LEBANON DOTS.

Rain! Rain! Rain!!!

The Alliance folks do not call attention to Paul Vandervort so freely as they did since Brother Allen of Frontier county read Paul out of the party.

Some of the Alliance think that they already see the fine Italian hand of my two banks both under one roof in a few recent political-social visits.

It will in all probability strike Col. C. T. Brewer at about the third rib to learn that the Alliance people here claim his recent election as an Alliance victory.

The Lebanon Alliance Business Association had a called meeting for the purpose of winding up their little ball of yarn. Thus ends another case of flying high and roosting low.

In talking with some of the boys in regard to the Owlstralian ballot it was the unanimous opinion that the only way it would affect us was the chance that it would deprive us on election day of the unsolicited services of Jim Goggles and Joe McClung.

I suppose you have all read the European tourist's roar back to the Republicans. It seems funny to have a Jew curse a money lender. I sincerely hope that the Republicans of this state will not allow this bull-baiter to dictate their policy. It is to be hoped that he will wander into Moscow so that Grand Duke Sergius may round him up.

I received some time since a copy of "Here's Your Mule, Joe" alias Alliance Herald. I believe that the brick mason made a mistake when he traded his apron for an ink pot. Previous to his telling us that he was a brick mason I had thought that he was a graduate from some wood choppers' camp on some of the charcoal flats in Pennsylvania.

Not exactly lost, strayed or stolen, but a little mixed, one ex-county commissioner, supposed at Wilsonville to be making arrangements to move down there, supposed at Lebanon to be making arrangements to secure the Alliance nomination for county commissioner. Any information as to what he does intend to do will be received with the greatest indifference by his constituents at Lebanon.

If the B. & M. does not keep a supply of coffin on hand you had better tell A. C. to get one. It happened this way: Some two or three weeks ago I was listing corn on the south divide, three miles from Lebanon, I saw an extra go west. I unhitched, rushed to the house, asked my wife if she didn't want to go to town. She said she could not as she had just filled the stove with bread to bake. But why do you want to go to town in the middle of the week. I told her that I had seen an extra go west and that I knew that I had seen Mary Sheedy of Lincoln or Ben Harrison of D. C., as our banker had called on both of them at Lincoln a week or two before. I pounded the old grays over the back clear to town and there learned that the extra was the bridge inspector, so if you miss a bridge inspector you will nearly know what ailed him. JAKE HARMON.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at A. McMillen's drug store.

BOX ELDER REVIEW.

Crops are looking splendid in this part of the county.

A. W. Campbell has an impromptu frog pond in his wheat field.

Surely these heavy rains do stiffen the backbone of the farmer.

Children's day exercises will be held at Box Elder church, next Sunday.

The old soldiers of Box Elder have decided to have an old-fashioned soldiers' picnic on the Fourth.

Last Sunday, Sam Pinkerton returned home from Indianola, where he has been attending school since last November.

The recent floods have inundated a large field of corn for Daniel Doyle; and we understand that several men up the creek are suffering in the same way.

Last Friday evening Charles Masters gave a croquet party to the young people of Box Elder at his house. It was largely attended and all enjoyed themselves. A bountiful supper was served and the spread was certainly a compliment to Mrs. Masters' ability in that line.

La Grippe Again.

During the epidemic of la grippe last season Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, proved to be the best remedy. Reports from the many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad after results. We ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in la grippe or any throat, chest or lung trouble. Trial bottles free at A. McMillen's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00. 44ts.

BANKSVILLE BUDGET.

The Banksville young people were in attendance at a dance at James Lawthers, Saturday night.

Who says Nebraska is a dry country, when it rains most every other day. Good rains Monday and Tuesday.

The Alliance have a meeting at the Gerver school house, Thursday evening, to arrange for a celebration on Dry Creek of 4th of July.

The sudden death of Prof. Walter Rowland's wife called Uncle John Rowland and wife and daughter, Mrs. Nelson, to Indianola, Sunday evening, to attend the funeral.

Wm. Relph found his lost horse stock in the west part of Grant, Saturday. They skipped his herd. The herder must have been superintending the growth of trees when they got away. OBSERVER.

All medical authorities agree that catarrh is no more nor less than an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nasal air passages. Nasal catarrh and all catarrhal affections of the head are not diseases of the blood, and it is a serious mistake to treat them as such. No conscientious physician ever attempted to do so. It is held by eminent medical men that sooner or later a specific will be found for every disease from which humanity suffers. The facts justify us in assuming that for catarrh at least a positive cure exists in Ely's Cream Balm. tr.

SOUTH SIDE SAUCE.

Billie Cuyler is working at W. N. Cratty's. Lawrence and Otto Schwerdt left, last week, for North Platte.

The Alliance folks are talking of having a big picnic over here soon.

This is a little the wettest weather ever known in Southwestern Nebraska.

Mrs. W. N. Cratty left, last Saturday morning, for a short visit in Lincoln.

Small grain is firm, but corn is very backward on account of the cool wet weather.

The cut worms are working the corn some. This wet weather is just the kind for them.

Grass, we believe, was never better at this time of the year than now. Stock although very thin this spring are in prime condition now.

H. H. Pickens has got a new plug hat and gone to the legislature.

I. T. Birdsall rides in a way-up phaeton behind a spanking span of blacks.

John Whittaker is putting up a fine frame barn,—for horses, grain and alfalfa.

M. C. Maxwell is building a large sheep barn to hold his fine flock of cotswolds and merinos.

Rothees Hileman is building a large cement cellar (well ventilated) for the purpose of storing 10,000 bushels of potatoes.

John Whittaker had a little set to with a fence post, the other day, and from appearances John came out second best.

Mose Colfer is conductor of the street line running up the Driftwood, and Oscar Russell is sitting on the bank, fish pole in hand, waiting for bull heads and suckers to float down the ditch. Friends, this may be a little premature, but the arrival of the South Side ditch will demonstrate that such is life in the far west. OBSERVER.
