want nice tender beefsteak give the B. & M. Meat Market a call. They butcher none but the choicest of beefs.

Leland & Morrow carry a complete stock of corn, oats, chop feed, and in fact of everything belonging to a first-class flour and feed store.

Is the information is of any value to our young friends of the Wauneta Breeze we respectfully impart and submit it: "Deride" is properly spelled divide.

I have secured the exclusive right of McCook and will handle nothing but the celebrated Cozad flour. Full roller process and every sack warranted. Car lot just received. Try it. H. H. BEAVER.

We regret that the length of Judge Henderson's address precludes the possibility of our presenting it to our readers in its entirety, this week. The conclusion will appear in our next issue, however.

If you want something handsome in the way of a hanging lamp, call on C. M. Noble. He is just in receipt of the largest and finest stock of hanging lamps ever brought to southwestern Nebraska.

The boys are endeavoring to organize a drum corps for the campaign, but lack a base drum. They will perhaps attempt to raise sufficient money to buy one, by subscription; if so, they should be encouraged. A good drum corps is almost indispensable in a campaign.

Judge Henderson entertained a large audience, last night, at the ball ground amphitheatre, with a stirring political speech. The Judge is an able campaigner, experienced and eloquent and inspired his hearers with the most demonstrative enthusiasm, his speech being heartily and frequently cheered during its delivery.

THE FAMOUS.

Of fine residences M. A. Libbee makes a specialty. Don't fail to see him if you intend to build. Good workmanship guaranteed. Prices the lowest.

The Building and Savings Association is a great money making scheme, which can only be discounted by buying your groceries and queensware at Berry's.

The Board of Trade has taken the matter under consideration and decided unanimously that Berry's is the place to buy Groceries, Queensware, etc.

We have a No. 1 carriage and wood workman in our wagon shop. Fine carriage work a specialty. Give us a trial. PREDMORE BROS.

A complete line of drugs, tobacco, sundries, fancy articles, perfumes, and in fact of everything usually kept in a first-class apothecary shop at the City Drug Store.

It is a matter to Judge Cochran's credit that in every case from his last district court, tried before the late state supreme court, his decisions were reaffirmed in every instance.

The announcement of R. M. Snavely, Esq., of Indiana, as a candidate for re-election to the office of county attorney, appears in this issue. Mr. Snavely has filled the office with credit to himself and to the best interests of Red Willow county, and should be the choice of the republican county convention will no doubt continue to discharge the duties of the office ably and satisfactorily.

THE FAMOUS.

W. C. LA TOURETTE & CO.

JUST RECEIVED! Two barrels of extra sweet cider at the City Bakery, which will be sold at 50 cents a gallon.

Fruits, drinks, ice cream, all kinds of temperance drinks at Clark & Dietrich's Box Ton bakery and confectionery.

Blue uniform suits, pants and caps for conductors or brakemen at THE FAMOUS.

This week, Leland & Morrow have received a car-load of fall and winter wheat flour. They carry the best grades.

If you contemplate building be sure to consult M. A. Libbee. He guarantees his work to be the best and his prices the lowest.

The school building, city hall, bridge, and other local projects should not draw your attention from the fact that Berry sells groceries at bed rock figures.

User fater, der du bist in himmel, ge hellet sie die nauma; die reich kuma, die welt g'sha uf der erd wie im himmel; geb uns heit unser taglich brod; un' fergeb uns unser schuld wie unser schuldigen ferge; unser uns net in der ferschnung; aver alo uns fun bade; den den es rich, de gewalt, un' de herriekheit fun ewigkheit. Amen.

The next eclipse of the moon will occur on the night of July 23rd, and will be more interesting than the one of January 28th. The diameter of the earth's shadow will be much larger at that time in proportion to the diameter of the moon, darkening the surface more totally. It will take place at midnight, when the moon is higher in the heavens, and will be visible in this section.

The "milk shake" is fast growing in popularity as a public and private drink, and as a substitute and vastly improved physically and especially morally, over any kind of intoxicants. To make it, take a half tumbler of good milk (a little addition of cream is no damage to it), add two teaspoonsful of powdered sugar, flavor with a few drops of vanilla, and fill the tumbler with broken ice. It is then whirled in a machine called the "milk shaker" till all is well shaken and the ice partly melted.

We like to hear a man refuse to take his home paper, and all the time sponge on his neighbor for the reading of it. We like to hear a man complain when he asks to subscribe for his home paper, that he takes more than he can read now, and then go and borrow his neighbor's or loaf around until he gathers all the news from it. We like to see a man run down his home paper and then try to get a share of the trade which the newspapers brings to the town; we like to see it; it looks economical, thrifty, progressive and last but not least, cheeky.

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

MISS JULIA AND CELIA REITER THE WILLING VICTIMS OF "SURPRISING" FRIENDS.

The B. & M. Eating House was the scene of a select gathering of choice spirits, Monday evening, in the nature of a surprise-party and in honor of the Misses Reiter.

The "invaders" were fully equipped for the festive occasion, refreshments in profusion had they, besides "carrying their own orchestra," with which made up the major measure of the evening's joy. The participants were:

MR. AND MRS.—E. A. Leach, H. A. Brown, George Goodwin, and E. C. Bailey.

MISSES—Julia Menard, Lella Wideman, Nina Bullard, Sara Lowman, Ollie Hannab, Louis Starbuck, Maggie McAlpine, Lillie Rowell, Tene McAlpine, Myrtle Hunt, Maude McConnell, Doris Hunt and Elva Hunt.

