ABOUT NEBRASKA

-The present potato crop is without doubt the largest ever grown in the United States. Nebraska's yield is eighty-four bushels per acre, or a total of five and one-half million bushels. -A Boston divine has been called to the First Congregational church at Omaha at a salary of $6,000 a year. The church he leaves has been paying him $10,000 a year.

-Rev. Savage, of Grand Island, has a lecture on "Batchelors" which he is giving here and there in some Nebrasks were made by the Hon. C. H. Van towns. Marriageble girls greet him with crowded houses.

-Patrick Hayes, who has charge of the telegraph line on the F., E. & M.V., climbed the republican flag staff, at Chadron, and brought down the end & a rope that some malicious person had and not very large, which made it quite man of Wood River. an interesting undertaking, but Pat made the trip and remarked on coming down: "Now don't overlook the fact that if it was a democrat who cut this rope that it was also a democrat who went up and brought it down.' -Last Sunday evening, says the Chadron Democrat, Ike Gottstein's pea- 27, nut roaster became disgusted with the cares of this life and "shuffled off the mortal coil" (as it were) by the gasoline circulation in that locality. route Considerable excitement prevailed for some time in the vicinity of Ike's confectionery establishment, but notwithstanding the frantic labors of a few the gasoline got in its work, and the peanut roaster is no longer a thing of beauty and a joy forever. -The Sidney Herald says that on Hallowe'n three-fourths of the girls in town were paring apples in long un broken curls, and throwing the curls over their shoulders with one rapid swing. It made no difference what shape they assumed when they struck the floor-whether like a snake, a wheel, fan, or what not-the girls always four them taking the shape of the initial let ter of their best young men.

-Joseph Hay, an insane prisoner at himself. He was at liberty in one of the large rooms and picked up a strip of | ing for his father. cloth that evidently had been torn from suicide was nothing worse than a fall to | rendered himself to the authorities. the hard floor. Hay raves over a woman he calls his wife, but it has been ascertained that she is a widow.

-Hon. James Ewing, of Wood River, who died last week, was a republican nominee for the legislature. The county central committee selected in his stead Edward Hoover, of Grand Island. Twenty-five thousand people tried the new bridge between Omaha and Council Bluffs on Sunday last. -The city dads of Stockham are talk ing of building a calaboose for the confinement of the wicked and unrulv. -The local paper of Kenesaw reluctantly admits that sneak thieves and midnight marauders abound in their very midst.

-Henry Calhoun, of Omaha, was deeply smitten with the charms of Lena Rivers, a woman of questionable repute. Lens, however, seemed to tire of him, and cast her affections upon another. This was more than Calhoun could stand and he sought relief from his troubles in a fatal dose of chloro-

-From our Weston correspondent, says the Wahoo Wasp, we learn that Gustave Safstrom met with a terrible misfortune Monday night while at work with his thrashing machine just north of town. His hand was caught in the side gear and was torn off.

-Lincoln saloons were closed on election day, but the thirsty nevertheless managed to find a supply of that which both cheers and inebriates.

-The ladies of Wayne are talking of a "Tub Parade," if anybody knows what that is, just after the first fall of The Wayne Gazette says that something like a hundred thousand bushels of corn a day is going into the cribs of Wayne county.

-Ladies of the M. E. church at Da vid City gave a dinner and supper, cleaning up over $100 by the same. -Burglars broke into Martin Nowot-ny's saloon at David City, but were relooked.

-The funeral of Hon. James Ewing, late editor of the Wood River Gazette, was very largely attended by citizens from all parts of Hall county.

-The business man, says the North Platte Democrat, who does not advertise simply because "everybody knows where I keep," and "the people all know me, I have been here so long," is only showing one thing, viz: that he is the most egotistic man in town.

-The young ladies of North Platte recently gave a leap year party, and none of the nice young men of the town were overlooked in the matter of an invitation. The ladies, it is said, were elegantly attired and presented a handsome arrived in time and the arrest of the grand march.

-Oxford's new mill is about ready for position is now the only work to be done before grinding operations commence. the arst auniversary of the hanging of the condemned anarchists in Chicago s November 11. The socialists of Omalia will hold a memorial meeting on the night of that day at Metz' hall with recitations, speeches and other fea-

-Asa Berry, of Seward, was given verdict of $1,200 against the Burlington road for injuries received by him last eral new series, or magazine "features."

winter by being struck by an engine. -The Missouri Pacific surveyors who completed the survey of a proposed road from Cook to Tecumseh disbanded at Talmage. They report that the grade between those points was light, and the road can be built very cheaply.

the board of education has lent itself to what is likely to prove an injustice to the patrons of the public schools of the city. The board adopted the New Frank-lin series of text books. These goods are placed for sale exclusively with one disposition among the people to complain of this action.

