FROM THE COUNTY SEAT.
Epitome of the Week's Events at the Seat of County Affairs.

Joe Goggles, the Irrepressible, Special News and Society Reporter.

Hon. J. W. Dolan has returned from Denver.

James Winter left for Iowa on the 5th inst.

The other mine is now running on full time.

Dick Brower is sorely afflicted with rheumatism.

Hay selling in Indianola for $12 to $14 per ton.

Charley Hotze has engaged in the dairy business.

Sam Stockton will move to southeastern Kansas.

W. S. Phillips has sold his farm on the Beaver creek.

Our new P. M. is taking lessons in how to sling mail.

There is some prospect of the Courier changing hands.

C. S. Quick took an overland trip to Stockville, Wednesday.

George Short has purchased the livery stable of his brother Will.

Dr. Cowles, of Cambridge, was in this city the second class on the 4th inst.

James Mather has moved his abstract office into Dolan's bank building, up stairs.

Irving Mott, a resident of Frontier county, was in this city the forepart of the week.

Mr. Woods, one of the substantial farmers near Danbury, was in the city, Wednesday.

There are several small sized boomlets flying around this yellow ocher hub the past ten days.

E. Peterman will turn the postoffice over to his successor, Mr. W. H. Smith, on the first day of March.

The agricultural society in said meeting, Saturday, is said to have been the largest ever held in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Powell have gone to Indiana on a visit. They expect to be gone eight or ten weeks.

We understand that so soon as the protracted meeting at the M. E. church is closed the Baptist people will begin one.

S. M. Rider has returned from the Black Hill's country, where he has been working on the railroad for the past five months.

R. M. Snavelly has returned from Denver. Col. says he will be content to practice law in Red Willow county for several years to come.

The information comes to us, from the east by the way of the west, that a large sized breach of promise suit is hovering over Red Willow county.

J. T. Webber, a money lender of this place, has just returned from Lincoln where he has been for a few days feeling the usury pulse of the legislature.

The gentlemen from this city, who attended the irrigation convention, say they were very cordially received in the metropolis of southwestern Nebraska.

T. P. Crumbaugh, who is now in Denver, is authority for the statement that there are over seven hundred Red Willow county people sojourning in the gate city of the mountains.

Now that the county fair has been located at Indianola for ten years we understand the grounds are to be put in first class shape and more commodious buildings are to be erected.

E. S. Hill, who attended the irrigation convention at McCook, is very much enthused with the prospect of making this section of Nebraska the finest farming country in the world.

A friend from the northwest reports that arrangements are being made for Judge John F. Black and Representative Modi to meet in a hundred and sixty acre ring, upon the latter's return from Lincoln.

The proposition of those wise and patriotic gentlemen, at Lincoln, to appropriate one hundred thousand dollars to buy seed wheat, at $1 per bushel, for twenty thousand needy farmers is a stunner. The prospect of raising 3 acres of wheat each must be to these twenty thousand farmers a source of great comfort. Lest there be an over production we suggest the appropriation be cut down so these fellows will not have over three acres of wheat each. Now if our servants will just follow this bill with a stringent usury law and a three year stay law we will not have any more use for the assembling of the legislature for ten years to come.

You will take notice that on the 21st day of January, 1891, J. L. Benjamin and Ida C. Benjamin to the Dakota Mortgage Loan Corporation (now the Globe Investment Company) and duly assigned to the plaintiff herein, upon the east half of the northwest quarter and the south half of the north east quarter of section thirty-one (31), in township two (2) north, of range twenty-nine (29), west of the sixth P. Plaintiff prays for a decree of foreclosure and sale of said premises; that the defendants be foreclosed and barred of all title, lien or other interest in said premises, for deficiency judgment and equitable relief.
