HOW THEY BEG.

Special to THE McCOOK TRIBUNE.
LINCOLN, NEB., Oct. 21.—William A. Paxton has sent out from headquarters of the rotten concern in Omaha known as the "State Bankers and Business Men's Association" an appeal that is really piteous in its abject mendacity. Mr. Paxton admits that the liquor men have made a canvass of the state and that "the Amendment can only be defeated by an earnest, united and persistent effort, intelligently directed, and backed by the names and money of the business men of the state, and of those living outside who have material interest, real or personal, therein."

Mr. Paxton then goes on in his letter to generously announce that the outfit which he represents, with Rosewater as the chairman of its executive committee, has taken liberty to beg of the party addressed $50, "as a donation to assist this committee in its efforts to avert the approaching calamity," etc. In addition to this agonizing cry for boodle, certain bankers of Omaha, whose banks are made depositories for saloon, distillery and gambling funds, are going from one business firm to another and making their piratical levies of from $10 to $50 to put into the great boodle fund of these corrupt agents of the Liquor Crime.

BANKERS OUTSIDE OF OMAHA.
Our readers will remember that some time ago L. C. Humphrey, cashier of the Nebraska Savings & Commercial Bank of Lincoln, wrote to the bankers of the state to learn their position on the prohibition issue. The results of this canvass have not heretofore appeared in these columns.

October 10th, the following letter was sent to many bankers throughout the state:
LINCOLN, NEB., Oct. 2, 1890.
DEAR SIR:—In your answer to my letter requesting the poll of your bank on the prohibition issue you used the language given below. I believe that good will result from the publication of a letter made up of the many short communications I have received, but as these communications were sent me in confidence, I do not feel at liberty to use them without your consent. Will you please advise me by early mail whether I may publish this in such an article, in connection with your name?
Yours for the Amendment,
L. C. HUMPHREY.

As a result of this letter the following comments are published by the consent of the persons who wrote them. Many more could be given, but these samples will suffice.

Fullerton—We are with you emphatically, with a big "E."
F. M. LEGRANGE,
Cashier Citizens Bank.

Red Cloud—We are solid for the Amendment.
L. P. ALBRIGHT,
Cashier Red Cloud National Bank.

Arapahoe—Give us Prohibition.
W. J. GREGORY,
Cashier First National Bank.

Creighton—I agree with you in what you say in your letter of Aug. 10.
ROBERT M. PEYTON,
State Bank of Creighton.

Beaver City—We take no stock in Rosewater, Roggen and Rum.
G. H. JONES,
Cashier Commercial Banking Co.

Filley—Am glad of an opportunity to show our standing on the Amendment. I am for it.
G. E. MOORE,
Cashier Bank of Filley.

Imperial—All for the Amendment, from stockholders of Bank of Imperial.
F. THURNESSON, Cashier.

Reynolds—All connected with this bank will vote to squelch the blasted whiskey crime and don't you forget it.
JOE SAUNDERS,
Pres't Bank of Reynolds.

Edgar—The drink tariff and saloon is the enemy of every legitimate business.
E. H. HOWARD,
Cashier State Bank of Edgar.

Alliance—We have no use for the saloon. We consider it a disgrace to American intelligence and civilization.
W. H. AXTELL,
Cashier Box Butte Banking Co.

Anselby—This county, in my opinion, will give a majority for the Amendment.
PETER FOWLER,
Cashier Bank of Anselby.

Central City—We are for the Amendment first, last and all the time.
S. B. STERNETT,
Cashier Platte Valley Bank.

Decatur—We endorse the sentiments of your letter to a fraction. The position taken by the Business Men and Bankers' Association is preposterous and without foundation in truth.
E. D. CANFIELD,
Cashier Bank of Decatur.

Elgin—We are solid for the Amendment.
GEO. N. SEYMOUR,
Cashier Elgin State Bank.

Raymond—I think nearly every business man here will vote for the Amendment.
B. E. REGAN, Pres. Raymond.

Kearney—Yours of Aug. 10th received. Nearly all the officers and stockholders of this bank are in favor of the Prohibitory Amendment. We believe that deposits in the bank will increase in proportion as the deposits in the saloon decrease.
JOHN BAND,
Cashier Commercial & Savings Bank.

North Bend—I can only answer for myself and clerk, who are for the Amendment, other officers are not residents.
C. CUSACK,
Cashier First National Bank.

Loomis—We are solid for the Amendment.
F. W. KIPPLINGER,
Cashier Loomis State Bank.

Odell—No one in this bank against the Amendment and we will not have any such officers or employees.
F. R. JOY,
Pres. Bank of Odell.

Clay Centre—Myself and assistant cashier are all who are within reach to obtain an expression of views. We heartily concur in what you say in your circular.
HORACE N. JONES,
Cashier State Commercial Bank.

Tobias—If the saloon will improve the morals of our country we are for it. If not, we are against it. We are not on the fence, but for good always. We cannot afford to sell our manhood to saloons for boodle.
STANLEY LARSON,
Cashier People's Bank.

Rising City—This bank is solid for the Amendment.
W. A. NADWIN,
Cashier Commercial Bank.

Aurora—I endorse every word you say in your circular letter.
J. F. HOUSEMAN,
Cashier First National Bank.

Fairfield—You can count the entire force of this bank for the Amendment.
Ira Titus,
Cashier First National Bank.

Utica—All for the Prohibitory Amendment, except one.
F. J. BRYANT,
Cashier Utica Bank.

Genoa—Our bank stands solid for the Amendment, president, vice president, cashier, assistant cashier and three stockholders, all for the Amendment.
S. H. ANDERSON,
Pres. Genoa State Bank.

MORE CENSUS FRAUDS.

Investigation into the census returns of Lincoln show that outrageous fraud has been perpetrated here. The first ward of Lincoln was reported by the unscrupulous enumerators under Tom Cook as containing a population of 8,879. Careful estimates made by special enumerators who have gone over the ward, block by block, show an actual population of only 2,979. Several other wards are probably padded in the same outrageous way. What the friends of the liquor traffic would not stoop to the Devil himself would blush to undertake.

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.

Beware of Imitations. THERE IS BUT ONE SAPOLIO. ENOCH MORCAN'S SONS CO., NEW YORK.