-The cane to be voted to the most popular base ball player at the fair in Grand Island brought $130, and the "home run" was made by Ed Geary.

-The Modern Woodmen have organized a lodge at Oxford with twelve charter members.

-The York county court house is to be lighted throughout by electricity. -Crete has put up $15,000 to endow a professorship in Doane college.

-The Knights of Pythias lodge at Sidney is growing strong, new members constantly being added.

-Johnny Connors, an orphan boy employed in the Great Western type foundry at Omaha, was caught in the elevator in that establishment and so badly crushed that he will die.

-A large crowd assembled at Tobias the other day to take part in the dedication of the new elevator recently erected by the Farmers' Protective alliance. The exercises consisted of a monster farmers' industrial parade headed by the Wilber band. Speeches Wyck and F. K. Dingsmuth, of Schuyler, Neb. The latter gentleman spoke in the Bohemian language to a large number of his countrymen, prosperous farmers of that locality. Two grand balls were held in the evening and continued until a late hour.

-Death is announced of Mrs. Houcut. The pole is about eighty feet high nold, the wife of a prominent business

-The champion corn-husker lives in Lancaster county. He husked and cribbed over one hundred bushels in less than ten hours. -Charles E. Root, a member of the editorial staff of the Lincoln Journal, died last week of typhoid fever, aged

-The Kenesaw Times says counterfeit dollars that are hard to detect are in -The American Building and Loan association has established an office at -The Omaha horse railway company will convert its lines into the cable sys-

-James Graham, of Holt county, died last week at the ripe age of 91 years. He was a native of Ireland. -An occasional prairie fire is noted here and there. Look out for unprotected property.

BY THE TELEGRAPH AND MAIL.

County Treasurer Wolf, who disap- probable, but a distinct possibility. peared in September last from Gellville. Ark., shows a shortage of 1,000 and will the Douglas county jail, tried to hang probably be greater. Robert Wolf, his the garment of some other prisoner. George Coleman killed Ed Murray by about the same majority. Hay tied the cloth to a grating in such a manner as to make a loop, and put his The two men had been quarreling, Murgive Harrison a net gain of 10,583, or a head into it. His weight broke the ray having knocked Coleman down, the plurality so far of 26,000. The remaincloth, and the result of his attempted latter secured the ax. Coleman sur- ing thirty-eight counties will probably

At College Point, New York, a respectable market gardner named Jos. Kroger was run down in the street, trampled and killed by half a dozen drunken fellows mounted on mustangs, the state by 500. who were riding through the town. These men have been traced to a riding school in Brooklyn.

Both stages between Santa Barbara and Los Olives, California, were robbed. Several mail packages and Wells Fargo's the republicans by Blaine's plurality in express boxes were broken open, but 1884, which was 14,500. nothing was obtained from the boxes, i Santa Barbara, were robbed of about of the 114 counties in the state, and fifty dollars.

Hon. Mahlon D. Spalding, of Boston, one of the California pioneers of 1849, later a member of the Old West India firm of Nash, Spalding & Co., member mittee now concede the election of a second, the plate which he used for of the legislature in 1881, a prominent Francis, but by a very small plurality. club man, director of the Union Pacific and Boston & Albany railroads, and the Atlas bank, and widely known for his unostentatious charities, died on the 4th, aged 61 years.

The Sioux City corn palace exposition company has issued an itemized statement of the receipts and expenditures of the great festival. The total expense was $5,443.04, and the total receipts $5,-290.81, leaving a deficit of $143.22. To offset this the company has the building on hand, for which $1,500 has been bid.

and $550 in unpaid subscriptions. The brig, Richard T. Green, arrived at Boston on the 5th, from St. Marc, Hayti. The captain reports that on October 18, went off St. Marc, he was ordered to "heave to" by a Haytien man of war, the armed officers and men of which came on board three different times, taking away the ship's register and all her papers, and threatening to take her to Port Au Prince as a prize. After detaining them, some papers were returned and the vessel was allowed to proceed.

At Pittsburg, Pa., Thomas Kane, an Irishman, stabbed his wife in the abdowarded with only $2. There was $25 on men with a pen-knife inflicting a wound a shelf near by, but this the burgs over- that will probably prove fatal. The woman was sitting up with her dead child when Kane, who had been drinking, came into the room and accused her of laughing. She denied the ac- 2. House, democrats 7, republicans 14, he drew the knife and thrust it into her on joint ballot. abdomen. He tried to stab her a second time, when her brother interfered and disarmed him. Mrs. Kane's condition

At Kirkwood, Mo., a . small suburban town of St. Louis, an attempt was made | the returns as far as counted give Harby three negroes named Grant Boyd, | tine (rep.) 4,105, Cassidy 3,143. Al. Stringer and "Coon" Rhodes to criminally assault Alice and Emma Baker. The girls were on their way home from a visit to friends. Assistance appearance when they formed for the three friends was consummated. At a preliminary hearing before Justice Greenville, Baker, the father of the business. Placing the machinery in girls, drew a revolver and fired point blank at Rhodes, the bullet grazing his head. Baker was disarmed, before which time the prisoners had fallen on their knees and begged for mercy. They were then bound over. Emma Baker is in a dangerous condition.

