WANT IRRIGATION.

Western Nebraska Alive To Its Importance.

SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION

Participated in by Delegates From Ten Counties.

No one could look into the faces of the two hundred citizens of Western Nebraska present at the irrigation convention which opened in this city, Wednesday afternoon, without being impressed profoundly with the manifest fact that the people of this section of state are wide awake to the importance of irrigation, and alive to the blessings which will follow in the wake of irrigation when it shall be an accomplished fact. Not deterred by the severe storm which prevailed, there were delegates present from at least ten counties in this part of the state, all filled with an earnest yearning for irrigation and ready to do their utmost to solve the momentous question, "How can it be brought about?"

At the hour appointed the delegates assembled in the opera house, and after listening to a brief but cordial address of welcome by Judge J. E. Cochran, they proceeded to business by calling Dr. J. E. Hathorn of Bartley to the chair, and F. M. Kimmell of McCook to the secretary's desk. The call of counties showed the following representatives to be present:

DUNDY COUNTY—W. B. Roby, C. F. Thackrey, W. H. Myers, Henry Ough, L. Morse, L. G. Ruggles, L. M. Palmer.

CHASE COUNTY—H. R. Edwards.

HITCHCOCK COUNTY—C. J. Miller, T. D. Morgan, F. A. Harman, C. W. Shurtleff, J. D. Stockton, A. H. Baller, J. J. Finn, C. H. Beck, J. C. Benedict, J. R. McFaul, S. P. Kirkbride, O. W. DeWald.

RED WILLOW COUNTY—H. H. Pickens, A. M. Barton, E. S. Hill, Rice Roe, Ora Clark, Samuel Ellis, C. W. Hodgkin, J. E. Hathorn, R. S. Hileman, C. H. Meeker, Wm. Weygint, Samuel Young, Stephen Bolles, John Real, C. W. Beck.

FRONTIER COUNTY—B. A. Harlan.

FURNAS COUNTY—W. H. Faling, W. E. Babcock, W. B. Whitney, J. P. Lindsay.

HARLAN COUNTY—W. F. Dale, J. G. Struve, Daniel Sullivan, L. E. Allen, J. W. Coulter, J. A. Gibson, J. A. Piper.

HAYES COUNTY—J. C. O'Brien, S. M. Kinsinger, S. C. Leap, J. N. Koontz.

WEBSTER COUNTY—D. J. Myer, U. G. Knight.

PHILLIPS COUNTY, COLO.—C. H. Harman.

On motion the following committee on resolutions and memorials was appointed:

L. Morse, Dundy county.

C. H. Peck, Hitchcock county.

C. H. Meeker, Red Willow county.

J. A. Piper, Harlan county.

W. H. Faling, Furnas county.

D. J. Myers, Webster county.

W. E. Snythe, Chase county.

B. A. Harlan, Frontier county.

J. C. O'Brien, Hayes county.

C. H. Harman, Phillips county, Colo.

Then followed interesting and instructive addresses from Gov. Furnas of Brownville, Prof. Hicks of Lincoln, Mr. Smythe of the Bee, Buffalo Jones of Garden City, Mr. Babcock of Garden City, Senator Koontz and Representative Ruggles.

On motion J. E. Cochran, H. R. Edwards, J. P. Lindsay, J. N. Koontz and J. S. LeHew were constituted a committee on laws. Adjourned till 8 o'clock, P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The report of committee on resolutions and memorials was read and accepted as follows:

WHEREAS, a comprehensive system of irrigation is demanded for Nebraska, especially the western half, and

WHEREAS, the present laws are not adequate to deal with the subject, and to secure equal justice to all parties concerned, therefore be it

RESOLVED, by this convention, representing the counties of Dundy, Perkins, Red Willow, Hitchcock, Furnas, Gosper, Hayes, Webster, Chase and Frontier, do hereby memorialize the legislature to enact irrigation laws based on those of Colorado and Wyoming and providing for the employment of an expert state engineer, and the division of the state into water districts.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that we do hereby request the legislature to memorialize congress to enact a law donating all government land to the several states to be used for irrigation and storage purposes.

William Weygint addressed the convention for a few minutes touching the subject of irrigation with considerable warmth.

After a partial reading of the irrigation laws of Wyoming, the same were on motion referred to the committee on laws.

