Warner's Log Cabin PLASTERS. will immediately relieve the pain in your back; then look for the cause of it. Try it. Possible Meight of Brick Walls.

In a number of tests applied to masonry, according to Prof. Baker of Illinois university, piers of ordinary brick and common lime mortar stood a pressure of | with the matter in our perilons latitude. a little over 1,500 pounds per square inch; which is equal to the weight of a column of brick 2,000 feet high, with ordinary Portland cement mortar the strength was somewhat more than 2,500 pounds per square inch, or the weight of a column of brick masoury 3,600 feet

MakesYouHungry "I have used Paine's Celery Compound and injurious effect, it gives that rugged health which makes everything tagle good. It cures dyspepsia and kindred disorders. Physicians prescribe it, and you will recommend it after you have used it. $1.00. Six for $5.00. Druggists. WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., Burlington, Vt.

Paine's Celery Compound

Builds Up the System. "In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with so tired a feeling, and was so weak that I could hardly get around. I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better.
I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine."

Mrs. B. A. Dow, Burlington, Vt.

LACTATED FOOD The Physicians' Favorite. Babies cry for it. 25 cts. DIAMOND DYES Can't be equaled, Never Crock.

these Little Pills. They also relieve Di ress from Dyspepsia, It digestion and TooHear Eating. A perfect reu edy for Dizziness. Nau wsiness, Bad Tas in the Mouth, Coate Tongue, Pain in the Sid TORPID LIVER. The egulate the Bowel Price 25 Cents.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., NEW YORK. Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price

with a disease for which doctors had no name. The nails came off his ingers, and the fingers came off to the middle joint. For 3 years he suffered dreadfully; is now getting well, and I am satisfied Swift's Specific is the chief cause of his improvement.

POISONED BY A CALF—My little boy leroke out with sores and alcers, the result of the saltva of a calf coming in contact with a cut finger. The ulcers were deep and painful and showed no inclination to heal. I gave him Swift's Specific, and he is now well.

Swift's Specific, and he is now well.

Feb. 15, '89.

John F. Heard, Auburn, Ala. Send for books on Blood Poisons & Skin Diseases.
Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

I was so much troubled with catarrh it seriously affected my voice. One bottle of Ely's Cream Balm did the work. My voice is fully restored.—B F. Liepsner, A. M., Pas-tor of the Olivet Baptist church, Philadelphia. ELY BROS., 56 Warr. n St., N. Y

I prescribe and fully endorse Big G as the only specific for the certain cure of this disease. G. H. INGRAHAM, M. D., We have sold Big G for many years, and it has given the best of satis-D. R. DYCHE & CO.. Chicago, lil.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK. The Largest, Cheapest and itest in the World

CASH ASSETS $120,000,000 OMARA, - - NEB.

BROWNELL & CO., Manufacturers and dealers in Engines, Boilers and Pumping Machinery

Iron and Wood Working Machinery, Saw Mill Ma-chinery and Supplies, Railroad and Contractors' Sup-plies, State Agents Dodge's Wood Split Pullays and Bodge's Patent System of Power Transmission by Ma-nilla Rope, Agents Trenton Iron Co.'s Wire Rope, Peet's Patent Bouble Gate Valves, &c. 12.3 Leavenworth St. OMAHA, NEB.

IF USED BEFORE CONFINEMENT. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTAJOA

TORS find that Piso's Cure for Consumption not only PREVENTS, but also CURES Hoarse-

AND RARE PLANTS HOME STUDY, Book-keeping, Penmanship,

oughly taught by mail. Low rates. Circulars free. BRYANT'S COLLEGE, 431 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Free Masonary, Signs, Grips and Morgan's fate by mail on receipt $1. Peoples' Publishing Co., St. Paur, Mann.

W. N. U., Omaha,

"Lent will cut down pneumonia rates," said Dr. Hamilton the other day. "It always does." This was an aston-isher at first, but when he explained that nine-tenths of the cases of pnenmonia were brought on in persons predisposed to it by sudden exposure to night air after coming from a superheated room, I can see that the late win ter festivities have a great deal to do There is one feature about Lent that society is apt to overlook, and that is its dietetic advantages. Any one who will keep it strictly will find himself in better condition to go through our summer. -New York Truth.

Most men. otherwise strong in body and mind, will become unhappy and break down when afflicted with Rheumatism. If they would only try Salvation Oil they would find relief at once. Price 25c.