The November Century begins the thirty-seventh volume and nineteenth year of the magazine; and the number is made notable by the beginning of sev-The most important of these is the first installment of The Century Gallery of Old Masters; engraved by T. Cole, and described by W. J. Stillman and by Mr. Cole himself. The engravings in this series were made in the presence of the original pictures themselves; they are actual copies, and unique in the history -The York Democrat complains that of art; for such careful copies have never the returns from all the counties in Illibefore been made on wood. Another nois on the for vote president and goverseries begun in November is Mr. Cable's nor show that Gen. Harrison has carried "Strange True Stories of Louisiana;"— the state by over 21,000 plurality, while after a preface by Mr. Cable himself Fifer has run ahead of Palmer over 13,comes the extraordinary story of "The Young Aunt with White Hair," from an claimed to be absolutely correct, as estiare placed for sale exclusively with one dealer and the prices advanced 25 per cent. There appears to be considerable cent. There appears to be considerable trated by Mr. Sandham, has two prefaces, result. General Palmer, at Springfield work to rescue their comrades, but when

THE NATIONAL CONTEST NOW SETTLED.

The Republicans Will Take Charge of Government Affairs After the 4th of March. Indiana.—The republican headquarters closed to-day. Chairman Huston and Secretary Dill were each presented with gold-headed canes by the clerical corps of the committee. The democrats now concede Indiana to Harrison by 2,-500. Reports to the Associated press the affair was even mentioned. confirm this, though the vote may be a few hundred more. The entire republi-can state ticket is elected, there being scarcely 300 votes difference thus far between General Harrison and Governorelect Hovey. In the Eighth district Brookshire (dem.) defeats Johnson (rep.) for congress by 65 majority. This is a democratic gain. WEST VIRGINIA. - Forty counties, polling 115,468 votes for president in 1884, show a net republican gain of 4,056. The remaining thirteen counties, polling 16,689 votes, will at the same ratio of gains, give the republicans a gain of 794, making a total net gain in the state of 4,845, which would give the state to the republicans by 624 majority. The indications are that Atkinson, Flick and Smith (reps.) are elected, respectively in the First, Second and Fourth congressional districts. WYOMING.-Joseph M. Carey (rep.) is re-elected delegate to congress by about 2,700 majority over Caleb P. Organ dem). This is nearly double any prevous majority.

Montana.-Corrected returns give Carter, (rep.) delegate, 4,500 majority in the territory.

California. - The count of 116 precincts in the city out of 176 give Harrison 24,980, Cleveland 27,693. The republican state committee claims the state by from ten to twelve thousand. The democratic state committee concedes the state to the republicans, but by a small majority. The latest figures ndicate the election of four republican congressmen. Three of the congressional districts are very close.

New York.—An extra World says that Chairman Brice, of the democratic national committee, concedes the election of General Harrison. The World puts California and Indiana in the republican column, and gives Harrison 233 votes in the electoral college. The World says: "As the belated returns from the congressional districts come in the complexion of the next house grows more and more doubtful. The republicans are claiming that the full returns An investigation of the books of ex- will give them the house. This is im-

Indiana. - From nearly complete returns from all congressional districts, it is claimed that the Indiana delegation son, was taken ill and died while search- in congress will stand, democratic 8, republican 5. Harrison's majority will not be less than 3,000, and probably At the Locust Land plantation, La., 5,000. The state ticket is elected by raise his plurality to 34,000. California.—Late this afternoon the count had been counted in 140 precincts in this city out of a total of 176, and the result is as follows: Cleveland, 26,986; Harrison, 26,116. Republicans claim

Wisconsin.-Returns are coming in slowly, but enough are in to make it certain that the state has gone for Harrison by at least 18,000, and probably 21,-000. Chairman Usher, of the democratic committee, concedes the state to Missouri.-Official and semi-official The passengers on the stage, bound to returns have been received from ninety with advices from the remaining twentyfour show that Cleveland's plurality will exceed 25,000. Francis, for governor, will have a plurality over Kimball of about 12,000. The republican state com-