MESSRS.—Thomas Glascott, A. C. Ebert, Geo. B. Berry, Lou W. McConnell, J. D. Robb, Albert McMillen, J. D. McAlpine, C. B. Wahlquist, J. F. Forbes, M. E. Mullen, F. W. Vore, and Ernest Benedict.

James W. Hupp, Sebaut, this county, has been appointed a notary public. But where is Sebaut, anyhow?

Bullard & Co. seem to have great faith in the boom from the amount of lumber they are receiving now-a-days.

We saw the finest thing on the market in the line of screen doors, handsomely painted, at the Badger lumber yard.

Bernheimer is advertising specially low prices in suitings and trousers. See his change of advertisement, this issue.

Remember the lecture at the Lutheran church, Tuesday evening, July 10th, by Prof. Valentine. Subject, "Our Neighbors."

The mercury has been noting a temperature over 100 degrees above zero for a number of days past. 102 in the shade, Sunday.

The new firm, C. G. Potter & Co., assumed charge of the Thompson feed and flour store, Monday morning. May success be their portion.

A party of young people of the city enjoying a quiet little picnic, Sunday, in the Boyd park at the mouth of the more or less classed Driftwood.

Since Saturday last, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Coleman have been taking parent pride in a baby of the usual weight and lung development.

The funeral sermon of little Mabel Bradley will be preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning next at 10:30, M. T., by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Kimmel.

We see it stated that the elch bugs have put in an appearance in small numbers in certain portions of the county, but have occasioned no damage up to this time.

The Fries & Hocknell Lumber Co., this week, repaired their stable which was damaged by the fire, last Monday evening. Most of the lower part escaped the flames.

County Attorney Snavely spent two or three days of this week in the chief city. We might add, incidentally, that the Colonel brought his elegant assortment of birds with him.

John Steinmetz is building himself a residence of ample dimensions and fair proportions, on the hill in West McCook. It is already enclosed and being pushed toward completion rapidly.

Fifty cents a hundred for ice, these warm days, draws largely on the surplus, and of kicking there is not a little. We venture the price will be more moderate another year. Perhaps a little competition might be salutary.

Subj. Phtan's family is incurring in the rich portion of a fine Ayrshire bovine that the Colonel brought home with him, last Saturday evening. She is a gilt-edged animal and the only one of the breed, we believe, in this section.

Death invaded the happy household of Mr. and Mrs. Rendley of West McCook, Monday morning, claiming as his own their young daughter. The funeral occurred on Tuesday morning. They have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

Since the first of the month Mr. Bailey of West McCook has been running the street spikeler, Mr. Zager retiring. Mr. Bailey's stock of national game, prize bands, cavalry drills, shau battles, water works test, and scores of minor attractions will be on the daily program. The beautiful camp ground of 1,000 tents and immense amphitheatre is only five minutes' walk from the postoffice depot. The B. & M. will give one fare for round trip to any point on their lines. For further information write to E. W. Beghtol, President; M. C. Bradley, Secretary.

It costs no more to keep a thoroughbred, says the Flowman, than a scrub. It takes no more vital energy to assimilate good, wholesome food than the common dietetic abominations; it takes no more to operate a good implement than a poor one, it takes no more time to read instructive books than gossipy, sensational newspaper trash; it takes no more mental effort to live a good life and bless mankind with its fruits than to co-operate with the devil by shirking honest labor and beating the world out of a living. In brief, it pays to have the best—the best implements, the best food, the best literature and the best morality.

Mr. Ed. Hyde of the Lincoln Daily News came up to the city, Tuesday, on a short visit to his friend, W. C. Bullard. Their TRAMUXX had the pleasure of a short, fraternal call. He returned home on the evening train, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Constant, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Trowbridge for a short time, depart for their home in Chicago, to-morrow. Mrs. E. C. Ludwig will accompany them.

Judge Henderson leaves to-morrow morning, via Cambridge, for Stockville, on a visit to his brother, Col. Henderson, county judge of Frontier county.

W. C. Bullard's brother and sister, who have been visiting in the city the past few weeks, left for Clatsworth, Ill., Thursday evening.

Fred Lytle came down from Benkelman, Thursday evening, on business, returning home on the following morning's train.

Mrs. C. L. Nettleton and Miss M. E. McKee leave for San Francisco, next Thursday, to attend the national teachers' convention.

It is with a feeling of regret that we chronicle the contemplated departure of Mr. R. P. High, Manager of the Hayes Centre Loan Agency, to his former home in Red Willow county. Since Mr. High's advent into our midst he has made hosts of friends and built up a profitable business. The republicans lose a shrewd leader.—Hayes Centre Times.

Coleman Bros., of McCook, have purchased the stock of hardware belonging to J. B. Hunter, and rented the building and will open up a fine stock of hardware immediately. They are invading the stock-to-day, the 22nd.—Culbertson Reveille.

We understand that Kingsbury of pugilistic fame was pretty thoroughly thumped in a difficulty with a brotherhood man, Fourth of July evening. We failed to secure any particulars.

Frank Redd, a former B. & M. employe, but at present engineering on a Mexican railway, is visiting in the city.

INDEPENDENCE DAY!

Patriotic Multitudes Witness its Successful Celebration in McCook.

McCOK DOES HERSELF PROUD!

The Beauty and Pleasure of the Glorious Day Unmarred.

The morning of the Fourth of July dawned bright and beautiful and the city was at an early hour crowded with people from all over the county and from various neighboring towns. The celebration, from the first boom of the grand pyrotechnic display at night was an eminent success in every essential feature, in which our citizens may well take pride.

The procession and trades' parade was a most creditable and extensive affair, and would have reformed to the honor of a far more pretentious city. Those of our business people who were represented in
