

The McCook Tribune.

TENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 26, 1891.

NUMBER 5.

H. LAWLER

wishes to announce that his stock of

SPRING and SUMMER GOODS are now on the shelves. He does not claim to have the biggest stock on earth, nor does he promise what is impossible in prices. But in

DRY GOODS,

of all kinds, he carries a complete and well-selected stock, and, the quality of goods considered,

His Prices are the Very Lowest!

I also carry a full and fresh stock of GROCERIES!

and in this department also I will Meet All Competition!

Give a call and get my prices.

H. LAWLER.

AGENT LINCOLN LAND CO.

J. E. Kelley
ATTORNEY AT LAW
McCOOK, NEB.

OFFICE IN MECKER BUILDING.

WILCOX & FOWLER

Are on hands as usual this spring with a large and complete assortment of

DRY GOODS,

of every description, all qualities and grades, which they are selling

AT BOTTOM FIGURES.

They are also well stocked up with everything usually kept by a first-class grocery store in Fancy and staple Groceries.

They have no superiors in quality or prices. Just test these statements.

WILCOX & FOWLER.

W. M. M. ANDERSON

PROPRIETOR.

TRANSFER.

McCook,

Nebr.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Citizens and Visitors Briefly Mentioned. We Have Had Our Eye on You.

"I Knew Not What the Truth May Be, I Tell it as 'Twas Told to Me."

Mrs. M. A. Spalding is visiting at her home in Eiverton.

Miss Mary Walters visited Culbertson friends, this week.

Geo. E. Johnston and family have moved into the Phelan house.

Elder C. A. Mastin of Minden was a Commercial guest, Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Lathrop of the 'Varsity town was a visitor, Tuesday.

Tom Glasscott is just back from a week's sojourn in Denver on a visit.

J. E. Kelley left for Denver, yesterday on the flyer, on matters of business import.

Miss Caddie Bodien of Orleans is visiting Gertrude and Grace Bømgardner, this week.

Mr. Hugh McKee, father of Mrs. Fowler, left on Monday morning for his home at Fairbury, Ill.

O. E. Butterfield, the Haigler "politician," was at headquarters for Western Nebraska politics, Monday.

Miss Tillie Barnes, sister of C. W. of the T.-D., was up from Indianola, Saturday, in a social capacity.

Miss Clara Kleven and Dottie Davenport were down from Culbertson, Saturday evening, on a little shopping-pleasure trip.

Dr. B. B. Davis is visiting his father at Centralia, Kansas, who is not in the best of health. He will return Tuesday next.

Emil Lindner shipped his household goods, early in the week, and left on Thursday evening to join his family in St. Louis.

Frank Carruth was up from Plattsmouth, Monday and Tuesday on electric light business, going back on the Tuesday evening passenger.

Morris DesLarzes is back from Colorado, firm in the conviction that you will have to go outside of the Centennial State to find McCook's equal.

Tom Floyd of the Trenton Register, one of the Independent wheel horses of county Hitchcock, had occasion to visit the metropolis, Monday evening.

Dr. Chas. H. Jones, whose visit to Minneapolis has been greatly lengthened by illness, arrived home on Sunday evening's passenger, and is again in the harness.

D. A. Gray, special agent of the Fidelity Building and Loan Association, Denver, Colo., has been in the city, this week, for the purpose of establishing a local board in McCook.

Jack Bullard returned, Wednesday morning, from Denver, being threatened with another attack of typhoid fever. He is doing well, and they hope to be able to break the fever before it runs its course.

County Clerk Williams of Dundy and Judge Burke of Chase county spent this morning in the city on their homeward way from a delightful trip to Arkansas, Illinois and other attractive places.

Miss Delia Rogers, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilcox for past two weeks, takes her departure, first of next week, for New Mexico, where she will spend a year of recreation and health-seeking.

Mr. Amos Buck, a former resident of this state, but who for the last two years has resided in Washington, D. C., arrived in Lincoln last Friday. Mr. Buck prefers Nebraska to the east and will locate and go into business in this city.—Lincoln Journal.

Prof. Walter Rowland was up from Indianola, Monday evening, on matters of business political. The genial and accomplished Professor, it is currently reported, is a prominent and popular independent candidate for the clerk of the district court nomination.

Capt. R. O. Phillips, rustler-in-chief of the Lincoln Land Co., was up from Lincoln, Monday, on water works business; holding a seance with the city fathers, Monday evening, over the lately adopted water rates ordinance, which seems to be objectionable to the company.

Were Missed.

The following names have been handed up by a friend, who noted their absence from the roster published last week. Doubtless there are still others who have escaped the assessor's eye:

Bennett, Thos., priv., 1, 7th Ill. Vol., war 1812, and 1st battalion M. T., D. Cal. Vol.

A. J. Thomas, priv., A. 6th Pa. Vol. inf., and priv., B. 1st inf., and sergt. Weaver's Ind. cavalry.

Kendrick Clark, private, F. 17th Illinois inf.

George Burns, private, E. U. S. infantry.

Sam Rogers and George Laverty now wash in the sleeper and eat on the "diner," while on business trips west now. Glad to see the reform is no doubt the verdict of the Walla Walla.

Several cars of wild animals from Africa went west, Sunday, followed by other cars later. They go to Manhattan Beach near Denver.

Engineer Pronger, after a vacation of a few days, resumed service in the motive power department, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris leave, this evening, for Galva, Ill., to attend the funeral of Miss Laura Harris.

Burlington Route

One fare for the round trip to stations not over two hundred miles distant will be sold by the B. & M. July 3-4; good until the 6th.

Crete Chautauqua Assembly, Crete, Neb., June 30th to July 10th. One fare for the round trip. Tickets on sale June 29th; return limit to July 11th.