On motion the committee on laws was empowered to appoint a committee of three to co-operate with a committee of three to be appointed at the Sidney irrigation convention in securing proper irrigation legislation at the present session of the state assembly.

At this juncture there was exhibited an imperative desire to taste the good things spread so lavishly by the ladies of the relief corps that an adjournment was taken until Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, and the delegates and many citizens repaired to the Meeker hall, there to enjoy the tempting viands prepared in honor of the delegates to the convention.

THURSDAY MORNING.

In the absence of the chairman, the secretary called the convention to order in the city hall, and Dr. Green was called to preside.

The law committee then reported the selection of J. S. LeHew, C. H. Meeker and Simon Bickel to constitute the committee of three hereinbefore provided for.

The following resolution was introduced by S. A. Osborne and adopted:

WHEREAS, the question of the development of the irrigation resources and capabilities of western Nebraska is one of vital importance to that section and through it to the state at large, and

WHEREAS, the magnitude of the work, the necessary expense to be incurred, and the benefits to the state at large, demand that the assistance of the state be pledged thereto, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that it is the sense of this convention assembled that a state appropriation of $200,000 should be made for this purpose and that we earnestly request the present legislature now in session to pass a law embodying the spirit of this resolution, and making an appropriation therefor, and be it further

RESOLVED, that we request and earnestly urge upon the legislature the duty of memorializing congress to make an appropriation of one million dollars for the same purpose.

Mr. Jones introduced the resolution following which was adopted:

RESOLVED FURTHER, that congress should forever cease making appropriations to control the overflow in the south, and should apply a like sum to divert the surplus water from the Mississippi river and its tributaries, and convey the same through the states of Dakota, Colorado, Nebraska and Kansas, where it is so much needed for irrigation and other useful purposes.

Until the noon adjournment the time was then occupied in addresses and discussions, participated in by C. H. Meeker, S. A. Osborne of Denver, W. E. Robinson of San Diego, J. E. Cochran, C. J. Jones and others, mainly touching the law of the case.

AFTERNOON MEETING.

Meeting called to order by Wm. Weygint at appointed hour. By agreement the name of L. Morse was substituted for that of Simon Bickel in the committee of three. Report of committee on laws was then adopted and committee discharged.

Then ensued a general discussion in which many delegates participated, expressions being received from quite a number of farmer delegates present.

It was moved that the committee of three report at Lincoln, Feb. 11th, at a mass convention to be held there on that date commencing at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of said day.

It was determined that the memorials adopted be printed in form for circulation for signatures of petitioners to the legislature.

It was carried that two delegates from each precinct be selected from the several counties to attend the mass convention at Lincoln on Feb. 11th. Justices of the Peace in such precincts having power to appoint delegates in cases where no elections are had.

The following standing committee was elected: J. E. Cochran, chairman, F. M. Kimmell, secretary; C. H. Meeker.

At his request, it was moved that Senator Koontz be provided with a copy of the resolutions and memorials as embodying the expressed wish of the convention.

On motion the thanks of the convention were extended to the W. R. C. and to the citizens of McCook for courtesies extended.

Adjourned subject to call of standing committee.

A Sensible Suggestion.

Hastings, Neb., Jan. 24.—To the editor of the Bee: The following taken from the report of the committee appointed to draft a bill for the relief of western sufferers, calls forth the subsequent remarks to which I trust you will give your careful attention:

"The committee favored an appropriation of not less than $100,000, goods to be purchased of Lincoln and Omaha wholesale houses."

Now, while we see the legislature intends doing a noble work in assisting the western sufferers—who are sufferers indeed—they are overlooking one class of people who need aid as much as any one else, namely, the merchants. Merchants as a rule bought largely of winter goods in anticipation of a severe winter. As we have been agreeably disappointed by the weather being unseasonably fine the merchants have on hand a full stock of winter goods, which they can ill afford to carry and which they would gladly sell at cost to obtain money to meet their bills. Merchants are failing almost daily in the drought-stricken country, being unable to meet their bills on account of having to carry these goods. Now I would suggest that the money be sent to good men who are on the grounds and can place it where it is needed the most, buying the goods from the home merchants instead of Lincoln and Omaha jobbers. These jobbers would get their share, just the same, by receiving the money from the merchants on past due bills and thus have a tendency to strengthen the credit of western merchants with the jobbing houses they are dealing with. It is well known that a portion of the donations already sent out have fallen into hands for which they were never intended. One case in particular was brought to my notice this week, where a certain man who is holding about three hundred bushels of wheat for higher prices got the lion's share of a lot that had been received at the town near which he resides. Let the legislature make this money do all the good it can by putting it in the largest circulation possible, thus benefiting not only the farmers but all classes of people and give these merchants who have carried these same farmers year after year a chance to weather through what is bound to be a dull season. Eiseman & Co. of Council Bluffs attribute their failure to the warm winter and inability to sell heavy goods which had to be carried in stock. The western merchants are in the same fix in regard to stocks of heavy goods. Is the result to be the same? The legislature can assist them by following the foregoing suggestion. Will they do it? This is no idle talk. I have traveled in this country several years and know whereof I speak. A TRAVELING MAN.