All the keys of Windsor Castle were recently stolen, but even this does not interfere with the rapid sale of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A Land of Steam. Dr. Th. Thoroddsen reports flut in explorations in the interior of Iceland last summer he visited some remarkable valleys in a mountain range called Kjerlingarfjoll. He discovered grand sulphur springs in great numbers, as well as innumerable large boiling mud pools-blue, red, yellow and green in color. Steam penetrated everywhere through fissures in the earth, one jet, six to nine feet in height, keeping up such a continual roar that it was impossible to hear the loudest shouts in its vicinity. The greatest care had to be observed in walking on the thin crust of heated clay covering the boiling mud CONTENTMENT passes wealth. You are sure to be contented with the use of Warner's Log Cabin EXTRACT for external and internal pains. This is better than to employ a physician who cannot do more for you if you had the wealth of Crossus. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.

Western Populations. Stranger (in western city)-"I understand you claim 100,000 population for this town?" Directory Man-"Yes, sir. We have in the new directory, just being finished, 20,000 names. That multiplied by five, the average size of a family, makes 100,000. See?" Messenger Boy-"Please, sir, Mr.

Hardtype wants to know how many copies of that directory you want printed? Directory Man (after some figuring-"Um! I gness tifteen will be enough. -New York Weekly.

A Lucky Carriage Painter. Griffin. (Ga.) News, March 6.

R. L. Malone has just returned from Greenville, where he has been receiving the congratulations of his friends on his great luck. He held one-twen- no boy in it, do ye?" tieth of ticket No. 17,160, which drew Lottery Company on the 12th of February, and his share after deducting off?" cost of collecting, was just $2,495,00, as we saw on his deposit book of the City Natitonal Bank. It is not every young man who picks up such a sum so easily as this, and he is correspondingly elated. Mr. Malone is a young man of about twenty or twenty-two years, a carriage painter by trade, and has never bought many tickets in the Louisiana State Lottery, though he says he proposes to stick to it now as long as he has a dollar to spare. He is a pleasant, easy, good natured fellow, and has been enjoying himself since his sudden access of wealth.

When a vaccination takes, what does i

Knives were first used at table by our English ancestors, and the finest cutlery and table service now known in the railway world may be seen on the famous Golden Gate Special over the Union Pacific Railway from Council Bluffs and Omaha to San Francisco, every Wednes-

"F. F. V." is said to mean, in Kansas First Family Vaccinated."

For strengthening and clearing the voice, "Brown's Bronchial Troches."-"I have commended them to friends who are public speakers, and they have proved extremely serviceable."-Rev. Henry Ward

A beautiful rug often covers an ugly hole in a carpet.

Consumption Surely Cured. To the Editor:-Please inform your read ers that I have a positive remedy for consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and P. O. address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl street, New York.

Better to be born with brains in the head than with a golden spoon in the mouth.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

We never knew an old maid who would admit that she never had a love affair.

Food for Consumptives. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is a most marvelous od and medicine. It heals the irritation of the throat and lungs, and gives flesh and strength quicker than any other remedy known. It is very palatable, having none of the disagreeable taste of the crude

A Primitive Industry.

In Colombia the American aloeknown there as "figue"-is of great importance on account of its fibre, which is used for sandals, sacks, ropes, girths, pack saddles, etc. These manufactures are among the most important of the | be dragged overboard." country, the yearly value being variously estimated at from $10,000,000 to $30. 000,000. No part of the plant except the fibre is used, and this is now extracted by so slow and laborious a process that a skilled laborer can produce only about ten pounds of fibre daily. HOW'S THIS!

We offer One Hundred Dollars Rewart for any case of Catarrh that can not be cured by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm. West & Truax, Wholesale Druggista, Toledo, Ohio. Waldiez, Kimin & Marvin, Wholeshi

Druggists, Toledo, Ohio.

E. H. Van Hoesen, Cashier, Toledo National Bank, Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally. acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, Price; 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggista. WISDOM IN RHYME, Oh, merchant, in thine hour of e e e, If on this paper you should c c c. And look for something to ap p p p Your yearning for greenback v v v, Take our advice and now be y y y, Go straight ahead and advert i i i. You'll find the project of some u u u; Neglect can offer no ex q q q. Be wise at once, prolong your d a a a, A silent business soon de k k k. Buffalo News.

Between Two Horns.

