Strange Revolution in Women's Dress

Will American Ladies Dare Adopt It?
Some predict that the great change in the fashion of the clothes which are to be worn by women this coming season is the most wonderful victory of the nineteenth century--if fashion leaders can be induced to adopt it, and appear just once in public so arrayed. Men will hold their breath in wonder at the marvelous change it makes in lovely woman. "Few of the fair sex can help being beautiful in these glove-fitting costumes," says a writer in a recent number of THE NEW YORK AND PARIS YOUNG LADIES FASHION BAZAR. "This magazine is the only one in Europe or America which makes a specialty of giving those inclined to stoutness an unrivaled appearance of sculptured slenderness," said Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales. Madame Patti has ordered from the Paris house four magnificent costumes, the designs of which appear in the April number of this Fashion Bazar--and in this magazine only. Mrs. Harrison is greatly fascinated with the exquisite gem, costume No. 4, in the April number. It is expected she will give an order for an exact counterpart of it, the whole front of which will be incrustated with pin-head diamonds. This gown alone will be worth a king's ransom.

VAULTON VOICES.

A. Hutchins is back from Denver. Snow once more and plenty of moisture. Parties from the east are expected soon on the old Merchant ranch. John Boatman will move onto a ranch south, so there is no great change in this locality. Considerable small grain has been sown and further work will progress when the snow goes. Mrs. Clements has rented her place with a view of selling to parties. Indeed the sale is about confirmed. The last storm appeared a little hard on stock but if followed by warm weather there will not be much less here. The sick at John Baldwin's, who have been having a pretty hard time with symptoms of lung fever, are improving.

George Myers will move from the Scott Perry ranch to his old Hitchcock county farm on the Driftwood. Glad we will not wholly lose him as a neighbor. RALPH.

Washington and Frederick the Great.

With the Story of a Mythical Sword.
(Moncure D. Conway in April Century.)
When John Brown went to conquer the South with twenty-three men he believed that the less he trusted arms of flesh the more Jehovah might be depended on to unshathe his sword. The only other sword Brown considered worthy to be used by the Almighty was that which Washington was said to have received from Frederick the Great. One of Brown's men (Cook) came as a spy to Bel Air, and was hospitably shown the Washington relics for which he inquired. Brown told Col. Washington, after taking him prisoner, that he wished to get hold of the sword "because it has been used by two successful generals." The superstition cost him dear. In order to get the sword Brown detached six of his men to go after it--five miles away. He thus lost half a day, and all chance of escape. Seventeen lives were offered as an altar before this mythical sword.

BANKSVILLE BUDGET.

A. M. Benjamin went to Traer, Kansas, the 27th inst. It was an all day job. The mail only carried Saturday, Tuesday and Thursday missed at Banksville. There was born to Mrs. Mary E. Hill, the 27th inst., a girl. Mother doing well. G. S. Lincoln says he is out of fuel and is working up old chunks rejected before. Uncle John Rowland says he is short of fuel, too. There was some wheat sowed before the snow storm and the snow will be apt to hold it down. The prospects for farming are more brilliant than any spring since 1884, and if the succession follows in the way of rain we will have as bountiful crops as anywhere. This is better than artificial, if the natural continues. Snow commenced falling here 5:30 P. M. the 23d inst. and continued to 25th inst. to about 5:30. A. M.--38 hours. Depth of snow fall from one to two feet. The 25th, 26th and 27th quite warm, melting the snow considerable. The 28th was foggy and misty all day, the night rainy, and by 8 o'clock 29th inst. snowing some again. ONSERVER.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Margaret E. Rickerds, the wife of T. J. Rickerds, died at her residence in township 4, Red Willow county, Neb., Saturday, March 21, 1891. The deceased leaves a husband and six children to mourn her loss. She died in the triumphs of a living faith. She was converted about three months ago and united herself with the church at this place. The funeral was preached by Rev. Jacob Long on Sunday at 11 o'clock was largely attended by many friends. Text selected from Amos, 4th chapter and 15th verse, "Prepare to Meet Thy God."

The passing spirit gently fled,
Sustained by Grace divine,
O, may such Grace on us be shed,
And make our end like thine.
Then farewell, sister, sweetly rest,
'Till God shall bid thee rise,
Our tears we'll dry, we will not weep,
We'll meet thee in the skies.
God who gave has also taken,
Bless his name, be of good cheer,
If you put your trust in Jesus,
You shall have no cause to fear.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 320 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 38-ly.

A Word in Season.

The barking of a pack of hounds may be music, but the barking of the human family is certainly discord. Stop that cough with Humphreys' Specific No. Seven.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders or syringes because they are all irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict tie tify to radical cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balm.

If You Have CONSUMPTION | COUGH OR COLD BRONCHITIS | Throat Affection SCROFULA | Wasting of Flesh Or any Disease where the Throat and Lungs are Inflamed, Lack of Strength or Nervous Power, you can be relieved and Cured by
