THE TRIBUNE was the only paper in the county which printed the tabulated report of the county treasurer, last week. As heretofore casually mentioned, THE TRIBUNE prints ALL THE NEWS.

THE TRIBUNE has been requested to note the postponement of the Demorest Silver Medal contest at the Fredericks school house until Saturday evening, July 26th, one day later than former date.

Let the reunion committee come out of their hole. McCook entertained 10,000 people in a right royal manner, last year, and the people anticipate even a greater crowd and time, this year. It is time to move. Get the date well advertised and the attractions properly disseminated.

Parties in McCook, we understand, would be pleased to put their finger on L. Shevin, whose whereabouts is to them unknown, as well as some mortgaged stock that disappeared on or about the same time that the festive Lawrence changed his address.

At the regular meeting of the McCook Co-Operative Building and Savings Association, Tuesday night, held at the office of the secretary, C. H. Meeker, $3,000 was sold to Dr. S. L. Green at a premium of 18 per cent, and $600 to Bradford Ellis at the same rate. A new series—series "F"—was opened and a committee appointed to properly advertise the same.

On Wednesday, the 30th inst., we shall all know just how patriotic the republicans feel toward contributing toward a Laird monument fund. The congressional central committee was instructed to solicit subscriptions from members of the party in their respective counties and report to the congressional convention. The Democrat is betting that if a monument is ever erected to the memory of James Laird it must be done by the old soldiers of the district.—Hastings Democrat.

Wednesday, C. B. Gray through the agency of that rustling land broker, M. H. Bacon, sold to McGunness Bros., of Pinckney, Mich., three fine but unimproved quarter-sections of bottom land for the neat and rather stiff sum of $5,600. His deal was one of the direct results of McCook's reunion, last fall. The purchasers will, in the course of time, stock and cultivate the same in a manner befitting men of wealth and experience.

Red Willow county's real estate do move!

The Republican Valley Real Estate Co-operative Association, just organized, consists of the following membership: G. W. Colvin, Arapahoe; D. T. Welty and A. E. Raeger, Cambridge; J. L. THE TIDE FLOWS.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE. LINCOLN, NEB., July 22, 1890.—Blaine county Republicans declared unequivocally in favor of committing the Republican party to prohibition. The resolutions also called for the nomination of candidates entirely free from any connection or sympathy with the liquor traffic.

Col. J. T. Long, of Illinois, one of the ablest national speakers, is now in the Nebraska Amendment field under the auspices of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Good Templars. He should be heard in every county in this State. Calls for his work should be sent to Chas. Watts, Grand Secretary, 2620 Caldwell street, Omaha.

Col. T. B. Demaree, the popular Kentucky orator and Grand Chief Templar, has been conducting an Amendment tent camp meeting in Omaha for two weeks. Several converts have been made. Lou J. Beauchamp and Col. Long have been with Mr. Demaree and solid shot has been steadily poured into the ranks of the enemy. Demaree's tent combination will hereafter be accompanied by Col. John Sobieski, the peerless Polish prince. These men are first-class in every respect and will spend August in this State before leaving for other jurisdictions.

Places needing tent revivals should correspond with Chas. Watts at the above address and call for the Demaree team.

The mails are being flooded nowadays with a pamphlet full of whiskey lies and the basest slanders on Iowa and Kansas. The pamphlet is called "Prosperity and How to Obtain it." According to the business philosophy advanced in this liquor document, prepared in Kansas by representatives of the Missouri breweries and law-defying rebels, the only way to insure commercial prosperity is to debauch and drunkardize the masses. This vile emanation is being circulated among Nebraska voters by the "State Bankers' and Business Men's Association," an organization that has already become a stench in the nostrils of decent tradesmen and merchants.

