Wait for the electric lights.

Did you take down your base burner? Vociferous whooping cough is making its presence heard throughout the city. Change of advertisement by Lowman & Son, this week. Bargains in clothing and hats. Ice and frost both Tuesday and Wednesday nights; but no particular damage occasioned. "A great snap" in footwear at Bowen & Laycock's. See their new advertisement, this issue. The cloud and chill of the early part of the week has given place to serene skies and genial sun. The county teachers' association holds its next meeting in Bartley, Saturday, May 11th. See program in this issue. McCook will soon be luxuriating in electric lights. The plant has been ordered and work on same will commence at once. The missionary meeting at the Lutheran church, last Sunday evening, was a success. The "dioral cross" was beautiful. Snow falling, with an accompaniment of reverberating thunder and vivid lightning was a novel experience, this week. That Tuesday's celebration was not more in keeping with the enterprise and patriotism of our citizens is not entirely creditable to McCook. Arrangements are being made by Mrs. Barger to close out her business here and to remove to Culbertson to resume the millinery business there. Dr. L. W. Critzer, physician and surgeon, offers his professional services to the people of McCook and vicinity. Office opposite the Arlington House. THE TRIBUNE carries the only complete stock of legal and land blanks in Western Nebraska. Blanks put up in tablet form without extra cost. This week, the joke has been on the man who had just taken down his base burner and put up his ice cold soda water fountain—only pure fruit juices used. The present office of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. is located in the frame building in rear of the new First National bank building. Thos. Yarbrough, agent. Services at the Lutheran church, next Sabbath morning and evening, by the pastor, J. W. Kimmel. Subject at 10:30, M. T., "America." Subject at 7:30, "The Will of the Soul." The Culbertson Reville was in error in stating that Mrs. Lathrop of our city intended going into business at that place. Mrs. Lathrop has pinned her faith to McCook permanently. In all this commotion about cut prices in clothing, Drysdale, the old reliable tailor and draper, continues to turn out well made clothing of best quality goods at his usual, reasonable figures. Yesterday morning, Swartz, the candy man, removed his kitchen to his former quarters, four doors south, where he is now prepared to accommodate his customers as usual, in anything in his line. A poem of considerable merit, by M. J. Adams, well known in Red Willow county, is given space in this issue. Mike is cultivating the muse with a diligence which we hope to see rewarded substantially in due course of time. The first of the month, C. H. Dietrich purchased William Bartholomew's interest in the drug business of Dwyer & Bartholomew. C. H. draws the ribbons with scarcely less skill than he managed the iron steed on the Burlington in anti-strike times. A petition signed by all the barbers of the city, save one, has been sent to the council requesting the closing of barber shops on Sundays. The council will doubtless take such action at their next meeting. Barbers are entitled to a day of rest with the rest of mankind. The city authorities have agreed to take 8 and 90 incandescent lights from the electric light company. This will afford very fair natural illumination. The arcs will be used on the main business streets, while the incandescents will be used at crossings and on corners throughout the city. Early Wednesday evening, the "student" lamp which is regularly kept burning in the Farmers and Merchants bank at night, took fire in some unaccountable manner, and but for the prompt action of Marshal Bennett, who raised a window and quickly removed the flaming lamp, the result might have been different and perhaps serious. As it was the damage was merely nominal. The many lovers of birds are probably pleased to note that the favorite trimmings this season for hats and bonnets are artificial flowers. Bird life is dear to all true hearts, and their wanton destruction to trins hats is a sin and a crime. Those exquisite butterflies of birds life, the humming birds, are much in demand for ornamental purposes, and they must be had. The idea of using the body of a dead bird as a personal adornment does not appear to be a civilized one. It is fashionable and that is all. The so-called "bad lands" of Nebraska have rapidly disappeared from the maps of the country. It is coming to be understood that the old-time estimates of the capabilities of Nebraska soil, or indeed, for that matter, of the west in general, no longer hold good. There is, of course, in Nebraska as in other states, land that is not good for agricultural purposes, but the ratio of unutilized to tillable soil here is very small, and less than in any other region that we know of. Nebraska is, in fact, an earthly paradise for farmers. While all flowers are beautiful in their own sweet way, still the modest apple blossoms now to be seen in full bloom on nearly every lawn in this city, have a charm and sweetness that entitle them to a high place. Their pink delicacy as they are unfolding their hearts of gold is exquisite and a bunch of them nestling in the hair of an autoerotic child is typical of a pure and sweet innocence. One could rhapsodize long and lovingly over them, but when the heart feels most the lips move not. He who has no love for flowers, the stars of the earth, has lost much. And even the artificial flowers are pleasing—as a memory. "Signs of the early cucumber and radish and spring booms are upon us, ere yet the oyster has lessened or the mince pie has waned. Yea, verily, an early spring is upon us, and diphtheria will bloweth whither it listeth. Soon will the nonextinguishable chilo perambulate beneath the monogram garb of the romantic Nebraska school marm, who goes forth to gather the blue-eyed violet, or the old lady in search of a dish pan full of tender greens, as the case may be. Soon will the baby breath of gentle spring bring forth the fluent swear words from the family man as he gently but firmly swings the garden hoe, and soon will the rural subscriber begin to pay his subscription in spring chickens and water melons."

