Mr. BLACKFAN'S REPLY.

Bartley, Neb., March 24th, 1891.
EDITOR McCOOK TRIBUNE—I fully comprehend that it is not the design of newspapers to open their columns to personal brawls, but you will certainly give me the justice of replying to the items of your Bartley correspondent, last week. We will not waste time in taking it in detail but touch the leading features. In regard to that distributing at the church, I am not or was not on any distributing committee. However, I consider that the committee did their work in a similar manner to that adopted at the relief rooms at Indianola, and gave general satisfaction except to a few who were not permitted to gobble the best articles and to some previously supplied at Indianola, which fact had been quietly noted down by the committee. As to the reception of private boxes I can show which of these boxes were for general relief and which boxes were private and had the freight paid by my friends who sent them to me. And further I say it is nobody's business how many private boxes I get or don't get. As to the overcoats, that part of it is too ridiculously thin to notice. Just one of them came in relief supplies sent to the society's receiving agent and was billed to me by a special friend. As to the howling imprecations of the State Journal against the solicitation of aid outside the state that does not amount to so much as the distant bark of a half-grown coyote. Others snarl and insults can be met with fitting rebuttal when I care to give them notice. SAMUEL BLACKFAN.

The Columbian Cyclopaedia.

The Columbian Cyclopaedia is the new name and new form of what has heretofore been known as Aiden's Manifesto Cyclopaedia, and which has won great popularity by its high merit, combined with its amazingly low price. The Columbian Cyclopaedia will comprise 32 volumes, of about 800 pages each (the Manifesto was 40 vols., of 640 pages each), being about equal in size to Appleton's Cyclopaedia, and about 50 per cent. larger than Johnson's. The entire set will contain about 7,000 illustrations; it is very handsomely printed and bound, and, like the Manifesto, is almost fabulously cheap. The entire set being furnished in cloth binding for $25.00, with easy installment terms to those who want them. Of course, subscriptions to the Manifesto will be completed in uniform style with the early volumes delivered.

Whoever is interested in cyclopedias will do well to secure (free) specimen pages of the Columbian, which may be had by addressing the Columbian Publishing Co., 383 Pearl St., New York, or 242 Wabash Ave., Chicago.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y., 38-ly.

NOTES FROM THE NORTH EAST.

Rev. Carmichael gave a splendid sermon last Sunday at Dry Creek church.
Dry Creek Literary closed for the season with a splendid meeting, last Saturday evening.

John Reiter returned to Indianola, Monday, to take charge of the mining department of the other works.
Quite a spiky affray occurred at Bartley, Monday night, in consequence of the seizure of goods at one of the mercantile firms.

C. T. Vedder received the sad news that his step-father, James Inman, is in a very critical condition in consequence of injuries received by falling from a building while at work at Fort Logan, Colo.

The people of Red Willow county may be encouraged to learn of the great interest that is being manifested by the agricultural press and the minded men of Chicago in the matter of seed and feed for the destitute in Nebraska and adjacent states as reported in the Chicago Inter-Ocean of the 15th inst.

Pain Unnecessary in Childbirth.

Pain is no longer necessary in childbirth. Its causes, being understood, are easily overcome. Any woman may now become a mother without suffering any pain whatever,—the labor being made short, easy, and free from danger. Morning sickness, swollen limbs, and all other like evils can be readily controlled, and all female diseases speedily cured. Physicians pronounce it a wonderful discovery. Never known to fail. 20,000 ladies attest its merits. Cut this out; it may save your life. Suffer not a day longer, but send us two 2-cent stamps, and receive in sealed envelope full particulars, testimonials, confidential letter, etc. Address, FRANK THOMAS & Co., Baltimore, Maryland.

A Word in Season.

The barking of a pack of hounds may be music, but the barking of the human family is certainly discord. Stop that cough with Humphreys' Specific No. Seven.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
Indianola, Neb.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time or money refunded. Trial bottles free at A. McMillen's drug store. 44-ts.

Without Foundation.

Bartley, Neb., March 23d, 1891.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE TRIBUNE—Dear Sir: We notice in your last paper under heading of "Bartley Notes" the following: "Lon Carnahan took charge of the public schools on Tuesday. Political matters are assigned as the reason for the change, etc." We wish to state for the benefit of your readers that this assertion, like many other statements of your Bartley correspondent, is without foundation, or shadow of truth. W. V. VICKREY, School T. M. SEXTON, Board. A. WILEY.

The First Step.

Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning, you are taking the first step into nervous prostration. You need a nerve tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great nerve tonic and alternative. Your appetite returns, good digestion is restored, and the liver and kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50 cents at A. McMillen's.

The Great American Chorus.

Sneezing, snuffling and coughing! This is the music all over the land just now. "I've got such an awful cold in my head." Cure it with Ely's Cream Balm or it may end in the toughest form of catarrh. Maybe you have catarrh now. Nothing is more nauseous and dreadful. The remedy masters it as no other ever did. Not a sniff nor a liquid. Pleasant, certain, radical.

A Card.

We wish to thank the friends for all their many kindnesses during the illness and after the death of our mother and brother. They are all sincerely appreciated.
