The First Step.

Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning, you are taking the first step into nervous prostration. You need a nerve tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great nerve tonic and alternative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the liver and kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50 cents at A. McMillan's drug store. 16-41s.

BANKVILLE BUDGET.

D. B. Barnes is back again at his homestead. James Hill is about to return from Hill City, Dakota.
A cold wave has struck us here but not cold enough for frost.
Quite a number of the homesteaders are proving up, this month.
W. H. Benjamin has put in about forty acres of rye and ten acres of fall wheat. That looks like staying.
S. M. Parks, John Raish and W. C. Holdridge are about to pull their freight for a better country for a while if not longer. OBSERVER.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time or money refunded. Trial bottles free at A. McMillan's Drug Store. 16-41s.

How Does He Know?

R—Take the hair of a Hindoo.
The nose of a Greek.
The mouth of the English.
The complexion of a German.
The height of a Norwegian.
The feet of a Chinese woman.
The teeth of an African.
The arm of a Belgian.
The leg of an Italian girl.
The eye of a Spaniard.
The grace of a French woman.
And you will have an American beauty. —Max O'Reil.

If when in town, you look around,
And see its good condition,
Just mark it down, that its a town,
That carries prohibition.