Colorado. - Returns are slow. The | 0.000076 of a second. republicans claim 13,875 majority in the state, a gain of 5,000, and also claim every member of the lower house and 20 out of 26 senators. Returns show the entire republican state ticket, except three members of the legislature, is elected. WEST VIRGINIA. - Dispatches just received from the capital of the state aunounce that the democratic state treasurer, Thompson, concedes the state to the republicans by from 400 to 700 majority. This is simply a confirmation of the heavy republican gains that have been coming in to-day. The republican least three and probably a solid delegation of four congressmen. Michigan.—Harrison's plurality in Michigan will reach 22,000 against 3,300 for Blaine in 1884. This surprisingly large gain is undoubtedly due to the return of the greenbackers to the old party lines. The combined greenbackers and union labor vote of last Tuesday will not exceed 6,000. Comparatively few counties have made returns of the prohibition vote, but St. John's vote of 18,-403 has been reduced nearly one-half Luce, republican, for governor, will have a plurality of about 13,500. DELAWARE.—Cleveland's plurality in the state is 3,444. Congressman Pennington (dem.) is re-elected by over 3,400 plurality. The next legislature will stand: Senate, democrats 7, republicans cusation, but without further warning giving the republicans a majority of two > Nebraska.-Returns thus far received indicate a majority of 25,000 for Thayer. NEVADA.-Returns from the state of Nevada, as far as counted, give Harrison 4,443, Cleveland 3,132. For congress

MASSACHUSETTS.—Gen. B. F. Butler speaking at a republican meeting tonight said Mr. Cleveland would have been elected but for his tariff message, which was like a school boy's composition. The victory was a western one. New England towns gave Cleveland majorities, but they ought to have known better. The tariff would be reduced more than either the Mills bill or the senate proposed, but the duties kept on would be permanent. The general also thought the republican congress would respond to the extent to which the negroes are deprived of their votes under the fifteenth amendment. Mexico would be annexed to the United States.

OREGON.-Three-fourths of the returns of Oregon are in and show a 10 per cent larger vote than in June, and about 10 per cent increase in the repubington territory, a republican gain of over 7,000 since 1884. The territorial legislature will be republican in both its branches.

ILLINOIS.-The Chicago Tribune says one by Mr. Parkman, the historian, and last night, gave up the fight, and acone by the author. It will probably require the official can-

THE ENGLISH CABINET DELIBERATING, SCENES AT THE HOME OF HARRISON.

Looking Up Precedents for the Case of Lord Sackville. London dispatch: It is undeniably a and experts in various departments with ceived dispatches by special messenger from the minister in attendance upon the queen at Balmoral with reference to there were persistent rumors in the neighborhood of the foreign office that the cabinet had decided to leave the Washington legation in the hands of a charge de foreign affairs for at least a year, but none of the reports could be traced to any reliable authority. It is more than likely, however, that a new minister will be appointed shortly after the reassembling of parliament.

Mr. Gladstone's references to the Sackville affair in his speech at Birmingham to-day were wholly unexpected, and although they were noticeably colorless, his friends would have preferred that he should not have made them. His remarks will possibly be misrepresented or misinterpreted in America and will certainly enable the tories to complain that the ex-prime minister endeavored to embarrass the government in foreign negotions of the most delicate nature.

Mr. Buckle, the editor of the Times, had a protracted interview with Lord Salisbury to-day, presumably with reference to the proceedings before the Parnell commission, and it is whispered that the premier expressed his disgust at the weakness of the Times' case as presented by the attorney general and as revealed by the subsequent testimony.

PROMINENT MEN AND WOMEN.

Blowitz, the famous Paris correspondent of the London Times, is said to receive $25,000 a year for his services. Mr. Stanhope, the English Minister

War, is said to be a kind-hearted man but very narrow and precise and rigid in his manners—a regular prig. Hadji Hessein Khouli Khan, Persian as Washington street, the howling, ambassador to this county, has occupied screeching crowd had full possession, Hadji Hessein Khouli Khan, Persian

Thomas circle, Washington. He is a great theatre-goer. Elliott F. Shepard of the New York Mail and Express has been blackballed for membership of the Down-Town club. Candidate Harrison's daughter, Mrs. McKee, is a handsome and clever woman, with literary tastes. She confesses inherits from her father.

fective visit to Washington have only were the figures 544, the number of votes one man among them who wears a beard. He bears the expressive name of Hairy Others had "New York 11,000" chalked The Empress Augusta intends to pub-

liam and Frederick, with both of whom | man would submit to have their garshe always kept up a regular correspond- | ments artistically marked with all sorts Capt. A. C. P. Haggard, a brother of the author of "She," is about to appear feet long, carried through the streets by to be a novelist also. He is a British officer, stationed at Meerut, and has already published divers diaries of mili- blance to the late candidate, holding the tary expeditions. Prof. Anschutz, of Berlin, has succeeded in getting a photograph of a rifle bullet traveling at the rate of 1,300 feet the purpose being exposed for only Miss Henna L. Heiffner, of New York, has sued her uncle Job for breach of promise. She says he had been promising for two years to marry her. Miss Henna wants $5,000, and her uncle Job wants to get out of jail. Baron de Selliere, the French nobleman whose adventures in a madhouse the State Homeopathic asylum for the insane at Middletown, N. Y.