Annual Meeting of Red Willow Co. Agricultural Society.

The Annual Meeting of the Red Willow County Agricultural Society will be held at the Court house in Indianola on Saturday, January 31, 1891, at one o'clock P. M. At which time the officers, including a full board of directors will be elected, the Fair located for 1891 and other necessary business transacted. A full attendance is desired and expected. Ladies are especially invited. Let us commence at once to make the Fair of 1891 a success; elect good men to fill the offices and stand by them. C. W. BECK, Sec. Bartley, Neb., Jan. 12th, 1891.

Lindsay Appointed.

As was anticipated by the Democrat, some weeks ago, ex-senator J. P. Lindsay of Beaver City has been appointed to succeed S. P. Hart as register of the McCook land office. Mr. Lindsay is a lawyer of considerable note in the Valley, and will, in our opinion, make a good land official.—Hastings Democrat.

COMMERCIAL SCHOOL NOTES.

The attendance is increasing.

John Colling is now in the banking business, which is the final struggle in book-keeping.

Those who haven't time to attend school are very welcome to come up and give us a call.

Mr. Jack Bullard has resumed his work in shorthand after being absent a few days on business.

If Mr. Norval and Mr. Collins could see into the commercial law, alike, everything would be as quiet as though there wasn't a lawyer within ten miles of us.

Mr. L. H. Gray, formerly a shorthand student, is now in Denver, but is still partaking of our "shortness" by mail and expresses himself as getting along nicely.

Miss Millie Hurlbut has finished book keeping and is now learning shorthand. Miss Hurlbut has a remunerative position awaiting her when she becomes thoroughly proficient. Good!

Hard times has no weight on the demand for the graduates from the college. John Allam had not quite finished when he was called from our midst to be useful and do work for the Bank of McCook. Mr. A. is worthy of any position which may be intrusted to his care.

Bishop Graves At Meeker's Hall.

On Sunday, February 1st, the Episcopal Bishop of this diocese will conduct services at Meeker's Hall. Dr. Graves was appointed to Nebraska from Minneapolis, Minn., where for many years he had been rector of one of the leading churches. His reputation as a public speaker and an earnest, wise worker for good had preceded him, and since his consecration as bishop of western Nebraska he has shown marked executive ability as well as eloquence of the quiet convincing order in the work of the church which has been accomplished and much begun under his administration. It is to be hoped that he will be greeted by a good congregation on the occasion of his visit to McCook, and all persons attending may be assured that they will be amply rewarded by the service and the sermon.

"Under the Hat."

It is mentioned under the hat, that the deputy secretary of state will come from Hastings.—Hastings Democrat.

The handsome blond of the Hastings Democrat—Charlie Wahlquist—a clever fellow of large observation, has been making a personal investigation of the delicate matter, and gives to the world inside information concerning the very latest thing in garters: "The latest thing in garters, and by the by, garters are a question of great importance nowadays, has for a clasp a barred gate which fastens just in the centre; enamelled on this is a small dog, and on the other side is the funny inscription, "No trespassing allowed."

THE TRIBUNE wants the people of this section to do some hard thinking and tall figuring on the South Side irrigation ditch project. It is perhaps the most practical scheme in view. More land can be covered for the outlay of money and labor than by any proposed canal of equal length. No where can better results be hoped for or accomplished. If there is any health in us the South Side ditch should be a go.

The proposition made by T. J. Bromfield, the Grand Island beet sugar man, at a small gathering of citizens, last Saturday, did not commend itself to the favorable consideration of most of those present; and perhaps its acceptance was not possible under our present laws.
