STATE JOTTINGS IN BRIEF.

-Rev. T. B. Hilton, pastor of the M. E. church at Fremont, has been granted leave of absence for several damages. The case is that of Sophie Christineach, by her next friend. For weeks for the purpose of soliciting subscribers to the stock or lots on the newly purchased camp ground of the North Nebroska conference. The grounds comprise sixty acres, which is platted into parks, avenues and cottage lots, the latter being offered for sale at $50 each. -A destructive fire swept over Holt county, south of O'Neill, a few days ago, in which an immense amount of hay was consumed. Mr. Blabon's hired man was arrested for setting the fire and has been sent to jail. Mr. Elwood, on Dry creek, has sued Mr. Blabon for $1,000, on the charge that he allowed it to be done. Mr. A. J. Potter lost 300 tons of hay, and Mr. John Drake about the same amount. A school house was burned. Mr. McCarty lost his stable and four horses. Mr. William Ryan lost a stable and three horses and one large cow barn.

-Judge Groff, at Omaha last week, fined a "sassy Swede" $100 for contempt of cour.

-It is proposed to build at least twenty cottages on the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home grounds at Lincoln next year.

-Last week burglars broke into A. Bergstrand's tailor shop, at Fairmont, and took therefrom clothing to the value of $150. No clue has been discovered.

-Work on the Broken Bow water works is progressing with vigor. The system is expected to be ready for use by January 1at

-A child at Ohiowa had its mouth badly burned by an attempt to drink concentrated lye.

-The pavers in Fremont are working nights and Sundays to get out of the way of cold weather.

-Several farmers about South Fork and Chambers are feeding quite extensively, and they are busy now in building their corrals and sheds for the winter. The sides of the sheds are built of sod and the roofs are latticed with heavy wire over a few rafters, and covered with shrubbery and thatched hay.

-The farmers of Holt county, says a correspondent, are becoming reconciled to their big losses, occasioned by the last winter's blizzard. Several talked strongly of pulling up and going elsewhere, but only a few have left. Mr. John Kellar lost over 250 head of cattle, and Mr. Adams and several others nearly as many.

-At South Omaha last week, the Armour, Cudahy company killed 8,545 hogs and 1.314 cattle; the Omaha Packing company 7,387 hogs; Swift & Co., 1,955 cattle, 987 sheep and 188 calves, and Hammond & Co., 350 sheep, 2,924 hogs and 1,238 cattle.

-The city marshal of Lincoln has received from the police department of Chicago a description and photograph of a Frenchman named Charles C. The fire alarm was turned in and the department was soon on hand, but it was discovered there was no fire in the building. The presence of the engines added to the confusion. Several women were trampled beneath the crowd, among whom was Mrs. R. D. Pavenport, of Sheffield avenue, who was seriously injured and had her pocketbook stolen. Many of the lady clerks in the store fainted and were carried to a neighboring drug store. The pickpockets reaped a harvest, having secured a number of pock-

The last volume of the report in the tenth census has just been issued. It completes the set of twenty-two quartovolumes, aggregating 19,302 pages. In addition there are two volumes of the compendium of the census. The cost of the work, exclusive of the printing, engraving and binding, was $4,853,350, which is 68 cents per capita of the population of the country on June 1, 1880. The appropriation for printing, engraving and binding amounted to $1,018,-116.49. In addition to the statistics of population, manufacture and agriculture, there were special reports, among the most valuable of which were those on newspapers, social statistics of cities, wages taxation, public indebtedness, mining industries and cotton production.

South Carolina Rairoads.

The annual report of the state railroad committee, issued on the 20th, shows an increase in the mileage of the railroads of South Carolina of 9 per cent during the past year, and the marked increase of 38 per cent in their net earnings, the year having been a most prosperous one. Gross receipts increased nearly $1,000,000.
