

The McCook Tribune.

By F. M. KIMMELL.

AH, there, Douglas county. Mind your eyes.

OPEN investigation will injure no man or party.

Put a nickel in the slot and get any colored political prophecy you want.

REPUBLICAN artillery echoes all along the line, and will continue pouring shot into the camp of the enemy till the polls close.

If McKeighan proved unfaithful in a little county office, what confidence could be reposed in him in the more important one of congressman?

At Indianola, Nebraska, a large number of republican alliance men have withdrawn from their meetings, owing to the democratic members being too active for Boyd and McKeighan.—Kearney Enterprise-Journal.

WHEN we send circulars and pamphlets back east advertising our cities and towns, we never publish how many saloons we have. There are no fine cuts showing the attractive saloons in our cities. Why not if they help business?

J. C. ALLEN of McCook, candidate for secretary of state, was at the Plattsmouth meeting last night. Mr. Allen is one of the active young men on the republican ticket who will be warmly supported by the business men of the state. Nearly every travelling man in Nebraska is working for Mr. Allen. He will carry nearly the solid vote of his home county.—Lincoln Journal, 28th.

OLD MAN POWERS is gone. His childish notions about the government shutting off its sources of revenue and emptying its treasury of the surplus and then loaning the farmers of America $2,500 each on their farms at 1 per cent per annum, is so silly, so weak, that the poor old man is being laughed out of the campaign by the ten-year-old school boys.—Sutton Register.

PROF. A. K. GOUDY of Red Cloud, the Republican nominee for state superintendent, has spent nearly twenty years in active, faithful and efficient school work in Nebraska, in various capacities, and his eminent fitness for the high office is acknowledged by all. He has a wide acquaintance in Nebraska, especially among the educators of the state, and his popularity will place his majority among the highest on the state ticket.

A COMMITTEE of four citizens of Hayes county, representing different political interest have made an exhaustive investigation of candidate McKeighan's record in Webster county, and found the charges made against him fully sustained. But Mr. McKeighan is not running on his personal record. He claims to embody a great principle and will continue to feed the voters of the Second district on visionary promises.—Bee.

THE name of L. D. Richards is a tower of strength to the ticket. He is a man against whose private character or public record, either in social or business life, is above reproach. Men can vote for Mr. Richards and know that their trust never will be betrayed. Of the other candidates for governor we do not care, at this time, to speak disparagingly, but that Mr. Powers is as unreliable as the wind, is without question, as those who were disappointed in his non-appearance on Wednesday will bear testimony.—Fremont Flail.

REV. E. J. RANDALL of Red Cloud answers some questions concerning candidate McKeighan's reputation at home in this way:

- (1) As a business man—unreliable.
- (2) As a county official—corrupt.
- (3) As a politician—primarily, democratic; practically, anything "to get there."
- (4) Morally—untrustworthy, infidel.

Now, remember, I only consent to thus speak of this poor, misguided, dissipated wreck of real manhood because:

First—He has thrown himself on the public asking their suffrage and challenging investigation.
Second—He takes it upon himself to refer gentlemen to me.

THE Ogden Commercial denies that there will be any wholesale emigration of Mormons to Mexico. "Some of the Utah Mormons have gone, and others are going," it says, "because the advancing progress is too much for them, but a great many of those people have caught the spirit of progress, are joining the ranks of the progressive men of the territory and are helping to develop the material interests of the country without regard to religious preference. As far as progress and development and civilization are concerned these Mormons have separated themselves from the old-time church beliefs, and as time goes on their number will largely increase."

UNDER President Cleveland the cost of collecting the revenues was 3.36 per cent, and under President Harrison thus far during his administration it has been 2.9.

CONGRESS has adjourned.

SELLING OUT.

The - Cash - Bargain - House

IS GOING OUT OF BUSINESS ENTIRELY.

The prices we are selling at will be called SENSATIONAL, and our methods ditto, by some, simply because they would be impossible to them. With CAPITAL to swing, opportunity to sell, and knowledge and GRIT to BUY, we bought for less money, we sold cheaper and handled more goods than any other concern in McCook. In closing out we shower upon you bargain after bargain, without thinking of what each may be worth, until the very air reeks with dry goods bargains. Now is the time to buy—to borrow for to buy, for with the ending of THE CASH BARGAIN HOUSE comes the ending of the reason why.