"I tell you, Susan Swing," said Captain Rose, "there ain't a man hatlives between the Two Horns as would let his boy not bigger than your'n go out in a boat to-day. Don't you do it. "Tain't no kind of weather for that slip of a lad to go foolin' with them big billows as sweeps around old Dull Head. Why, look yourself, woman. You can see them more'n four miles away, dashing and lashing the shore."

As Captain Rose spoke he pointed with his right hand in the direction of one of the two headlands between which Dell Haven lay.

"And no dory in the habor," he continued, "could weather Bright Head (pointing towards the headland at the left), not if Cap'n Hezekiah himself was a row'n of it. You'd out you doin' it.

"I can't bear to do it," said Mrs. Swing. "Richard will be so disappointed. He set his lobster pots put the boat about and tied it foryesterday, and he hasn't clept any all night in his eagerness to go out early and haul them. Don't you see, Captain Rose, it's Saturday, and ding such brilliance on the waters two whole coaches full of summer that Mrs. Swing, who sat facing it, boarders came last night to the was dazzled and well night failed to see Bright Head House, and he can get a big price for his lobsters to-day. My poor Dick has worked so hard making the lobster pots himself, and it seems like cutting off the boy's reward to say 'you shant't go' to

"S'pose you do feel weakish 'bout it, Susan; but you don't want that ere boat to be picked up adrift and

"You know I don't, Captain Rose," the drawing of the Louisiana State you think I'd get up before daylight to come down here to see the lad > he comes, and he is fastening his straw hat to his buttons. He sees there is wind enough ahead." It was a morning in June, and the > sun was not yet risen, but the glory of his coming was in the East and As he came down the pier, the oars on his shoulders, and securing his straw hat by a string to his jacket, the old Captain said: "He's a fine lad, Dick is, and well worth the sav-

"He's all the world to me," thought Mrs. Swing, although her lips uttered no word.

"Good moring, Captain Rose," called out Richard. "Good for lobsters, do you think?" "Better for lobsters than 'tis for boys," ejaculated the Captain, removing his broad brown hands from his pockets and laying one of them on the lad's shoulders as soon as the later came within touching distance. "I say Dick Swing, that you are not going out in that cockleshell of your'n this morning," he an-

"I certainly am, Captain Rose," returned the boy. "It's a little rough, but likely as not the wind will come right around before I get half way little mother here half to death. See mother," he said, gayly, "I have an extra oar and one whole pin, yes, two of them, in case a rock-lock gives away, and I've got a lot of extra courage about me that I can't exactly show you unless you come with

This he said looking out to sea, for he did not feel like looking either at his mother or Captain Rose."

"Dick," said Mrs. Swing, apbestow his lunch basket and extras put about?" under the bow.

looking up.

said, her tones full of beseeching. "Why, mother? Do you want my seven new lobster pots to be carried it comes up again!" off to sea?" he asked. "How could lose them every one." them in alone. "You'll be sure to can take hold."

Richard,

"Hump! I should sink that craft | were not long in starting off. before we got out of harbor," said Success to you. Fetch em' back the Captain; "though if I wasn't so alive!" called out Captain Rose. heavy I would go." Captain Rose

"Not another person was in sight. As they watched the dim, dark into trouble to sail after you."

"Thank you, Captain." you let the lobster pots go?'

er?" he called a second later.

"Wait a minute," exclaimed Mrs. Swing. "Fetch your boat close up. want to speak to you, Dick."

The boat received the necessary impetus, and touched the side of the on the topmost layer of logs forming of the mere speck in the distance and the warf, and leaned over as though | the toiling helpers so far behind. to speak confidentially to her son.

tain Rose on the dock or Captain he said to himself: Richard in the boat had knowledge of her intention. "What under the sun, mother," you from tumbling overboard when you haul in," and she seated herself cried the boy, "do you mean?"

scarcely knew why. Of all the women in Dell Haven, delighted her, but to venture on it

A moment's peace she never knew when Richard, her only son was exposed to the treachery of the waters. but rather than mar his wild delight better take them new-locks out and in wind and waves this unselfish hide the oars if he won't mind with- mother concealed as much as possible her anxiety for him.

Richard was not selfish, and had he imagined what his mother was at that moment suffering would have ever at the stake rather than cause her this agony.

Just as the boat got well into the toil of the waves the sun arose, shedin time a gill net into which the boat was running. "See any boat ahead, mother?" questioned Richard. "You must keep a good lookout for me. I've saved!" The child got up to the belgot my ranges right and can fetch the lobster grounds every time."

