LEBANON DOTS.

Lebanon needs a good blacksmith. Hiram Boyd began sowing wheat on the 19th. John Townley started toward the Missouri river for a load of hay. Mr. Durbin, late section foreman, is contemplating a trip to the mountains. The bloated bond holders of this precinct had a car of coal shipped in here, last week. George Hartman, of the B. & M. bridge force, was rusticated in this burg, this week. Mr. Kiser, a recent addition to our rural population, is busy now-a-days taking home a lately purchased cow. J. P. Kinzie has bought a new riding plow. I think now that corn will sell here, next fall, for ten cents a bushel. We are all busy now engaging men with teams to haul state seed and feed from that town surrounding the ochre hole. Quite a number of our boys went to Danbury, the evening of the 18th, to assist a green-horn to ride the Masonic goat in the 3d degree. The school in district No. 6 was to have given an entertainment the evening of the 18th, but had to postpone it on account of sickness. J. W. Hupp says that a venerable friend of mine was expelled from Lebanon Alliance because he persisted in associating with Wm. Hierssekorn. John Hummel, a Tyrone neighbor of ours, is so well pleased with his experience in herding this winter that he will in all probability continue at it during the coming summer. Are there any empty houses in McCook? We had two applicants this week on the same day for the same farm. The agent here wired the owner at Red Cloud and like a clap of thunder from out a clear sky came the answer "I don't want to rent."

Delos Waterman is in Iowa soliciting seed and feed. Some of his near neighbors made up a purse to pay his expenses. Wm. Pennington is in the eastern end of this state on a like errand. Some of the financial backers are wandering what the harvest will be. Captain Keyes, Post No. 297, mustered in our Nasby at their last meeting, —March 14th. At their next meeting each comrade is to tell all he knows about General Sherman. We expect some interesting talk, because several of the comrades were on the famous march to the sea. JAKE HARMAN.

BARTLEY NOTES.

Joe Stevens, the all-around-political-man, was in Bartley, this week. Prof. Smith was in Indianola last Saturday attending to business. The out-let to Hathorn lake will be thoroughly ventilated before the coming election. Commissioner Hodgkin has been at the county-seat, this week, attending to the distribution of seed and feed to the needy. There will be about eight bushels to the family. One of the noticeable characters in the Thos. Clark-Rufus Moses Snaveley contest, Monday evening, was the excitable reporter of the "roaring gimlet." However, Edgar is a chip off the old block. Recently, while distributing aid at the Dry Creek church, after a somewhat high-handed manner of selecting the best for the intended few, they pronounced the benediction and were dismissed. It has come to the notice of the Bartley correspondent that a certain gossip of Bartley had taken it upon herself to denounce the "Bartley Items" in THE TRIBUNE with a storm of indignation, because of the fact that some truth had leaked into print about certain persons. We will simply remind her that the "castor oil bottle" will soon return from Lincoln. Last fall the firm of Thomas Clark & Co. was pushed by creditors and finally a receiver was appointed, who has been selling the goods at cost. Thos. Clark on the afternoon of the 23d took possession of the store and would not leave the same, whereupon Rufus Moses Snaveley was sent for. Arriving on No. 4 he proceeded in his usual bulldozing tactics until Mr. Clark became enraged and went for his royal highness with a 4x4, but fortunately nobody was seriously hurt. Mr. Clark gave the man with the whiskers just two hours to show his authority for taking the goods, whereupon whiskers returned to Indianola and returned with Sheriff McCool and Constable Crabtree and the required papers, taking possession by a writ of replevin. They will try title to said goods April 30th. T.F. Welborn was in possession of the "Farmers Store" at the time the difficulty took place, but "Tom" seems to have an unknown influence over him in such way that Mr. Welborn dare not say a word except "Uncle Tom." We dare not handle such a delicate matter without gloves.

FROM THE COUNTY SEAT.

Epitome of the Week's Events at the Seat of County Affairs.

Joe Goggles, the Irrepressible, Special News and Society Reporter.