J. H. Craig, of Iowa City, is believed state committee here claim to have at | to be the largest man in the world. He is 32 years old, 6 feet 41 inches in height, and weighs now 792 pounds. He has weighed 833 pounds, but uses tobacco to keep his weight below 800.

Governor Blake, of Newfoundland, has been appointed governor of Queensland, Australia, and has accepted. It is the Salisbury government. The salary is $25,000 a year, and the emoluments something enormous. An Officar's Good Shot.

Glenn's Falls, (N. Y.) dispatch: About 2:30 yesterday afternoon two little girls, daughters of Robert Sherrill and Daniel they stepped through the door they were met by John Glenn, the base ball player, formerly of Rochester, N. Y., who approached them with candy in his hand. The girls took fright and started to run. Little Nell Lloyd succeeded in making her escape, but Glenn caught the other child and brutally assaulted her. Fearing that the child's screams might summon help, he attempted to throw her into the vault, but she escaped from him and ran screaming across the yard. Glenn scaled the fence and a crowd started in pursuit of him and he was finally overtaken by an officer. Glenn made a hard struggle to free himself, but was overpowered. Near the corner of Oak and Pearl streets, however, he broke away from the officer and ran into the house of M. G. Paris.

Officer Morrison got through the throng with his prisoner as far as the one turned his arm jaw and taking an upward course. The man dropped to the ground and was removed to his brother's house. He will probably die. Glenn formerly lived in Rochester and was at one time well lican majority, which will be about known in the state as a baseball player. 10,000. Allen, rep., is elected to con-gress by about 5,000 majority in Wash-named Andrew Blake, but the bullet

Killed in a Gold Mine.

Birmingham (Ala.) dispatch: News as reached this city of a terrible accident to a party of gold miners near Ashland City, Clay county, Saturday, while four miners were down in a pit dead. James Jones and Frank Smith were in a dying condition and William Count von Moltke's favorite flower is vass to decide whether Cook county, in- Moore, the fourth man, was struck while the rose, and he has at Kreisau one of the finest rose gardens in the world.

Moore, the fourth man, was struck while the said to be a veritable demon when for Slocum.

Incre is a strong feeling against him, as the fourth man, was struck while the is said to be a veritable demon when for Slocum.

Incre is a strong feeling against him, as the fourth man, was struck while the is said to be a veritable demon when for Slocum.

Full Sway at Indianapolis. Indianapolis dispatch: On Washingfact that the cabinet to-day devoted the ton and Illinois streets were gathered electors by popular vote on the 6th. most of its time to the Sackville inci- large crowds shouting and cheering for The electors then chosen will meet at issued from the foreign office. They dent, despite the persistent denials of General Harrison. The crowds were their respective state capitals on Monthe attaches of the foreign office that naturally of a hilarious and humorous day, January 14, 1889, and cast their Lord Salisbury and Lord Sackville condisposition. It is therefore not to be votes for president and vice president of cerning letters of dismissal from Wash-Previous to the meeting, it is learned, presumed that any disrespect of the the United States. The whole number ington. Lord Salisbury conferred with officials president was intended by the roars of of electors is 401; necessary for a choice, laughter and cheers that greeted a wagon | 201. The several states are entitled to a view of obtaining data of the most im- which passed through the streets drawn representation in the electoral college "Mr. Phelps, who is staying at my portant precedents touching the case of by a mule. Within was a big coffin. On and in congress as given below. The the dismissed minister, and he also re- the top of the coffin sat a half a dozen names of the states which in 1884 cast quest to recall you is not based upon the mourners carrying huge boquets in their | their votes for Cleveland are given with | Murchison letter, but upon the interview hands, and, as mourners, acting with a an asterisk, thus *. Cleveland received which you granted a newspaper correthe matter. Later in the afternoon great lack of decorum, for every few 219 electoral votes and Blaine 182. minutes their feelings overcame them to such an extent that they stood up and waved their boquets and then sat down and wiped mock tears away with brilliant bandanas. From the head of the coffin hung a picture of President Cleveland. The eyes of the picture were black, while below was inscribed: "They done me up bad." As the funeral wagon passed along Pennsylvania avenue it was greeted with storms of applause and the blowing of a thousand horns. Probably no city in the union ever witnessed such extraordinary and outlandish scenes of enthusiasm, and chaotic but good-natured disorder, as prevailed here this afternoon and tonight. Certainly the citizens of Indianapolis never before saw such sights. The demonstrations that occurred immediately following the news of General Harrison's nomination sink into insignifinance as compared with the scenes today and to-night. Thoughout the day. whever the rain ceased falling, the distant boom of cannon re-echoed the enthusiasm of ten thousand celebrating republicans. About 4 o'clock the rain which had been pouring steadily for five hours, ceased, and in an incredibly short time the streets were again swarming with yelling, hooting, horn blowing thousands, marching back and forth, regardless of the mud and water. Pennsylvania avenue, in front of the postoffice and around the New Denison, in one of the big storerooms of which building is located the republican county headquarters, was so crowded that the muddy street was the pedestrians' only pathway. On both sides of the avenue, as far down handsome house on M street, at while the same condition of affairs prevailed on Washington street for four squares, and also along Illinois street for