One Hundred Years Ago.

The centennial of the inauguration of the "Father of His Country" was commemorated by our people in proper form and spirit, Tuesday morning, in the M. E. church. Although the affair was somewhat unimpressive, the attendance was good and the exercises interesting. The church was appropriately decorated for the occasion. The city council was present in a body, Mayor Green being chairman of the meeting. Below we give the order of exercises: Music, "Freedom's Banner," Choir. Prayer, Rev. I. W. Dwyer. President's Proclamation, Nellie Huddleston. Music, "America," Choir. Historical Address, Col. T. E. McCracken. Music, "Star Spangled Banner," Choir. Toast, "F. M. Kimmel." "The Press Then and Now." Music, "Flag of the Free," Choir. Toast, Rev. I. W. Dwyer. "The Early American Sermon." Music, "G. A. R.," J. S. Leifow, Esq. Music, "Centennial Hymn," Choir. DOXOLOGY.

Clean Up Your Alleys.

"You may pave and garnish the beautiful street and put on metropolitan style; and the face of the city you may make complete and your lawns and gardens with beauty smile, but in your alleys there is fever and death, more fatal and dread than the Simoon's breath. Behind your hotels, so large and complete, the germ of death in the gutter lies; behind your lawns, so luxuriant and neat, the incense of death and destruction arises. Beware of the alley, there is death in its trench, and certain destruction in its mauseous stench. The fever season is coming apace, and death will sweep the place without remorse, regret or pity, unless your fever fields are cleaned, unless your ungodly alleys are cleaned. Grim Death is brooding over the town, his manly chatter, his eyeballs glare; at any moment he may swoop down, to reap his harvest that's in the air. For God sake, man, arouse and rally to cleanse your fever-laden alley."

A Delightful Gathering.

Register and Mrs. S. P. Hart entertained a large company of friends, last Friday evening, at their home on Upper Marshall street, in a cleverly charming manner, indeed. Progressive euchre was the never-fading source from which the major share of the evening's pleasure was drawn so eagerly. The guests were: MR. AND MRS. F. L. BROWN, A. Campbell, Frank Harris, J. C. Birdsell, George Hocknell, F. M. Kimmel, W. J. Hills, M. Y. Starbuck, C. H. Meeker, John F. Majors, C. W. Knights, G. A. Noren, R. H. Woods, T. J. Rees, Z. L. Kay, Frank Walsh, E. O. Newman, J. Byron Jennings, P. W. Newman, S. L. Green, C. M. Noble, J. E. Kelley, Samuel Strasser, F. H. Fowler, E. A. Leach, H. H. Troth, Mrs. Reed of Yuma, Colo. The first prizes were won by Mrs. J. E. Kelley and Mr. J. Byron Jennings. The boobies by Mrs. H. H. Troth and Mr. C. H. Meeker.

A NEW VERSION.

Mary had a little lamb, his fleece was white as snow; it strayed away one summer day, where ere lambs should never go. Then Mary sat her down and tears streamed from her pretty eyes; she never found her lamb because she did not advertise. And Mary had a brother John, who kept a village store, he sat down and smoked his pipe and watched the open door. And as the people passing along but did not stop to buy, John still sat down and smoked his pipe and blinked his sleepy eye. And so the sheriff closed him down, but still he lingered near; and Mary came to drop with him a sympathizing tear. "How is it sister that these other merchants here, sell all their goods and pay their bills and thrive from year to year?" Remembering now her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "These other fellows get trade, John, because they advertise."