Will Rollings will rent his farm, this season. C. S. Quick was down to Hastings, Saturday. R. M. Snaveley went to Lincoln, on Wednesday night. The spring so far is very favorable for a good wheat crop. The M. E. church choir is undergoing the ordeal of re-organization. The Bartley canal dam across the Republican river is in bad shape. There has been considerable wheat sown in the vicinity of Indianola. The Congregational church people are holding a protracted meeting, this week. Buffalo Jones was interviewing the committee on irrigation, latter part of last week. A car-load of barley was shipped to Indianola for seed by the State Relief Commission. C. R. Russell expects to commence hustling for the McCormick Harvester Co., 1st of April. Tom Sargent is considered by competent judges the most successful farmer in the east end of the county. Some farmers that were in Monday for seed, being unable to get it, threatened to break into the cars. Rev. J. T. Roberts is in Oxford, this week, assisting Rev. B. F. Haywood in a revival meeting in that city. Henry Powell is expected home first of next week. Mrs. Powell will stop in Oskaloosa, Iowa, for a short visit. Sheriff McCool has just returned from Missouri. He is greatly pleased with the country and bought a farm there. On account of the heavy snow the Courier force was unable to get to town, Wednesday, and the office was closed all day. We betray no confidence in saying that Indianolaites do not think there will be a county-seat election for two years. There were two caucuses, Saturday night. One put in nomination S. R. Smith for Mayor, the other B. B. Duckworth. Judge John F. Black and Adam Grass, who are soliciting aid in the eastern part of the state, are expected home in a few days. In traveling over the eastern part of the county, we find that quite a large number of farmers are making arrangements to go west, this spring. The heaviest snow in Red Willow county in the past 12 years commenced falling in Indianola, Monday night, and continued for two days and three nights. The Easter social which was to have been at the residence of C. H. Russell, Friday evening of this week, was postponed on account of the meetings at the Congregational church. THE TRIBUNE'S correspondent at Bartley appears to have a very sharp stick, but as he gives no names we do not know whom he is after. If he is afraid of getting licked, we will loan him our arsenal as we have no use for it at present.

YOUR PARTICULAR ATTENTION IS CALLED TO OUR NEW LINE OF HATS & CAPS, SHIRTS, HOSIERY, NECKWEAR, GLOVES, AND OTHER MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS. It is computed that the North Platte river in June flows more water than the eight principal irrigating rivers of Colorado: 15,000 cubic inches per second! THE traitorous and contemptible act of Representative Purcell of Cheyenne county, which resulted in the defeat of the most important measure before the present legislature,—the irrigation bill—entitles him to the maledictions of every loyal Nebraskan. Fathering a bill up to its final passage, he deliberately stands up in the house and amends an excellent and comprehensive measure until no sensible, honorable man could support it, and it was overwhelmingly defeated, as it should have been. The contemptible spitwork of Purcell and the two slyster lawyers of Ogalalla, who are responsible for this cowardly work, will be ever remembered by the people of Western Nebraska, who had a right to expect a vastly different result. GOOD: BYE! How often this term of parting greets our ears, and pains our hearts; but you can buy at THE TRIBUNE STATIONERY DEPARTMENT the ingredients to keep memory green until you meet again. STATIONERY. GOOD PLACE TO BUY THE TRIBUNE. Legal Notice. In the District Court of Red Willow County, Nebraska. T. J. Bullard, Plaintiff, vs. Larry H. Rooney, Edward Fitzgerald and Edward Kane, Defendants. Larry H. Rooney, Edward Fitzgerald and Edward Kane will take notice that on the 14th day of March, 1891, J. T. Bullard, the plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the District Court of Red Willow county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage on lots one (1) and two (2), in block seven (7) of the original town of McCook, Nebraska, which said mortgage was duly recorded, said mortgage having been given by the said Larry H. Rooney and Edward Fitzgerald to Edward Kane, and by the said Edward Kane assigned to the plaintiff herein, who is now the owner of the same. That said mortgage is security for a certain promissory note bearing even date with said mortgage and for the said sum of $450.00 drawing interest at 10 per cent from February 4th, 1889. That said mortgage is security for a certain promissory note bearing even date with said mortgage and for the said sum of $450.00 drawing interest at 10 per cent from February 4th, 1889, for which sum and interest the plaintiff prays judgment and for a decree that the said defendants be required to pay same, or that said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 4th day of May, 1891. Dated March 27th, 1891. J. T. BULLARD, 44-45 By Hugh W. Cole, his attorney.

TO HENRY SMALL AND M. A. SMALL: You will take notice that on the 18th day of February, 1891, Henry S. Bartholomew, plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the district court of Red Willow county, Nebraska, against you as defendants, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage executed by the defendants upon the following described property, situated in the county of Red Willow, state of Nebraska, to-wit: Twenty feet of the west end of lots fourteen and fifteen in block twenty-six in the town of McCook, to secure the payment of one certain promissory note dated June 11, 1888, for the sum of $500.00 due and payable five years from the date thereof; that there is now due on said note and mortgage, including the premiums paid by the plaintiff for insurance on said premises, the sum of $538.00 with interest at the rate of ten per cent, per annum on $500.00 thereof from the 11th day of December, 1888, and on $38.00 thereof from the 20th day of January, 1891, and praying that said premises may be decreed to be sold to satisfy the amount due thereon, and further that a receiver be appointed to take charge of said premises, to collect and receive the rents and profits thereof, and that the same be applied to the amount found due plaintiff. Some lives are like Horse shoes the more worn the brighter! Busy wives who use SAPOLIO never seem to grow old. Try a cake... A complete wreck of domestic happiness has often resulted from badly washed dishes, from an unclean kitchen, or from trifles which seemed light as air. But by these things a man often judges of his wife's devotion to her family, and charges her with general neglect when he finds her careless in these particulars. Many a home owes a large part of its thrifty neatness and its consequent happiness to SAPOLIO. Grocers often substitute cheaper goods for SAPOLIO, to make a better profit. Send back such articles, and insist on having just what you ordered.