All trains arriving in the city since early morning brought hundreds of country people, who were swallowed up by the crowd and soon became imbued with the same wild spirit of enthusiasm, which seemed to attack and possess at she is a great talker, a trait that she everybody, even many democrats. It was a regular carnival day. Probably the most unique feature was the way in The Sioux Indians who are now on which hats were marked with red and their way west after making an inef- white chalk. On the back of hundreds General Harrison received at Chicago. on their backs, while every hat bore some letters or figures. In the New Denison and on the street corners were lish a number of the letters which were half a dozen professional chalkers doing written to her by the late Emperors Wil- a land office business. Dudish young of humorous characters. This device that afforded the throngs the most amusement was a miniature canoe, four four men. Within the canoe sat a small clubby figure bearing a striking resemoars extended. The cards attached suggested a trip up the mythical Salt river, while a hundred men and boys followed, singing, "Good-bye, oh Grover, good-The celebration was of the most humorous and impromptu character, and certainly was not designed as a mark of disrespect to President Cleveland, as many southern readers of this account might otherwise suppose. The Associated press correspondent spent several hours on the streets witnessing the demonstration, but did not hear a single expression of personal disrespect toward President Cleveland, and while the devices described were suggestive of a certain near Paris, attracted great attention breach of propriety toward the chief some months ago, is now an inmate of magistrate of our nation, this feeling will be more pronounced with the reader than with the spectator, for the good humor of the crowds and the enthusiasm permeating the very atmosphere offer an explanation that the distant reader can not fully appreciate. As evening came on the factories and stores added their hundreds to the howling, screaming rabble. Between 7 and 8 o'clock the excitement nearly reached the frenzy point. A few buildings were illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and the noise of cannon, the anvils, fireone of the richest plums in the gift of | crackers and tin horns, which continued until after 9 o'clock, could be plainly heard as far out as General Harrison's residence. The general and his family, except for these distant echoes, were unconscious of the stirring scenes in the Except for a short walk vesterday and this morning. General Harrison has not left his residence since election day. Lloyd, went to one of the outbuildings Just before dark a train load of enthuof the school-house at Sand Hill. As siasts came in from Danville. They were mostly members of the first Lincoln league organized in the state. With flags flying, men pushing, singing and shouting, drums, tin horns, brass bands and cannon, all uniting to make an indescribable medley, the Harrison residence was reached. As the crowd surged into the yard General Harrison ventured to look out of the south bay window. He was seen immediately and the crowd broke for the window. By this time the spokesman of the delegation, Hon. J. Hull, had been ushered into the library. He said that all they wanted was to tender their congratulations, and that no speech would be asked, and the general accompanied him to the front steps. For a time each member of the club made supreme endeavors to convey his individual congratulation, but finally quiet was restored and Mr. Hull delivered a congratulatory address, saying that "the people after four years of search had found the keystone whose stairway. Here he drew his revolver to loss has threatened the destruction of curtail Southern representation to cor- keep the crowd at bay, and in the melee the whole fabric of the government, and and the weapon accidentally exploded, are saved." General Harrison shook the bullet striking Glenn under the right hands with a few and then bade them a pleasant "good night" and retired.

> Hemp Would be Good in His Case. Elk Point (Dak.) special: A most out-

missed its mark. It is said that he has served a sentence for a similar offense in the west. About two years ago he was the was ship, came home from Ponca in an inship, came home from Ponca in an inship came home from Ponca in an inshi complished his purpose in the presence of his wife, and despite the struggles of his victim and the piteous appeals of his wife. He told the women if they made in. A force of men immediately set to any outcry he would kill them both. Mrs. Young went to Elk Point at once reached John Wheeler was taken out and swore out a warrant for Deruche's mitted to jail in default of $1,000 bail.

There is a strong feeling against him, as he is said to be a veritable demon when player is said to be a veritable demon when the veritable demon when the veritable demon when the veritable demon whe

THE CANDIDATES IN THE FIELD.

And Other Matters Connected with the National Political Contest.