The School Law.

We should like to know what was the matter with the legislature when they passed that school law with the emergency clause. Out of one hundred and thirty-three men there was not one who saw in what a state of affairs they were placing the schools of the state. Here we are with an illegal meeting on one hand, which will prevent the county board from acting on the levy, and on the other a law requiring the annual school meeting to be held after it is too late for the levy to be acted upon. The statute provides that a levy cannot be made at any other than an annual meeting. It begins to look as if the schools would have to run next year without money or be shut up. The law is a good one, if provisions had been made for levies this year.

"DO IT SOME MORE."

The action of the city council in instructing the police to enforce the ordinance prohibiting certain games is a proper and commendable one. Card playing and dice throwing have been carried on to an extent not at all creditable to our city. Such devices are unbusiness like, as well as unlawful, and pander to a popular weakness which should be firmly discouraged by the authorities. They have become a pronounced nuisance and the people will rise up and call our city fathers blessed for their abatement.

A Friend to the Editor.

The person who furnishes items to a newspaper is always a valuable friend to the editor. Many are diffident about handing personal notes to a newspaper regarding themselves lest the editor should think them anxious to see their name in print. He will think nothing of the kind, but on the contrary will be glad to get such notes. Many seemingly unimportant items when printed are news to a large number of readers.

Business Change.

The partnership heretofore existing between W. C. LaTourrette and his father, James LaTourrette of St. Louis, has been dissolved, and the former will continue the business, assuming indebtedness and collecting all accounts. THE TRIBUNE wishes the old "Pioneer" continued prosperity.

Not An Inopportune Time.

It occurs to the writer that if McCook contemplates doing anything for herself, this season, it would not be an inopportune time to build a city hall as has been proposed and considered at various times during the past few years. McCook needs to acquire the habit of self-help almost as badly as she needs the shops.

Their Subs. P. Hart Moved.

Register and Mrs. S. P. Hart moved out of their pleasant suburban home, east of the city, Wednesday, and Mr. C. E. Shaw and family at once assumed possession of the house vacated by them.

A ROARING SUCCESS.

The "FRANKLIN SKELE" as placed on the boards, last evening, under auspices of the Geometrical Society of the Congregational church, was a most amusing affair and kept the audience in one continuous roar of laughter, from the opening to the closing thereof. Costumes were excessively grotesque. Characters were well taken and by contrast were made more thoroughly ludicrous and laughable. The hall was fully filled and entertainment enjoyed largely. Below we give the CAST OF CHARACTERS: ICHABOD CRANE, J. F. FORBES. Timothy Toddy (stunt boy), C. F. Babcock. Betsey Trotwood (twins), Mrs. E. Bunker Lee Trotwood, J. R. Woods. Susanna Bobbs (attiler), Miss Ella Hart. Betsey Bobbet, Mrs. Zeigler. Susie Mailgan, Mrs. Z. L. Kay. Peggie Slim, Mrs. S. Strasser. Carrie Melroy (stunt boy), Mrs. Woods. Gertrude Toulahan, (crying girl), Mrs. Hills. Sally Waddles, (crying girl), Mayne Hunt. Tootsey-Wootsey, Anna McNameara. Nathaniel Backstraw, L. Roy Allen. Jonathan Donmuch, C. G. Potter. Maria Flipper, Mrs. Brewer. Patience Smith, (pert girl), Mrs. J. C. Allen. Samantha Harlsborow, Mrs. A. M. Kelley. Hezekiah Higginbottom, Dr. S. L. Green. SQUIRE KICKER, Directors. OBADIAH JONES, Directors.

An Adjourned Meeting.

The city council convened in special session, Friday afternoon. Present, Mayor Green, Councilmen Kay, Brown, Allen and Boyd, Clerk Lathrop and Attorney Jennings. On motion the council was instructed to enforce the ordinance regulating and prohibiting certain games. Of motion under suspension of rules, Ordinance No. 34, amending the occupation tax ordinance, was passed. It was decided to expend for the purpose of lighting the city by electric lights $70 per month for the period of one year, $20 per month the second year; and not less than $100 per month for the succeeding three years. Arc and incandescent lights to be used, at regular rates, to be placed at such places and in such manner as may be stipulated in contract to be hereafter entered into. Adjourned.

Subscribers Pay Up.