Ex-Chief Justice O. P. Mason, has recently expressed himself as being very hopeful that the Prohibitory Amendment will carry. The judge gives an excellent plan of campaign. He advises all friends of the Amendment to make sure that every school district is visited by county workers and frequent meetings held. Make September and October revival months and leave no neighborhood without a revival. Rouse the people to a shouting point just the day before election and go into the battle on the morning of November 4, determined that the shout of victory at the close of the day shall echo around the world. Begin at once collecting the names and addresses of reliable and active workers in every voting precinct. These names will be worth ten times their weight in gold the last three weeks of the canvass.

TALKING TAXATION.

Among all the glaring falsehoods put out and kept in circulation by the high-toned saloon preparators, nothing is more wickedly mean than their hypocritical whine about how prohibition increases taxes. This Bureau now proposes to give the actual facts in the case, comparing these three states, close and familiar, and very similar in their methods of government so far as ordinary affairs are concerned.

THREE STATES COMPARED.

The rate of taxation on $100 for State purposes in Nebraska, Kansas and Iowa for ten years (1880 to 1889 inclusive) was as follows:

NEBRASKA	KANSAS	IOWA
1880 . . . . .394	.55	.25
1881 . . . . .615	.58	.20
1882 . . . . .97	.50	.20
1883 . . . . .781	.45	.25
1884 . . . . .769	.45	.25
1885 . . . . .772	.44	.25
1886 . . . . .762	.41	.25
1887 . . . . .802	.41	.25
1888 . . . . .75	.41	.25
1889 . . . . .633	.42	.25

This little table alone answers the slanders of the professional pleaders for a civilization based on the beer-keg as a corner stone.

MARRIED.

At residence of the bride, July 23, Alexander Carmichael and Catharine Snyder, Rev. Joel S. Kelsey, officiating. Mr. J. Albert Wells leaves about the 1st of August for the New York market, to select his fall and winter goods. Being early on the market, he expects to secure choice articles and rare values.

Mrs. S. A. Prescott left, Thursday of last week, for New York City, where she will be absent about two months taking instructions under an expert trimmer. Upon her return she will bring a large and complete line of fall millinery and notions.

J. Byron Jennings and family were east-bound passengers, Tuesday evening. Mr. Jennings will attend the republican state convention at Lincoln, this week, and afterwards, with his family, visit Chicago, St. Louis and other points of interest east of the "Muddy."

Mrs. Martindale, milliner of the J. Albert Wells establishment, leaves, Sunday, for New York, where she will spend about three weeks in the famed and picturesque Catskills, besides selecting a large and fine stock of millinery goods and novelties for the fall and winter trade.

Charlie Northrup was given a happy surprise, Tuesday evening, when about twenty playmates gathered at the residence of C. H. Boyle, the occasion being Master Charles' 12th birthday. Refreshments were served the young people and with games, romp, etc., they had a happy time, indeed.

Mr. E. B. Bowen was called east, Sunday, by a telegram, to take the eastern territory of a sick traveling man for the Boston shoe firm that Mr. Bowen makes this western country for. This cuts short the summer vacation that Mr. Bowen was certainly enjoying with all the zest of his active nature.

W. S. Moran came in, Monday morning, from his hunting-fishing trip to the mountains. As to the Squire's trophies of the chase, deponent saith not; but we will lay a puter dollar that his stock of anecdotes cannot be equaled in the commonwealth—barring Lambertson of Lincoln, and of bulldozer fame.

A. E. Powers, formerly publisher of the Stockville Faber, made a welcome, pleasant visit to THE TRIBUNE sanctum, Monday afternoon. Mr. Powers has quit the newspaper business, and is at present general state agent for Iowa and Nebraska of the Chicago Investment and Loan Association. His headquarters are at Muscatine, Iowa.

Mrs. F. L. Brown and the family departed, Tuesday evening, for Minnesota, to remain until the end of the heated term. Mr. Brown accompanied them as far as Crete, where he is now engaged in listing the mortgaged indebtedness of Saline county. Mr. Brown expects to have about two months more work in that line, in various counties, after which he will join his family in Minnesota and enjoy a short vacation before returning to McCook.