All the states elected presidential

STATES.	ectors	ongress
*Alabama	10	8
*Arkansas	7	5
Catifornia	8	6
Colorado		1
*Connecticut	6	- 4
*i elnware	3	1
*Florida	4	2
*Georgia	12	10
lilinois	99	20
*Indiana	15	13
Iowa	13	11
Kansas	9	7
*Kentucky	13	11
*Louisiana	8	6
Maine	- 6	4
*Maryland	8	6
Massachusetts	14	12
Michigan	13	11
Minnesota	7	5
*Mississippi	9	7
*Missouri	16	14
Nebraska.	- 5	3
Nevada	3	1
New Hampshire	4	2
*New Jersey	9	7
*New York	36	31
*North Carolina	11	9
Ohio	23	21
Oregon	3	1
Pennsylvania.	30	28
Rhode Island	4	2
	9	7
*South Carolina	12	10
*Tennessee	13	11
*Texas	1000
Vermont	12	10
*Virginia		19
*West Virginia	11	2.5
Wiscon-in	11	9

Dakota, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Washington and Wyoming-are each entitled to elect one delegate to not to vote. These delegates were chosen on the 6th. The several regularly nominated candidates for president and vice president at that election were: DEMOCRATIC.

.....Grover Cleveland Vice president...... Allen G. Thurman REPUBLICAN.Benjamin Harrison Vice president......Levi P. Morton | said that he regretted the incident very PROHIBITION. Vice president......John A. Brooks to interfere in the domestic policy of UNITED LABOR.

Vice president.......W. H. T. Wakefield UNION LABOR. .. Alson J. Streeter President. lice president.. Charles E. Cunningham that he bore me no ill will.

President..

President. in 1884, as compiled by the American tack upon my integrity." prohibition, 151,809. Cleveland's plural- of the legation.

The Coming Mistress of the White House. Washington dispatch: Mrs. Harrison has many friends in Washington of the white house. One of her enthusiastic admirers said yesterday: "You may be sure that she will have a reign of straightforwardness in all matters, or the forwarding of passports to him. social and domestic, at the white house. The immediate family of the presidentwomen. Mrs. Harrison herself has held the esteem of her Washington friends after an absence from them of years; Mrs. McKee, who was pretty Mamie Harrison, a universal favorite; Mrs. Scott Lord, who lives here, is an older sister of Mrs. Harrison and is an affable and attractive woman and her two daughters are charming, beautiful voung women. Mrs. Parker, the wife of Lieutenant John F. Parker of the navy, is a blonde of good figure and fascinating manner. Mrs. Dimmock, the other daughter of Mrs. Lord, is a young widow, the opposite of her sister, being a lovely bru- on the coast of East Africa. France nette. Mrs Harrison, in describing to | would also co-operate. The combined a friend by letter the condition of her house, which has been thrown open to the army of excursionists and visitors any flag. all summer, said that if they should not be sent to the white house their only alternative would be the poor house, as their own home is not fit to live in until it is thoroughly refurnished.

A Mysterious Shooting Affair.

r'hiladelphia dispatch: A very myserious shooting affair, which will in all likelihood cause the death of Mrs. Bettie Stockes, residing at No. 311 Greenwich street, occurred to night. Early in the will speak. Foreign dignitaries and evening three shots were heard in the American notables will also take part. house, and an officer, upon investigation, found that a Cuban named Fred Raimos had shot Mrs. Stockes three times, two of the bullets taking effect in her face and a third one in one of her lungs. The officer arrested Raimos, but only succeeded in doing so after the prisoner had fired twice and been clubbed into insensibility. Both Mrs. | RYE-.... Stockes and Raimos were takan to the hospital, where the former is dying and the latter either feigning or is actually unconscious. Not the slightest clue as to the motive for the crime can be Lemons-Choice, perbox... 4 50 @ 5 50 learned, the woman being unable, by reason of the wounds in her face to talk, and the prisoner is likewise silent. Mrs. Stockes has a 7-year-old child and lived | Turnips-Per bu...... with her husband in the house where APPLES-Per bbl... she received the wounds. Her husband, who returned to the house shortly after the affair, can throw no light upon it.

Mr. Harrison's Father-in-Law.

Washington dispatch: There is a ven- Hous-Mixed packing.... erable gentleman in this city who has Beeves-Choice steers...... 3 50 @ 4 00 been congratulated over the election nearly as much as the successful candidate himself. This is Rev. D. W. Scott, WHEAT-No. 2 red...... 103 @ 1124 Mr. Harrison's father-in-law. Dr. Scott CORN-No. 2. 48% 48% is a clerk in the pension office. From OATS-Mixed western. 21 @ 31% person of Mrs. Losa Young occurred can look out over the vast court with its near here to-day. Joe Deruche, a columns and arcades that was used for Young, who is his wife's sister, at his house he at once told her his develish wonderfully well preserved. He is tall LARD-... house he at once told her his develish intentions. She screamed and started and stoops a little. His face has a good Hogs—Packing & shipping. 5 25 @ 5 50 for the door, but the drunken brute color and the lower part of it is covered CATTLE-Western Rangers 1 80 @ 3 90 caught her, threw her on a bed and ac- with a snowy beard. When asked today if he knew anything about Gen. Harrison's movements, he said: "I know nothing now. It is hardly likely that they will come here before the inauguration, though he may come, for there ration, though he may come, for there rations are rationally as a second rational ra are matters he may want to look after.", CATTLE-Feeders 2 00 @ 3 20