"Is it far?" questioned his mother shudderingly. "Not very; just outside Dull Head. I reckon we'll fetch it," said the lad, dipping his oars for a full stroke and never to find it again. Meanwhile, then letting the boat slide up to the the news got abroad that Captain summit of a rolling wave, a trick he Rose had telegraphed to Cornwall had caught from Captain Hezekiah for a tug, and the burden of fear the third capital prize of $50,000 in she said. "It I hadn't loved him do Danforth, the master boatman of grew lighter. Dell Haven.

The wind grew stronger and stronger, and the waves every moment insideways more than once with ill-"Hush," said the Captain. "Here concealed anxiety as the long billows came tumbling on, and just then getting a glympse of his mother's face beheld it so blanched with terror of the sea that it seemed to him his mother was no longer in the boat with him.

"Dick," she gasped as his oar missed stroke and sent the spray over the boat, "Dick, I'm afraid to | shouted: go on.

Dich glanced backward. He had pulled about a mile from shore and was midway between the two headlands familiarly spoken of as the Horns. Dull Head was surrounded by an even accumulating mass of breakers, and Bright Head caught the sea on its precipitous sides, sending it backward in fountains of foam, and all the four miles that lay between the two points were rolling miles of billows.

Sitting with his face landward Richard had not fully felt the dan-

Now, the lad could not repress a shudder as he said, "I don't believe could find the buoys in such a sea, and nobody could haul in the pots. I believe I'll put about.' "Oh, do! O Richard, there comes and Good Heart bore away with coran awful one!' and Mrs. Swing slipped down from her seat into the bottom of the boat and hid her free from the oncoming wave. Richard gave a mighty pull at the oars to keep the boat head on, and it rode that wave in safety only to meet new ones, into whose depths the tiny shell rolled to be completely to the ledge, and I should think you hidden from the sight of two men would know better than to scare my | who were standing on the Dell Haven pier. One was Hezekiah Danforth, the other was Captain Rose.

"If there was only a tug in sight to help them," groaned Captain Rose. "Why didn't you dun a little common sense into the woman if she didn't take any naturally," scolded Captain Danforth, "or shut her and the boy up somewhere."

"I told her, but I declare when was young I could have brought down them oars in half the time it proaching the pier's edge as the takes Jim to fetch 'em I say, 'Kiah owner of the little boat proceeded to | Danforth, ain't that boat trying to

"It acts like it, John, but it will get "Well, mother," returned Richard, swamped just assure as guns if-no, it's going on. There's nothing else "I wish you would not go," she to do. I never in all my life saw a time when there wasn't a sail in sight. * * The boat's gone! No! There Suddenly a cry for a helping hand you have the heart to ask me?" If was raised among the bystanders, the wind keeps on blowing I shall and willing hearts went forth from the land.

"That's true," ejaculated Captain Rose. "I never thought of that. for life?" called out Captain Danforth. It's just right, this wind is, to drag "Jim, you'd better get in. You're them off, but you never can haul strong; if one of us tuckers out you

All ready lay the boat, a dark "No, I shan't. Come along with green surf boat, a boat that could me if you wan't to help," laughed stand heavy seas, and the two men and boy who had nobly volunteered

All at once the pier at Dell Haven weighed a trifle less than three hun- seemed thronged with people. The after fifty years of faithful service. Richard were out alone on the sea.

"I'll tell you what I'll do," said the speck now rising upon the swelling Captain. "If you insist on going, waters and quickly vanishing from l'Il stop on my way up and ask sight, not one of the little throng Captain Danforth to look out for but knew the danger of the tiny boat. you, and if he thinks you're getting With breathless eagerness they into trouble to sail after you." watched the surf boat as its ask me? Will you cast me off, moth- will never hve till they get there," were some of the remarks heard as they passed on.

As for Captain Rose he went panting up the hill into the town, climbed into the belfry of Dell Haven church, as far up as he could go, and watchpier. Mrs. Swing had seated herself ed through a spy-glass the progress

After a few minutes he realized that | profession comes as near being an eso-"Dick," said his mother, "hold Captain Danforth, although doing teric one as any that is acknowledged to fast! I'm coming," and into the his utmost, could not reach the perboat she dropped before either Capilled ones in time to save them and "The boy is doing well, but he climbed the belfry stairs.