It is not the habit of the publisher to do persistent dunning; but there is a tide in the affairs of men which taken at the flood leads on to glory; so there is a time in the life of the publisher when a little cash seems to be necessary, in addition to glory. An urgent invitation is extended our delinquent subscribers to call at once and settle up. In other words we must have some money. THE PUBLISHER.

Extensive Improvements.

Mr. J. Byron Jennings and family have moved into one of their rental properties, preparatory to making extensive improvements to their own residence, to which a large addition will be built, the present building will be raised to two stories and everything generally elaborated until it shall be numbered among the largest, most convenient and handsomest residences in the city.

Land Decision.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior Chandler, has affirmed the decision of the commissioner of the general land office in holding for cancellation the pre-emption claim entry of Benjamin Bird for lands in McCook land district, Nebraska, on the ground that the entryman had not complied with the pre-emption law. Will have their regular meeting, Saturday, May 4th, at the Masonic Hall. Each member is desired to be present promptly at 2 o'clock, M. T. MRS. CORDELIA FOWLER, Pres. NELLIE LEE, Secretary.

Woman's Relief Corps.

Will have their regular meeting, Saturday, May 4th, at the Masonic Hall. Each member is desired to be present promptly at 2 o'clock, M. T. MRS. CORDELIA FOWLER, Pres. NELLIE LEE, Secretary.

The Light of prairie fires are nightly reflected on every horizon.

We understand that an Illinois party is figuring on opening a saloon in this city. The job of sprinkling the streets of the city has been awarded A. B. Davis at the sum of $47.50 per month. The various players are being signed and it is expected shortly to have a club here able to compete with any amateur combination of base ballers in Nebraska. THE TRIBUNE carries a full stock of school books and supplies, blank books, stationery, etc., all at lowest prices. Give us a call when wanting anything in our line. The order of court in the Kendall case was enforced by Sheriff Russell, yesterday, ejecting the Kendall's from the Bon Ton Bakery building. It was not a pleasant duty the sheriff had to perform. On Sunday, seven car loads of steers were shipped to the Omaha market from this point, three cars by H. T. Church, and two each by Messrs. Brewer & Wilcox and J. B. Meserve. The shipment was marketed on Monday, and brought top prices. The spring racing and trotting meeting of the Overland Park Club of Denver will be held from May 18th to 25th. The aggregate value of stakes and purses exceeds $10,000. Send for program to D. L. Hall, Supt., 13 Opera House Block, Denver, Colorado. "The scarlet girls are abroad the street, they are prim and bixom and jolly and neat; but beware young man lest your truant feet should take you into their bare retreat; for although they look jolly and happy and well, their jolly count 'takes hold on hell.' Look out for the girl with the brazen stare, that are bold and forward, with tangled hair; you may follow a lion into his lair and hope to come safely out into the open air, and into his den you may trace the bear and grasp his shaggy and tangled hair, but don't you fool with the scarlet belle, for her certain count 'takes hold on hell.'"

L. BERNHEIMER, MERCHANT TAILOR, McCook, Nebraska.

The U. S. Loan and Investment Co. of Omaha, Neb.

Will furnish the means to build a home, pay off a mortgage, cancel a debt, or educate your children, and take back the amount in small monthly payments, on a less rate than ordinary rentals, and a lesser interest than is charged by other money loaning institutions. Or it will receive small deposits of fixed amounts from those who desire to invest their savings and not become borrowers, and make each deposit earn from ten to twenty cent, a year as though they were a part of a large investment, as per examples given below, showing the estimated cost and profit derived by both the borrower and non-borrower, on a certificate of one share in five years, or one-half of the full maturity period. THE NON-BORROWER: Of a Certificate of One Share in Five Years. Pays a membership fee of $10.00. Sixty monthly installments of $3.00 each. Twenty quarterly installments of $2.50 each. A cancellation fee of 10.00. Making a total of all expenses for the five years of $250.00. He is then entitled to $300.00. THE BORROWER: Having been a Member Six Months and Borrowing $200.00. Has paid a membership fee of $10.00. Pays during the 5 years 60 monthly installments of $3.00 each. Twenty quarterly installments of $2.50. Also his interest of $3.33 1/3 per month for 54 months. Also pays the principal $200.00 per month for 54 months. Cancellation fee. 10.00. Also has invested a total of $600.00. As his shares have arrived at their fifth year maturity period, his certificate and loan will be cancelled. Thus the borrower has had the use of his money in advance of accumulating his savings and pay therefore but $10.00 or not quite five per cent. per annum, for he continues his loan in an investment, and while repaying the loan, is realizing upon the investment. He also knows in advance just what he will pay and how long he will pay it.

