

The McCook Tribune.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 16, 1899.

STATIONERY. SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

SCHOOL BOOKS

—AT—

The Tribune Office,

At Publisher's Prices.

BLANK BOOKS. LEGAL BLANKS.

UNIVERSAL BARK LINIMENT

25c per 50c and $1.00
IS AN INFALLIBLE AND SPEEDY CURE FOR ALL
COMMON DISEASES OF BONES AND MUSCLES.
GENUINE
NOT BEARING
YOUR OWN
TRADE MARK. BARK LINIMENT CO.
LIBERTY, NEB.
For Sale by A. McMillen.

Remember Noble for groceries.

Sweet cider at the City Bakery.

Noble for superb hanging lamps.

Fresh sausage at the B. & M. Meat Market.

Fine jersey coats and cardigan jackets.
THE FAMOUS.

A consignment of nice fresh oysters just received at the City Bakery.

Everything fresh and clean in the way of groceries at Noble's store.

Cash paid for live stock, poultry and hides at the B. & M. Meat Market.

There is no other way. Buy your groceries, queensware, etc., of Noble.

Go to McCracken for musical instruments. We have everything in that line.

A full line of strictly pure spices for pickles, sauces, etc., at the City Drug Store.

Plumbing in all its branches promptly and skillfully performed by F. D. Burgess.

Children's suits, overcoats and caps. Latest novelties and largest stock.
THE FAMOUS.

Just received at A. McMillen's Drug Store a large assortment of the latest designs in LAMPS.

The price of liberty is eternal vigilance, but Noble's prices on groceries are sure to catch you.

A shipment of fresh candies just received at the City Bakery. Call while they are fresh and nice.

The celebrated Olds wagon for sale by Leland & Morrow. Also spring wagons, buggies, etc. All very cheap.

A very fine assortment of DOLLS at the City Drug Store. Also a complete and well selected stock of fancy articles.

A carload of Dakota Hard Wheat Flour just received at
C. G. POTTER & Co's.

This week, Leland & Morrow have received a carload of fall and winter wheat flour. They carry the best grades.

Blank books of the very best quality at this office and at most reasonable prices. Call and see our goods and get prices.

Do you know it? Why Mrs. S. A. Prescott is actually selling nicely trimmed hats for $1.00. They are worth $2.00.

Dolls! Dolls! Dolls! All kinds. All sizes. All prices. At
McMILLAN'S DRUG STORE.

We pay particular attention to orders for wedding outfits, or any goods of which sizes and qualities are not in stock.
THE FAMOUS.

If you want nice tender beefsteak give the B. & M. Meat Market a call. They butcher none but the choicest of beefs.

Leland & Morrow carry a complete stock of corn, oats, chop feed, and in fact of everything belonging to a first class flour and feed store.

Of fine residences M. A. Libbee makes a specialty. Don't fail to see him if you intend to build. Good workmanship guaranteed. Prices the lowest.

Election is over. But this has nothing to do with the astonishingly low prices at which Mrs. S. A. Prescott is closing out her entire stock of millinery.

If you want something handsome in the way of a hanging lamp, call on C. M. Noble. He is just in receipt of the largest and finest stock of hanging lamps ever brought to southwestern Nebraska.

Mrs. M. E. Barger is selling her complete line of millinery at figures that will surprise you. It will pay you to call and make an examination of her stock and get prices before going elsewhere.

At McCracken you will find a fresh lot of strings for the following instruments:

VIOLIN.
BANJO.
GUITAR.
CELLO.
DOUBLE BASS.

PAY YOUR ELECTION BETS!

SOFT AND STIFF HATS.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

Lowest Prices! Latest Styles!

L. LOWMAN & SON.

$5,000.00!

We have $5,000.00 to place on good farms during the next 20 days.

No delay if security is approved.

BABCOCK & KELLEY.

Hocknell Brick—Upstairs.

$100,000.00.

To loan on dead lands. Money advanced to make final proofs. Office opposite Arlington Hotel.

C. J. RYAN.

WAGONS! WAGONS! WAGONS!!!

Hall, Cochran & Co have just received a large shipment of the celebrated M. BURN TUBER AXE WAGONS, which they are ready to sell at fair prices.

Fresh candies at the City Bakery.

Go to Noble for your family groceries.

Dr. Hall's office, over First National bank.

Fresh oysters at the City Bakery. Just received.

Fine overcoats, suits and pants our specialty
THE FAMOUS.

Remember that Leland & Morrow sell the reliable Olds wagon.

Nothing but freshest and purest drugs at the City Drug Store.

Fresh and smoked meats of all kinds at the B. & M. Meat Market.

Go to Leland & Morrow for everything in the flour and feed line.

CITY HOTEL & STAR RESTAURANT! The place for a good meal and clean bed.

Farmers, the place for you to stop at is the City Hotel & Star Restaurant.