"I'm going with you, Dick, to keep "See here, Dolly," he said, "can you look through here and keep food here for reflection-and for docin the stern, calling back as the tide sharp watch? No, yourun-you can tors. floated the boat out. "We depend on go quicker'n I can," and the Capyou, Captain Rose, to send after us tain scribbled a message on the back by the startling ignorance shown by the if we-if it gets too rough," she gasp- of an envelope, and giving it to her attending physicians in the Somerville ed, with a dash of spray in her face. bade her make haste to the telegraph | Cases. "Av. av!" cried the Captain, and office. "You tell Johnny Blake it's he took off his hat and swung it, he to save a life and it must go ahead of everything.'

Dolly Rose did not need to be told from the eldest to the youngest, Mrs. | twice. She ran every step of the Swing most feared the sea. To live way, and rushing into the telegraph beside it, to watch its every mood office flushed and eager cried out: nervous disorders, whilst the real dis-"Mr. Blake, here, send this quick. for pleasure she was never known to Richard Swing and his mother are going to drown, and it's to save

The operator took the old envelope

Captain True, steam tug Good Heart, Cromwell Harbor. Steam out at once in search of small boat-woman and boy in itoff Dell Haven three miles: going against the JOHN ROSE. wind; can't last long.

clicking away at his machine for a timely used, and to it alone. What is minute or two, and then exclaiming, apparently a disease in the other organs "It's done. Wait a minute, sis, and I'll tell you whether or not hegets it; wire runs right down to the wharf.,' The minutes went by. Ten had passed organs. when the answer came back:

"Steam's up; start at once; go myself. "TIMOTHY TRUE."

The operator did not stay to write it." Run quick and tell you father Captain True is gone already," he said Dolly ran, saying to every one she fry stair, and couldn't utter a word. She could only smile and bow her head and try to get out the message which she did at last.

Captain Rose's eve was on the Relieves and cures speck. He dared not take it off lest NEURALGIA,

In the little boat again and again had Richard tried to turn its head towards the land, but with each trial creased in size. Even Richard glanced it took in so much water that he was forced to give up the attempt Nothing could be done but keep of and face the boiling see. Very few words were spoken. Mrs. Swing kept bailing as fast as possible, with only the shell of a horseshoe crab to work with.

At length came a wavelike a small hill, up which the boat rode gallantly, and then suddenly Richard

"They're coming for us, mother. I see a boat just outside the harbor.' Then the tears sprung to Mrs. Swing's eyes. She stopped bailing for a moment to look toward the shore. All she could see was a wall of water shutting out the land. "Courage, mother" Dick said. Every rise and fall of the oar was a prayer; every dip of the poor old crab shell was a petition for life. Out from Cromwell Harbor, seven miles to the eastward, and hidden from sight by Bright Head, steamed the tug Good Heart. Never had its captain stood watching thesea with more earnest gaze. Never was steam applied with more generous hand. Twas the woman and the boy in the boat out at sea that lived in the gaze, in the steam and in the fuel, and weathered. "I see it!" shouted the Captain, 'though how in thunder it's lived to get there's more'n I know," and he gave directions to steam outside.

dial speed till Bright Head was won

Richard's attention was so divided between the billows and the land and the friendly boat, and Mrs. Swing was so intent on bailing, that neither of them saw the tug until it was upon them, and a hailing voice shout-

"Hold on till we pick you up."

It seemed as if a voice from heaven had spoken. Even bluff old Captain Rose up in the belfry of the church, ejaculated, "Thank God!" as he saw the tug come to. The shock of the call, the sight of the black, throbbing tug, friendly as they seemed, yet came near swamping the boat, for Richard let it turn, and the last strength he had was put forth in holding it up to the wind until a line was cast off, and even then he had no power to make it fast. It was Mrs. Swing who tried to obey the commands that came but could

Finally the tug's boat was lowered. It was no easy task to get to leeward and board the Good Heart, which held its breath, bracing itself against the waves almost as a thing of life to do its kindly office. Richard and his mother had been saved. "Give 'em a signal! Give 'em three!" and the steam whistle blew three shrieks that went over the bay and up the harbor and over against the meeting house steeple, until old Captain Rose fell down on his knees to utter the first prayer of thankfulness his little Dolly had ever heard her father offer.

came by a stately new building. "What a magnificent new strucdred pounds, and had left the sea news spread that Mrs. Swing and ture!" said one. "Yes," replied the other, "but I cannot bear to look at it, often as I pass it." "That is reminds me that the owner built it will be promptly refunded. out of the blood, the aches and grief of crying children, the woe of Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or six Bottles for $5.00.
wailing women." "Gracious! What | Copyright 1888 by Workers Drawn and Kindred affections, it is a grief of crying children, the woe of Sold by Druggists, at $1.00, or six Bottles for $5.00. groans of his fellow-men, out of the is the owner? A money-lender or a pawnbroker, or something of the 9th, says: "The question as to how much of what they pretend to know doctors really know is a very interesting one.

