A BAD CASE OF FLUX CURED.

My little boy about eight months old, was taken with flux. After several days, we commenced giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy according to directions. We were very uneasy about the child, and sent for a physician. I told him what we had been doing, and showed him the medicine. He examined it, and told us the best thing we could do, was to go ahead and give the remedy. We used about half of a small bottle, and cured the child, although the child was so slow, that he had no use of himself. We thought so much of your Remedy that we would let no one else have it. I told my wife a few days ago that I must write, and tell you what your medicine had done. G. W. LUGAR, Zion's Hill, Virginia. Sold by all druggists.

Cure of Cancer and Ulcers.

Judge T. C. McLondon writes to the Swift Specific Co.: "About three years ago, Jerry Bradley had a cancerous sore on his face, near the right eye. It caused him a great deal of pain, and he lost the sight of the eye, but was finally cured by the use of Swift's Specific. This case is well known in Wilkes Co., Ga., where he lives."

Mr. L. Cox, of Arkabutla, Tate Co., Miss., writes: "I suffered a great deal from old ulcers for years. Your medicine was recommended, and after using six bottles I was completely cured. Your medicine does even more than you claim for it. I have known it to cure cases which were thought hopeless."

Mrs. A. M. Goldsmith, No. 674 Warren St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I commenced using S. S. S. about three years ago. I had suffered from a sore throat for over a year. I used a great many other remedies with no good results. My little girl, also, had sore fingers; it commenced from the quick, and then the nails would come off. We doctored her for over two years, and when I commenced using S. S. S. I thought I would see what it would do for her. I am thankful to say that it entirely cured her. It is the best remedy I know of for the blood. I really believe it was the means of saving my life. The doctor told me I had a throat disease similar to Gen. Grant's. I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from disordered blood."

One cent a day.

THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS

announces the reduction of its price from Two cents to ONE CENT per copy.

IT is fitting that the pioneer of low-priced journalism in the West should lead in placing the American newspaper of to-day upon the basis of the lowest unit of American coinage. Twelve years ago that unit was the nickel in Chicago and throughout the Northwest. The founding of THE DAILY NEWS at a lower price was regarded by the journalistic profession as inviting certain failure. But they were wrong. To-day there is not a nickel paper in Chicago, and the circulation of THE DAILY NEWS averages, as shown by its published sworn statements, 175,000 copies a day—with a single exception the largest daily circulation in America, and greater than the circulations of all other Chicago dailies combined.

THE DAILY NEWS has prospered beyond the most sanguine hopes of its founders. For this it has more than once made its grateful acknowledgments to an appreciative public. It believes, however, that the time has now come when, acting entirely within the limits of a wise commercial progression, it can give its thanks more practical expression. It proposes henceforth to "divide" as to its friends—and to multiply as to its circulation. To-day it reduces its price to One Cent—and expects to double its circulation.

And anticipating the questionings of the doubtful let it be briefly said that the thing can be done. THE DAILY NEWS—all that it has been in the past, as well as all that is rightly expected of it in the future as a leader in progressive American journalism—can be produced and sold for one cent a day, and this by reason of those common principles of trade which make possible lower prices just in proportion as the aggregate volume of sales increases. THE DAILY NEWS now sells over a million papers a week, as shown by its published sworn statements of circulation, and it can afford to sell at a smaller profit per paper than other Chicago dailies, no one of which has as much as one-third the average daily circulation of THE DAILY NEWS. The large addition to its present million-a-week circulation, which will surely come with its reduction to one cent a day, will fully compensate for the reduced profit at which each paper is sold. All this concerns the reader only as assuring him that THE DAILY NEWS can reduce its price and at the same time maintain its high character as the foremost newspaper of the Northwest—that a million-a-week circulation makes the otherwise impossible entirely possible.

The present is peculiarly the time to inaugurate this popular departure in American journalism. The approaching Presidential election widens immeasurably the field and opportunity for THE DAILY NEWS as an independent, impartial, fearless newspaper—one free from all the entanglements of mere partisan allegiance. The demand is more and more for a newspaper which shall give all the political news free from partisan coloring, and which shall tell the absolute, unvarnished truth about things, regardless of its effect upon the fortunes of this or that political party or candidate. This demand THE DAILY NEWS aims to meet, and at its reduced price it combines all the elements which should make it literally everybody's paper.

To the thousands of new readers whose attention is now for the first time directed to THE DAILY NEWS it is proper to say that they will find it complete in all the essentials of the best American journalism of to-day. Its quality as a newspaper proper is best indicated in the fact that it is the only low-priced paper in Chicago or the North-west, which is a member of the "Associated Press." The other "Associated Press" papers in Chicago, the Tribune, the Times and Inter-Ocean all cost three cents. THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS prints all the news and sells it for one cent a day. Sold by all news dealers. Mailed, postage paid, at $3.00 per year, or 25c. per month. Address VICTOR F. LAWSON, Publisher, THE DAILY NEWS, CHICAGO.
