

Our own Patrick Egan of Lincoln goes as minister to Chili.

JOHN BRIDGER, the eminent British statesman, passed to his final account, Wednesday.

"REPRESENTATIVE LAIRD was out on the streets again to-day," says the Omaha Bee of Wednesday.

This president has issued his proclamation opening the Oklahoma lands to settlement on the 22d of April.

MINISTERS to Great Britain: Robert T. Lincoln, To Germany, Murray Halstead, Russia, Halbert Thorsgaard, To France, White-law Field, To Austria, Fred D. Grant.

Six thousand colored men have left North Carolina and twenty thousand others are preparing to follow them. A convention has been called with a view to removing every black man from the state. They are going west of the Mississippi river.

The labor organizations in New York succeeded recently in persuading the legislature to pass a law against blacklisting. The bill was slightly amended prior to final passage, and the words "by employers" struck out, and the effect of the measure is scarcely what the promoters intended, for the case under the new law has resulted in the filing of a labor organization for blacklisting a disaffected member.

LINCOLN NOTES.

Dr. S. L. Green was a Capitol visitor on the 22nd. Judge Lucas was shaking hands with his friends about the Capitol on Thursday, the 22d inst.

In our last, we referred to "Miss Ashmore of McCook," when we should have said Indianapolis.

Hon. Geo. Hocknell and Supt. A. Campbell sojourned at the Capitol on Tuesday, the 23rd instant.

John Wiley, L. L. D., was a State House visitor on Monday, the 25th. He did not state, however, whether he wished to be appointed Register or Receiver at the McCook land office.

The present recorder, in the office of Secretary of State, Dave Bonarner, recorded more articles in the two years just past, than his predecessors did in fourteen years and in addition to this he recorded the reports of board meetings. And yet people say that the work of state officers has not materially increased. "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise."

It is given out that President Harrison favors Judge Gresham as the successor of the late Justice Matthews. Such an appointment would be a fitting recognition of the better element of the republican party. It would be a selection fit to be made upon the ground of qualification, and in strict accordance with the sanctities and proprieties which should hedge about the supreme judiciary of the nation.

In this day and age, when anarchy and socialism parade their shapless and shameless forms before the public gaze, the question naturally arises as to the cause of it all. But when such papers as the Omaha Bee and "his true, 'tis pity," many of our more influential papers are continually inveigling against the law and constantly reiterating that "prohibition does not prohibit," and so on ad infinitum, what wonder, that the people come to resent any law that does not just exactly suit them? Law is law and should be upheld and obeyed whether prohibition of the liquor traffic or prohibition of murder. Our nation is founded upon the broad and equitable principle, that the majority shall rule. Then if the majority say that they desire to enact a law they will have it and it is the duty of the minority to submit, with as much grace as possible. If you remove this great bulwark from our national structure, nothing but ruin and disaster can or will follow. It is high time that we should take pleasure in hearing our laws defended and having derision hurled at people who are loyal citizens. SIVART.

H. O. Thayer will take notice that on the 15th of March, 1889, S. H. Colvin, a justice of the peace of the Lincoln County, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $24.00, and interest from February 25th, 1889, at 10 per cent, on an action pending before him wherein B. F. Olcott is plaintiff and H. O. Thayer, defendant; that property of the defendant consisting of butcher tools and fixtures used in a butcher shop, has been attached under said order; said case was continued to the 15th day of May, 1889, at 10 o'clock, A. M. B. F. OLCOTT, Plaintiff. By L. L. HULBEAD & A. J. KITTENBERGER, his attorneys. 44-21a.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT.

The makers of the Ivory Soap have been engaged in the manufacture of Soaps for over fifty years, and the "Ivory" is the happy result of their long experience, and is unquestionably the soap to be used by all who value the advice (quoted below) of Ellen H. Richards, Instructor in Chemistry, Woman's Laboratory, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who says, "In the purchase of soap, it is safest to choose the make of some well known and long established firm who have a reputation to lose if their product is not good."

A WORD OF WARNING. There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory,'" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it. Copyright 1886, by Procter & Gamble.