PERSONALS.

Judge Abbott of the Herald, Hayes Centre, was a business visitor, Tuesday. Rev. and Mrs. William Suess were in Culbertson, Saturday last, on a visit. Rev. Kimmel is at Franklin, Bloomington, Long Island and Norcarat, this week. Miss Tillie Barnes returned, Tuesday morning, from her visit to Indiana of a week. Mrs. J. C. Birdsell has been entertaining her friend, Mrs. Reed of Yuma, Colo., the past week. A. A. Baldwin came in from Denver, yesterday morning, on business connected with his property here. S. E. Solomon and F. Bert Risley represented the capital of Hitchcock at these headquarters, Wednesday. Mesdames Hutchinson and Cavanaugh of the county-seat were the guests of Mrs. C. T. Brewer, Tuesday. C. F. Babcock arrived home, Wednesday morning, from Denver, having disposed of his sorrels at a good figure. Miss Martha Thole, one of Hayes county's competent teachers, was in the city, Tuesday, visiting her sister Anna. Messrs. W. R. Starr, C. H. Oman, L. B. Korns and J. L. Hutchinson of the county-seat were city visitors, Wednesday. A. E. Lette and family returned home, Wednesday, from a delightful two week's visit up at the "old ranch" and vicinity. Banker Quick of Indianapolis, this county, was among our business visitors, Monday. C. S. brought his robust, dulcet laugh with him. Mrs. W. C. LaTourrette is entertaining her parents from Carlin, Mr. Tate, we regret to state, being quite ill and under the physician's care. L. H. Wallace came up from Red Cloud, yesterday, on business connected with his jewelry store here, for which he has had an offer to purchase. Messrs. H. T. Church, Fowler Wilcox and J. B. Meserve went into Omaha, Sunday, with a shipment of cattle. All returned home on Tuesday morning's passenger. Mr. and Mrs. John Furr of Ash Creek became the parents of twins, a boy and a girl, last week. John reports everything serene and lovely about the Furr homestead. Mr. Otis Wheaton, brother of Mrs. J. F. Ganschow, arrived in the city, this morning, from Sunbury, Ohio, and will make McCook his abiding place in the future, taking a position in Mr. Ganschow's best and shoe store. T. B. Campbell and family, this week, moved into their new home on North 10th street, recently purchased from W. S. Coy. Mr. Campbell has disposed of his Madison Avenue dwelling to a Lincoln gentleman. Helen Trowbridge came in from her run between Lincoln and Alliance, Tuesday evening. He reports a liking for the railway mail service and progress in learning the details of the work. He will remain with his family until next Monday. Mike Adams, who has been connected with the Democrat for some months, departed on Saturday evening for Akron, where he has been offered a position on the Tribune. Mike's pen is loaded with considerable of the "divine afflatus," and his presence on the Democrat will be missed sadly. Success be with him. Samuel Cinnamon and family will start on Monday next, by wagon, for Batteloff, North west Territory, where Mr. Cinnamon's family live and where they expect to make their future abiding place. They will be on the way a number of months. Success attend them. THE TRIBUNE will keep them posted on Red Willow county doings. Rev. J. W. Kimmel reports that his family on the homestead are making for themselves quite a record as "rattlesnake killers." One day last week, Miss Katie and the three boys "knived" in the race but dangerous sport of a snake hunt, over the prairie in the neighborhood of their home, while the parents were absent, and brought in as trophies three "rattlers," the largest having ten rattles. The children were in great glee. Mr. H. P. Sutton of Alnsworth, Brown county, is in the city, this week, the guest of his cousin Mr. J. F. Majors, looking over the city's inducements for the establishment of a first-class jewelry store here. Besides being an experienced jeweler, Mr. Sutton is one of the best brass and ordnance men in the state of Nebraska and his settlement amongst us would make a most desirable addition to the musical contingent of the Magic City, as his presence here is a guarantee that McCook will shortly take pride in having one of the best bands in the community. Though not definitely settled, we understand that his prospects for becoming a fixture here are good.