Food for Reflection. The New York World of February

"They possess exceptionally great facilities for humbugging, and the presumption is that they are not proof in most cases, at all times at least, against temptation to make use of them. Their be respectable. But the revelation as to their views in the Robinson arsenical poisoning cases in Boston is startling. "There were five deaths from the drug, and the doctors in their certificates atcan't hold out. I must do it." Cap- tributed them respectively to pueu tain Rose's little daughter had fol- monia, typhoid fever, menigitis, howel lowed her father into the church and disease and Bright's disease of the kidneys. The truth would have never been known but for suspicions with which the doctors had nothing to do. There is

The above criticism is fully warranted

It can be aptly said that human life is too often sacrificed to the ignorance and bigotry of the profession

Too often it happens that fatal results follow an improper course of treatment -the physician treats the patient for consumption, general debility or for ease, which is slowly destroying the kidnevs and filling the system with a poison quite as deadly as arsenic, is altogether overlooked or does not attract attention nutil too late.

Physicians too often treat the symptoms of disease instead of the disease itself It is well established that four-fifths of the ordinary ills which beset humanity are the results of disease in the kidnevs which will yield to the corative "All right," said the operator, properties of Warner's Safe Cure if is more oftentimes a mere symptom of kidney disease, which should be quickly eradicated by Warner's Safe Cure before it secures too firm a hold on those

Building air castles should be the work

RHEUMATISM. Toothache, Sprains, BRUISES, Sciatica, Lumbago. Burns and Scalds-At Druggists and Dealers. THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Baltimore, Md.

Diamond Vera-Cura FOR DYSPEPSIA. A POSITIVE CURE FOR INDIGESTION AND ALL Stomaca Troubles Arising Therefrom Your Druggist or General Dealer will get Vera-

Cura for you if not already in stock, or it will be sent by mail on receipt of 25 cts. (5 boxes $1.00) in stamps

Strictly PURE. It contains NO OPIUM Among the best remedies Allen'al.nug Raisaus stands pre-eminent. The druggists speak of it in highest terms, as giving entire satisfaction wherever it is used.

Price 25ets., 50cts., and $1 per Bottle. The 25 CENT BOTTLES are put up for the accom Those desiring a remedy for CONSUMPTION or any LUNG DISEASE should scure the Large $1 Bottles.

Mothers, Read! Gentlemen. The demand for ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is increasing constantly. The lades think there is no medicine equal to it for croun and Whooping Cough.

C. S. MARTIN, Druggist.

SOLD BY ALL MEDI-INE DEALERS.

ELL DRILLS.

FOR ALL PURPOSES. Have made 2ft. a minute with the AUSTIN + + TRIUMPH.

Send 20c. for mailing F. C. AUSTIN MFG. Co. COR. CARPENTER ST. AND CARROLL AVE. CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

LIBRARY ITSELF

3000 more Words and nearly 2000 more Illustrations than any other American Dictionary. An Invaluable Companion in every School and at every Fireside. Sold by all Bookselfers. Illustrated Pamphlet sent free. G. & C. MERRIAM & CO., Pubs., Springfield, Mass when asked for the best blood-purifier, always recommends Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, because he knows it has by far the largest sale and gives the best satisfaction to his customers. Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from a common Blotch, or Eruption to the worst Scrofula. Salt-rheum, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence. Especially has it manifested its potency in Two gentlemen walking together curing Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, "White Swellings," "Fever Sores," Goitre, or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

AN HONEST DRUGGIST,

Consumption, which is Scrofula of the Lungs, is arrested and cured by this remedy, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease. WARRANTED. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the only medicine of its class that is guaranteed to benefit or cure, in all strange. Why not?" "Because it cases of diseases for which it is recommended, or the money paid for it For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

Copyright, 1888, by WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Proprietors.

s conquered by the elegasing, anti-two rowers stood at the oar urging "Dick," said his mother, "can't it onward. "It's down the harbor now. "Couldn't possible," smiled the They're catching it. It's an awful kind?" "Oh, no he is a dentist."hoy. "Could you have the heart to wind in June. That mite of a boat Wasp.