Frank R. Stockton's Account Of His Dog, "Fax."

"One Sunday, as with a well-dressed crowd I was going to church, I found Fax following me. Knowing that he never entered a church, I took no particular notice of him; but happening to look back a second time, I saw him at my heels with a twist-loaf in his mouth! He had been in the shop of an irreligious baker in those few minutes. This was too much for my sense of propriety, and as I failed utterly to drive him off, and began to attract considerable attention, I was obliged to go down a side-street and so home. That dog was never abashed. I have seen him chase chickens into the very house of their owners, and, before their astonished eyes, pin the poor fowls to the floor. Of course, at such times, I did not wish any one to think that I was acquainted with the dog. But on being discovered in any disreputable intrusion into house, store, or garden, it was his habit to run to us, and Jog along demurely behind us, as much as to say, 'These are the folks I belong to; if you have anything to say, say it to them.' And very often people did say it to us." From "Dogs of Noted Americans," by Gertrude Van R. Wickham, in ST. NICHOLAS for July.

A BAD CASE OF FLUX CURED.

My little boy about eight months old, was taken with flux. After several days, we commenced giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions. We were very uneasy about the child, and sent for a physician. I told him what we had been doing, and showed him the medicine. He examined it, and told us the best thing we could do, was to go ahead and give the remedy. We used about half of a small bottle, and cured the child, although the child was so slow, that he had no use of himself. We thought so much of your Remedy that we would let no one else have it. I told my wife a few days ago that I must write you that your medicine had done. G. W. LUGAR, Zion's Hill, Virginia. Sold by all druggists.

The following is the way New York has gone for the last quarter of a century:

1864. Republican.
1868. Democratic.
1872. Republican.
1876. Democratic.
1880. Republican.
1884. Democratic.

So you see that no time since 1860 has the state been carried in succession by the same party. The indications are in favor of the Republicans this year.

New Sectional Wall Map of Nebraska.

ISSUED JULY 1st, 1888.
Some wide-awake salesman is advised to give the residents of this vicinity an opportunity to examine and secure a copy of the latest and best Sectional Map of our Great State, a copy of which now adorns our office. The New Counties, the present outlines of organized townships (voting precincts), completed railroads and recent changes, are clearly shown. Nice little points of geographical accuracy have received the most careful attention. The location of towns and their population, is readily found by reference to the index which now accompanies each map. Rand, McNally & Co., 148-154 Monroe street, Chicago, are the publishers, and we predict pleasant and profitable employment for the fortunate agent who obtains the right to represent them.

Purify Your Blood.

Bedly and mental health depend upon a healthy condition of the blood. The blood particularly in the spring and summer months, becomes clogged with impurities, which poison it and generate disease. A harmless blood purifier is necessary to restore a healthy tone. The best purifier, and tonic known is Switt's Specific (S. S. S.). Of its wonderful purifying and tonic powers we give a few testimonials:

Mr. Wm. A. Scheldt, with George P. Rowell & Co., 10 Spruce Street, New York, writes: "I feel it my duty, for the benefit of others who may be afflicted as I was, to write you this letter, which you can use in any way you choose. I suffered greatly from gonorrhoea, all over my neck; I could not turn my head without acute pain. After trying all the usual remedies, and finding no relief, I used one bottle S. S. S., and very soon I was entirely relieved of my 'Job's Comforters.' Now not a sign of my affliction can be seen."

Mr. M. S. Hamlin, Winston, N. C., writes: "I use it every spring. It always builds me up, giving me appetite and digestion, and enabling me to stand the hot summer days. On using it I soon became strong of body and easy of mind."

Mr. C. E. Mitchell, West 23d St. Ferry, New York, writes: "I weighed 110 pounds when I began taking your medicine, and now 132 pounds. I would not be without S. S. S. for several times its weight in gold."