10th annual convention Y. P. S. of C. E., Minneapolis, July 9-12. Tickets on sale 7-8. One fare round trip. Official route.

National Educational Association Convention, Toronto, Canada, July 14-17. Round trip tickets will be sold at the lowest one way first class rate—plus $2. The route is via Detroit, Port Huron and the Canadian routes. Tickets on sale 8-13, inclusive, good for return 14th to Sept. 25th with five days for returning. Official route, train runs through to Toronto without change. Pullman accommodations. Unusually low excursion rates have been made from Toronto to Canadian points and points in New England and New York. Excellent opportunity for a cheap trip to all points east. J. HULANISKA, Agent.

WE "PASS" NOBODY.

Engineer J. S. Willard is now running extra.

Brakeman Utter's wife returned from a short visit to Denver, Tuesday.

Mrs. George Hunt went out to Longmont, this week, for a visit with friends.

Supt. Campbell went up to Denver, Tuesday on the flyer, on railroad matters.

Charles Erway, formerly employed at Curtis round house, is now working here.

Clerk Thomas of Manager Holdrege's office was a city visitor, early in the week.

Mrs. H. C. Smith with her son, Roy, went to Holyoke, Thursday, to visit for a few days.

Buy a house from S. H. Colvin on the monthly installment plan and save money.

Word from Paducah, Ky., announces the birth, June 11th, of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hills.

A wash-out of track between Wray and Laird, Thursday morning, delayed No. 2 about four hours.

Conductor Kendlen will take a rest of 30 days, owing to the extremely warm weather as predicted by Foster.

Resident Engineer Blair and Supt. Campbell came east, this morning, after a tour of inspection in the west.

R. B. Simmonds of the Dispatchers' office visited the capital city, Sunday, returning home, Monday morning.

$350.00 will buy two lots in block 13, original town of McCook, only three blocks from business center. Apply to C. F. BAUCKOCK.

Ex-Conductor Alvard had all his clothes stolen and many papers of value from his way car on the Rock Island, a few days ago.

Farmer Irwin and son Charlie went out to their timber claim in Hitchcock county, this week, to extract a few weeds and stir up the soil.

Sam Dulaney left, last evening, for York to attend the funeral of his brother George who was killed in a railroad accident at that place.

Some engine drivers are very poor mule drivers as witnessed by the fact of Jim O'Connell's team getting away from him out in the country, a few days ago.

Supt. Perry has been kept quite busy driving, the past week, owing to the heavy rains. Why don't Mr. Perry try some blind piles and see how they stay with you when high water comes?

The father of sleeping car con. Webster, well-known here and conspicuous as the B. & M. heavy-weight, was buried in Chicago, the past week. He has the sympathy of all acquaintances.

Sells brothers circus outfit, consisting of 34 large cars and coaches, will go over the high line from Holdrege to Cheyenne on Sunday next. Arrangements are being made to handle them in first-class shape.

A car of ore en route from New Castle to Denver passed through the city, a few days ago, and was inspected by several railroad men, one of whom was heard to remark, "Guess Supt. Phelan is away from home and they let a car of it get away without painting it."

An Atchison special to the Globe-Democrat states that the B. & M. R. R. company propose to invest $100,000 in Cheyenne county, Kansas, in an irrigation enterprise. Cheyenne is the northwest county of that state, and the water is to be taken from a stream known as the North Fork—probably a branch of the Republican—at a point some twenty miles east of the Colorado line. An army of men and teams are at work and it is hoped to have the enterprise completed in time to irrigate 100,000 acres of fall wheat.

Amended by laws of various B. & M. branch roads in Nebraska were filed Monday with the secretary of state locating the principal place of business at Omaha. Branch offices for these lines are hereby established as follows: Nebraska Railway, Lincoln; Grand Island & Wyoming Central, Grand Island; Crete, Milford & Western, Crete; Republican Valley & Wyoming, Culbertson; Oxford & Kansas, Oxford; Chicago, Nebraska & Kansas, Odell, Republican Valley, Kansas & Southwestern, Republican City; Lincoln & Black Hills, Central City. The annual meeting of stockholders for election of directors shall be held the first Monday in June.

J. ALBERT WELLS,

McCOOK, NEBRASKA.

DRY GOODS!

MILLINERY!

CARPETS!

SATURDAY, JUNE 27TH.

SATURDAY,

JUNE 27th,

my entire stock of

TRIMMED

—AND—

UNTRIMMED

HATS

will be offered at a

DISCOUNT

—OF—

25 PER CENT.

From the regular marked price.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27TH.

Jackets, Wraps and Capes

—AT—

LESS THAN COST.

J. Albert Wells.

Special attention given mail orders.

$5.00 PER DAY. $1,000.00 CASH IN PRIZES.

You can WIN BIG MONEY. Don't miss this opportunity. The IRRIGATION AGE is the ONLY journal in the WORLD devoted to the great interests of irrigation. It is meeting with ENORMOUS SUCCESS, but wants 10,000 more SUBSCRIBERS before November 15th, and proposes to have them at any cost. BIG COMMISSION and big prizes to AGENTS, and splendid TERRITORY entirely UNWORKED. NO COMPETITION. Thirty pages, illustrated, finest class journal published west of Chicago. ALL IRRIGATION NEWS. Just the paper for all farmers in the irrigated regions. ENGINEERS CONTRACTORS and INVESTORS WANT IT. Home edition, Denver; Inter-Mountain edition, Salt Lake City and Ogden; Coast edition, Los Angeles. Send for sample copies and agents terms and particulars of our great PRIZE OFFER. Address

Irrigation Age, Denver, Colo., Railroad Building.

THE TRIBUNE AND THE IRRIGATION AGE ONE YEAR FOR $2.00 CASH IN ADVANCE.