George M. Cheney at the City Drug Store makes a specialty of prescriptions.

Railroad men will find the City Hotel & Star Restaurant the place for them.

No house can show you one half as many styles in underwear or other goods as
THE FAMOUS.

Noble, the leading grocer, carries the most complete line of queensware in the city. Inspect it.

If you want a real nice HANGING or VASE LAMP call and see McMillen's fine selection.

Why you can buy hats, neckties too, for a mere song at Mrs. S. A. Prescott's bazaar. Good felt hats, untrimmed, at from 50 cents upward.

McMillen's drug store is the place to find the largest assortment of DOLLS ever brought to McCook.

In the line of plain and fancy groceries, C. M. Noble will fill your every want satisfactorily.

JUST RECEIVED! Two barrels of extra sweet cider at the City Bakery, which will be sold at 50 cents a gallon.

Prepare to pay your election bets. We have just received another latest styles in stiff, soft and silk hats.
THE FAMOUS.

Strasser has two of the finest offices in the city for rent. Front rooms, with bay windows. Call at once if you want to secure elegant office quarters.

If you contemplate building be sure to consult M. A. Libbee. He guarantees his work to be the best and his prices the lowest.

Chairs! CHAIRS! CHAIRS!!! We have now on exhibition in our furniture emporium the handsomest and most elegant line of rocking chairs ever brought to Western Nebraska. Call in and examine them.

LUDWICK & TROWBRIDGE.

PRECINCT OFFICERS.

WILLOW GROVE—Justice of the Peace (To fill vacancy), S. H. Colvin; Constables, W. F. Coleman and C. B. Gray; Assessor, C. J. Ryan; Overseer, J. W. D. Paine; District 8, J. H. Williamson.

INDIANOLA—Assessor, Will McCook; Overseer, A. Bennett; 2d. Chas. Collins; 3d. H. A. Babcock; 4th. E. Dutcher; 5th. Thomas White; 6th. M. Ossen; 7th. Red Willow.

RED WILLOW—Assessor, W. M. Rollings; Overseer, District 10, T. J. Ruggles; District 11, Perry; Assessor, B. F. Olcott; Overseer, District 12, John Beal.

COLEMAN—Assessor, W. M. Rozelle; Overseer, District 13, Robert Moore; District 14, N. A. Kikendall; Overseer, District 15, J. V. Carnahan.

EAST VALLEY—Assessor, S. B. Rowe; Overseer, District 16, Wm. Foust; District 17, Wm. Brinkman.

DRIFFWOLD—Assessor, B. A. Lincoln; Overseer, District 18, C. H. Pate; District 19, J. W. McCaslin.

MISSOURI RIDGE—Assessor, J. Jones; Overseer, John Givens; District 20, T. C. Blair and Geo. Kempton; District 21, R. F. Gordon.

LEBANON—Assessor, Isaiah Bennett; Overseer, District 22, W. H. Naden; Overseer, District 23, W. H. Siler; District 24, J. C. Lafferty.

GRANVILLE—Assessor, A. Waggy; Overseer, District 25, S. M. Scranston; District 26, T. W. A. Chase and C. F. Elliott.

VALLEY GRASS—Assessor, W. G. Gillespie; Overseer, District 27, R. Johnston; District 28, W. H. Denny.

BEAVER—Assessor, Wm. T. Henton; Overseer, District 29, Wm. Hierskorn.

BOX ELDER—Assessor, I. W. Spaulding; Overseer, District 30, T. P. Pinkerton; District 31, Wm. Taylor; District 32, R. F. Loomis.

BOXVILLE—Assessor, John Hall; Overseer, District 33, Henry Collins; District 34, Nelson Downs.

Probably the most enthusiastic republican jubilation that has taken place in Western Nebraska occurred at Danbury on Monday night. A huge bonfire attracted a large crowd who went wild over the good news of a change in administrative affairs. Faces were blackened and hats were captured and thrown in the fire, while wild yells, dancing and jokes of all kinds added zest to the occasion. Happily no serious injury was done, and beyond getting a few more tired every body was happy.

THE BARBECUE AND BALL.

An Immense, Enthusiastic Crowd Participate in the Affair.

Although but short and indifferent notification had been given of the affair, the attendance at the barbecue and ball held in the city, Tuesday, was something great, while enthusiasm ran high. The feast was spread about noon, on the vacant lots in the rear of the new bricks, two large beavers, loaves of bread without number, baked beans without measure, and cups of coffee without limit, being served to assuage the hungry and thirsty multitude. After the banquet followed the "dude parade," speech-making, etc., the affair concluding in the evening with a free ball in the opera house, which was largely participated in, the commodious hall being taxed to its utmost capacity. At a late hour the people dispersed to their homes having, we feel safe in stating, had a fairly enjoyable time, which might, however, have been considerably more so, had arrangements been more elaborate, and had more time been taken in preparation.