Somebody rises to remark that Minis-

THE LORD SACKVILLE INCIDENT.

apers in Reference to the Case Issued from the Foreign Office. London dispatch: The papers in reference to the Sackville incident have been contain the correspondence between

On the 27th of October Lord Salisbury cabled to Lord Sackville as follows: house, informs me that Mr. Bayard's respondent. I replied I was glad the report was untrue that your recall was dueto the letter which was made public only by a betrayal of confidence, and that it was hardly practicable to lay down as a principle that a diplomatic representative should be prohibited from expressing even privately any opinion regarding the events passing in the country to-which he was accredited. "The language of an interview is different, and you must be taken as intending it for publication. However, before admitting the necessity for your recall, I am bound in justice to you to know the alleged objectionable language.

"I have asked Mr. Phelps for a copy of the interview, in order to ascertain from it whether you were accurately reported. Then I will lay the matter before my colleagues.

"Mr. Phelps replied that he had not received a copy, but would take steps toprocure one. "Consequently it is understood that until the copy is received I will not answer Mr. Bayard's request for your Lord Sackville replied on the 28th of October, as follows: "The letter which I answered was a political republican plot. I have mailed a full explanation to you. If my recall is demanded it is due to elections here. I beg to expressmy deepest regret for what has occurred. On the 30th Mr. Phelps said that Mr. The organized territories-Arizona, Cleveland hoped that another minister would be accredited. On the 4th of November Lord Salisbury received a letter mailed by Lord congress, who is permitted to speak, but | Sackville on the 26th, inclosing letters

Lord Sackville said:

"I have certain information that the Murchison letter was fictitious and was oncocted by a well known firm in conunction with the republican committee at New York. It was sent from southern California to prevent suspicion.

"Mr. Bayard, whom I saw to-day, Clinton B. Fisk much. He accepted my discumier that it was either my thought or intention much. He accepted my disclaimer that the country. It was a campaign trap, Robert H. Cowdrey but he frankly told me that I had been indiscreet.

"I expressed my deep regret for the incident, and Mr. Bayard assured me-On the 31st of October Lord Sackville James L. Curtis eabled Lord Salisbury: "I must reply The total popular vote for president sons for my dismassal as an unjust at-Almanac, was: Cleyeland, democrat, Lord Salisbury on the same day cabled 4,911,017; Blaine, republican. 4,848,334; to Lord Sackville to place Mr. Herbert, Butler, greenback, 133,825; St. John, a senior secretary on the spot, in charge On November 1st, Lord Salisbury communicated with Minister Phelps and referred to the latter's promise to procure a copy of the obnoxious interview

nade by the British minister at Wash ington, and said: That having no furwho will gladly welcome her as mistress | ther information as to what Lord Sackville's speeches contained or to whom they were made he was unable to form any judgment upon the consideration. which dictated the request for his recall Mr. Phelos replied to the note on the next day. He said: "My recollection of elect will comprise a group of charming what passed in our conversation on Saturday differs slightly from yours in one particular. It was not intended to be understood that the letter written by Lord Sackville formed a part of the reasons for the request for his recall. I did say in my remarks that the newspaper interview was the principal reason. I am still without a copy of the interview. I received a copy of your lordship's note requesting the full details of language and circumstances of interview. In the house of lords, Lord Salisbury stated that England has assented to cooperate with Germany to prevent the export of slaves and the import of arms fleet would form a blockade, and have the right to search vessels sailing under

The Inauguration Centennial.

New York dispatch: Chauncey M Depew has consented to deliver the oration on the occasion of the centennial celebration of Washington's inauguration, April 30 next. Dr. Storrs will of fer prayers and Arbishop Corrigan will pronounce the benediction. The president of the United States, who will come over the route taken by Washington arriving by boat from Elizabeth, N. J. There will be a grand parade.

THE MARKETS. WHEAT-No. 2 .. Corn-No. 2 mixed..... OATS-No. 2 BARLEY-. 48% BUTTER-Choice country ... 18 CHICKENS-per doz 2 50 @ 3 00 ORANGES-Per box 500 @ 600 POTATOES-New..... 40 Carrots-Per bu..... Tomaroes, per bu..... Woot.-Fine, per th..... HONEY ... CROPPED FEED-Perton....17 00 (417 50 ... 5 00 @ 6 00 Hogs-Heavy weights..... 5 25 @ 5 35

SHEEP-Natives 2 75 @ 2 85

KANSAS CITY.

CATTLE—Native steers....... 8 25 @ 4 50 Hoes—Good to choice....... 8 80 @ 8 878