PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Citizens and Visitors Briefly Mentioned. We Have Had Our Eye on You.

"I Know Not What the Truth May Be, I Tell it as 'Twas Told to Me."

F. D. Burgess visited his father at Arapahoe, Tuesday.

Sheriff McCool visited the metropolis officially, Monday morning.

Col. LeHew had business in Champion, Chase county, first of the week.

Mrs. B. F. Olcott left for Brooklyn, Iowa, this week, to make an extended visit to her parents.

Dr. Smith is here from Peoria, Ill., this week, guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Meeker.

James Kilpatrick is now located in Boise City, Idaho. His family contemplates moving there.

Mrs. Nellie Johnson and family will leave for Newark, N. J., Sunday morning, to spend the summer.

Prof. Reizenstein assisted the Holdrege orchestra in rendering the music for an opera Wednesday evening in that city.

E. M. Jones of the Omaha Conservatory of Music was the guest of J. T. Bullard and family, the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gray have secured that necessary adjunct to all well regulated families—a little girl—by adoption.

Rev. Samuel F. Myers of the Episcopal church will move here from Holdrege as soon as he can secure a suitable dwelling.

Joe Wells will leave for Geneva, Monday morning, where he will manage his father's branch store just opened up in that burg.

Frank Carruth was up from Plattsmouth, middle of the week, looking after his electric light and other business interests in the city.

President Hocknell of the First National indulged in a flying business trip to the "Queen City of the Plains," Wednesday on the flyer.

Mrs. J. W. VanHorn arrived from Spearfish, S. D., Wednesday night, and will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. L. Brown, for a few weeks.

John R. Porter of Haigler stopped over in the city, Saturday, on land business, being homeward bound from the democratic "con-fab" at Hastings.

J. S. Goodwin of THE TRIBUNE force, with his family, went up to Haigler, Saturday night, visiting under the parental roof until Monday evening.

Judge Cochran and family drove over to Oberlin, Tuesday afternoon, to attend to some work on his real estate interests in Decatur county, where he formerly resided.

Miss Lattie Babcock and Miss Robertson, fair daughters of Cambridge, visited relatives and friends in McCook and vicinity, the close of last and early days of this week.

Mrs. Emil Lindner, family, and Miss Lindner, left for St. Louis, Sunday. They desire us to express to their McCook friends all that the hurry and confusion of moving precluded their uttering in person. George E. Johnston's family now occupy the Lindner home.

J. T. Bullard attended the bourbon pow-wow at Hastings, Friday last, returning home, Saturday noon on the flyer. The General, who was a political sachem in Suckercreek, failed to discern any of the earmarks, to remind him of how they used to do it back in Illinois. But he was amused.

B. F. Olcott left, Tuesday evening, for Indiana, to canvass for the Hinman Patent Delivery and Shipping Can. Ben is the authorized agent for the entire Hoosier state, and carries unexceptionable recommendations. He goes prepared to put in a good word for McCook whenever occasion presents itself.

W. H. Davis, F. A. Thompson and W. M. Anderson will leave for Grand Island, Monday, to represent McCook Lodge, A. O. of U. W. at the grand lodge meeting there, next week. Dell Laffin and H. W. Cole, who are members of the grand lodge, will also go. A large attendance is expected and a great time.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Babcock entertained a company of young people in honor of their guests, Miss Lattie Babcock and Miss Robertson, of Cambridge, in their old time clever way. Besides the Misses Hart and Jessen the following gentlemen were present: Messrs. George B. Berry, P. A. Wells, L. W. McConnell, W. S. Kimmell.