In the language of the classic Greek, "the dude parade was a dandy."

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

One of the events of the afternoon which caused great amusement was the shooting of Moody Starbuck up Main Avenue, by Frank Vore, in payment of an election wager. A free excursion of the same kind was also enjoyed by Joe Wilcox.

Thomas Maloney, second cook at the McEntee, the intemperate youngster who persistently refused to give up his "dude" and disturbed the peace, and who was finally run in by "ad" Paine, after quite a chase in which the chief used his "persuader" to bring the fellow to time, was afterwards released on recognizance of Mayor McElroy. He appeared before Judge J. C. Bennett, the following morning, and was discharged, the judge noting that there was no cause for his detention. But a small fine and trainings would not have been amiss.

The Indiana friends, fifty strong, who arrived too late for the barbecue, were given a "dude parade" of their own, which was entirely pacified and soothed their keen disappointment.

PERSONALS.

D. L. Griggs is here from Chicago on a business visit of a few days.

Rev. I. W. Drewe was in Culbertson, Wednesday, on some church business.

Sam Ashmore of Yuma, Colo., hobnobbed with the boys, Friday and Saturday.

F. B. Harcourt, "king of the murgumps," Trenton, celebrated with us, Tuesday.

Tom Barnes was in the city, the fore part of the week, on one of his weekly visits.

Joe McBrayer has been down at Wilsonville, Furnas county, this week, moving houses.

Mrs. Mont. Doyle augmented the city census returns, Sunday. "Mother and baby doing well."

Miss Grace Martin and Miss Maud Rouark were up from Hartley, spending Sunday at home.

Mrs. J. N. Smith of "Town Four," we regret to learn, is quite seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Judge Ashmore was up from the county seat, Tuesday, to "barbecue" with those who "barbecue."

Rev. Geo. B. Smyth left, this morning, for Denver. His wife and child will join him on Monday.

Charlie Watkins was up from Indianola, Monday, arranging with Friend Tom for the U. L. P. obsequies.

Mrs. El. Highland, of Red Cloud, was the guest of Mrs. W. S. Perry a number of days, the first of the week.

Mrs. V. T. Thomas departed, yesterday, for Springfield, Illinois, where she will spend the winter with her mother.

The Burlington switchman at Denver are out on a strike. About 15 men are elected. They were given their time.

Rev. D. S. Morris of Wilsonville, formerly of Bonville, was a business pilgrim to the commercial center, Wednesday.

Will Fisher came down from the Falls, Sunday, remaining here until after the barbecue, returning home on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Dr. Eskey and Mrs. Judge Keyes of Indianola, Illinois, were in the city, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Special Agent Crump of the Interior Department was in the city, the first of the week, on business connected with the duties of his office.

S. P. Kirkbride, E. J. Hardin, W. C. Ashwell, J. S. Hardin, J. W. Burney and other Strattonites were Commercial registers, Tuesday evening.

W. S. Hainline, of McCook was in town Tuesday and Friday. He is one of the old students and will return next term.—Hartley Inter-Ocean.

H. L. Merriman, Esq., one of Frontier's ablest attorneys, and a very clever gentleman withal, had business before the local and officials, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. E. Stockton and W. Thompson, constituted a part of the Trenton delegation in the city, Tuesday evening.

Cashier Brown of the First National has been absent from the city, three or four days, visiting Denver, Cheyenne, and other western points, on business.

L. Morse, one of Benkenheim's prominent citizens, came in to ratify with us, Tuesday. He invaded these headquarters in a pleasant, social way during his short visit.

John C. Harlan, master of that trim little craft, the Cambridge Kitescope, spent a few minutes in this sanctum, Tuesday, while here to witness the barbecue eat.

Barney Hofer of the Hayes Centimes and John H. Christner, clerk county of Hayes, were in the principal city, Saturday, in the transaction of some little business matters.

H. A. Brown, late manager for the Howard Lumber Co., left on Wednesday evening for Medicine Lodge, Kansas. Harry made many friends while here who will regret his leaving.

E. V. Forbes, who presides over the Hyde Topics with dignity and ability, had a few hours in the city, Monday, on land business. We have to acknowledge a short fraternal call.

County Clerk Koper and wife participated in the barbecue, Tuesday, driving down to the county seat on the following morning. George Charles F. Jennings, of the "Whiteline" class.

Secretary Laws came up from Lincoln, this morning, on a brief visit. Of course the secretary fees somewhat varied over the fact that in his old county, Red Willow, he ran about 200 votes ahead of the ticket.

Mrs. T. S. Bosley arrived from Fairmont, last Friday afternoon, on a ten days' visit among her numerous friends in the city. She is the guest of Mrs. and Miss Hollister, and expects to return to Fairmont, to-morrow.

Mrs. Samuel Strasser returned, the close of last week, from a visit in Hastings of a week or two. A visit made out by the death of a brother's little boy