

The McCook Tribune.

By F. M. KIMMELL.

BLAINE and reciprocity is the slogan.

NEBRASKA has eighty-nine organized counties and one un-organized county—Arthur.

AN Indian war appears imminent in the northwest. Troops are on the ground in force.

MCKEIGHAN'S BEHIND cow is a hard looker, but Lord, what a milker!—Edgar Times.

THE McKinley tariff bill was sentenced and hung by the people and they will now proceed to give it a trial.

It doth now appear that Mr. Omaha, of Boyd, can not read his title clear to the coveted gubernatorial chair.

"In defeat," says the Tecumseh Chieftain, "L. D. Richards is a greater and more imposing figure than Jas. E. Boyd in victory."

THE players' league has finally gone the way of the grass and the big cities will not try to support two base ball teams, next year.

THERE is a probability that the entire state ticket elect will be contested by the independent party.

THE Gosper County Citizen takes consolation in the fact that the republican state ticket received a larger vote than either the democratic or independent tickets.

T. V. POWDERLY was re-elected Grand Master Workman of the Knights of Labor at the Denver meeting, this week. At his request his salary was reduced from 5 to 3 thousand dollars.

THERE is a remarkable unanimity of expression among the country newspapers touching the thinness at Omaha of the crust separating us from Pluto's dread abode. There is also some solicitude lest Herr Rosewater should drop into an incipient fissure.

It may be true, as Speaker Reed maintains, that the Republicans would not have been defeated this year if the new tariff law had been passed six months earlier; and on the other hand there is some reason, THE TRIBUNE believes, that a more prolonged discussion of certain features of that measure would have increased the number of worms in our lettuce.

ROSEWATER'S fight is not over. It looks as though a prohibitory law might be passed. Omaha played the traitor to Richards, and republican senators and representatives have a sharp knife with which to stab the traitors. Powers was sold in Omaha, and the alliance members are ready to give Omaha an object lesson. Pass the law.—York Republican.

THERE have been only four lawyers elected to the legislature in Kansas, this year, and one of them—Judge Reeder of Ellis county—is likely to be ousted on a contest, as he has a majority of only two votes, and the Alliance claims that he secured his election by corrupt means. It will be necessary to draft in a number of farmers to fill out the judiciary committee in the House.

THE greatest spectacle Nebraska has ever witnessed is that of Old Democracy, bald-headed, grizzled, toothless, tobacco-stained, and highly perfumed with the ancient odors of rock and rye, "shying up" to that gentle, blushing, rustic damsel, Mis Sal Liance. The leery old reprobate really thinks he is making a mash, but Sal knows better, and the public is laughing in its sleeve at so silly an affectation of holy affection.—Hub.

In one part of his two column card explaining why he did not support the republican state ticket the editor of the Bee says that "the anti-monopoly platform was stigmatized as a delusion and a snare." In almost the next paragraph he boasts: "It is true that I framed the greater part of the platform." If he framed it nobody could be blamed for considering it a delusion and a snare. It is time for Colonel Rosewater to change the subject. He is giving himself away.—State Journal.

THOSE who believe most firmly in the agricultural future of the counties in the western part of the state that are now suffering from the dry season are the people who reside in that very district. They do not want to leave because they are satisfied that if the winter can be weathered through there will be no trouble about good crops and plenty of means in the future. This is the true Nebraska spirit. The drought will never be able to conquer a region filled up with that kind of people.—Lincoln Journal.

OFFICIOUS correspondents are already sending out over the country stories about the terrible "distress of the farmers of Nebraska." That business must be stopped. There is distress on the frontier, but Nebraska is rich enough and liberal enough to relieve all suffering without a general call for aid. In fact, begging in any other state for our people will not be permitted under any circumstances. There are seventy-five counties that are able to take care of themselves and the unfortunate communities on the extreme frontier, and they will do it promptly. Now let that settle it.—Lincoln Journal.

"I," said G. L. Laws, "did not seek a renomination. I am not much of a politician, but I can see some of the plainest signs of the times. Before I am buried I want time to take my boots off."—Lincoln Herald.

McKinley vs McKeighan

Having recently returned from business visits to Denver and Lincoln, at the request of my many patrons I have decided to remain in McCook until

When I shall go to Lincoln to accept a position in a leading carpet house. In the meantime I am better prepared than ever before to do

DRYSDALE —THE— TAILOR,

From New York City, has the most complete stock of Fall and Winter Goods, for men's wear, between Lincoln and Denver. His store is just replete with the latest novelties from New York and Chicago, and as he buys strictly for cash he can afford to give you first class clothing at very reasonable prices. He has guaranteed every garment he has made up in McCook for nearly six years and has never had a misfit in that time. Call and see him. One door north of the Commercial House.

RAIN! RAIN! RAIN!

If there's one set of men who appreciate a good waterproof coat it is the farmer. He knows that a "Fish Brand Slicker" costs him less per year than any garment made. Did you know it rains or snows one day in three the whole year through? A "Fish Brand Slicker" makes every day a pleasant day to its lucky owner. Go anywhere with it in rain, hail, sleet, snow, or blow, it is wind and water proof. Costs less than rubber, and lasts ten times as long. Rubber is good for show days, but will rip in a week. If you want a coat for hard wear and hard weather, get the "Fish Brand Slicker." Every good thing has its imitation, so has the "Fish Brand Slicker." Look out. Beware of worthless imitations, every garment stamped with "Fish Brand" Trade Mark. Don't accept any inferior coat when you can have the "Fish Brand Slicker" delivered without extra cost. Particulars and illustrated catalogue free.
