OFFICIAL CITY & COUNTY PAPER.

KICK
Out the Bad men in
The Republican party,
But save all the good ones.
—Sutton Advertiser.

THE kaiser has taken the pass nuisance into his own hands and has issued strict orders to the railway companies to let nobody ride free in Germany except government officials and employees. The great grievance in Nebraska is that government officials are sometimes favored with passes and it is considered a very corrupting influence.

JUDGING from the statistics of railroad building gathered up to the present time it is safe to venture the statement that the total of new mileage for the present year will be smaller than for several years past. Up to the first of July there is less than 1,700 miles of new road completed, and not enough more in sight to make the total up to the first of next January exceed 4,500 miles.

IF a few more unblushing Ananiases and jaundiced Judases up in Hitchcock and Hayes counties come out and vent their mendacious spleen against Judge Cochran, in common decency, the people, mark you the people, will have to just rise up in their might and re-elect the Judge by an overwhelming majority. That is what the Judge deserves, and the people of the 14th district will do themselves credit by doing so.

A NEWSPAPER can say nice and pleasant things about a man and his whole family for many long years, and then incur their life long enmity in one short week by a seeming slight. You can hurrah for a candidate, back his friends, cuss his enemies and make an adult fool of yourself generally, without a thank in the end. But there is one man who don't forget you, and that is the man you opposed. "Benefits are written in sand, while injuries, imaginary as well as real, are engraved on stone."

THIS week the weather bureau will be transferred from the war to the agricultural department, as provided for by the last congress. It is not expected that this will necessarily improve the service, though it may do so, but the change was ordered by congress in response to a general sentiment that the business of making weather predictions was wholly out of place in connection with the war department. It is to be noted that for a short time past the bureau has done better work than formerly, and unquestionably Secretary Rusk can be depended on to get the best service possible from it—Bee.

THE unhappy financial condition of the Jeness-Miller divided skirt enterprise should be a solemn warning to all would-be reformers not to attempt to make a decided change in the habiliments of lovely woman without an abundance of capital. Just how many millions of dollars it would take to popularize anything bearing the name of dress reform it is difficult to decide, but the Jeness-Miller disaster of the present and the Bloomer fiasco of the good old days indicate that it cannot be done without even a bigger barrel than is required to elect a democratic senator in the state of Ohio—Journal.

THE FOURTH OF JULY ORATOR.

The season is at hand when the fourth of July orator will be in demand. No more useful person can be found in a community than the fourth of July orator. He ranks as a genius, and with a reputation once established, he will receive a flattering invitation that does not come to the common herd. If you desire a call to speak and have been overlooked, write a friend where you wish to be invited and tell him to get on the committee to select a speaker. This is considered no innovation and modesty should not deter you. Go where you are not acquainted and derive benefits from being new. The editor in the town will not publish your oration without your urgent request, and this embarrassment you will relieve him of, as you would desire to use it in the succeeding years to come. Having been admitted to the bar will give you prestige, though in fact you are not a lawyer. Your attempt at facetiousness may prove the fatal freak that will plunge your friends into gloom. Humorous writers wear a serious aspect, but to be funny on the platform, mirth must be observed protruding from every feature, or your jokes will fall stale and flat. There is no place so difficult to fill, yet many seek this avenue for the plaudits of their countrymen. Unsatisfactory results are not always manifest to the orator who fails, for his bitterest enemy will hesitate to break to him the fact that in his chosen vocation he is not a pronounced success. Careful discernment of the audience may disclose the telling effect that will afterward prove a source of pleasure to the committee selecting you and a source of joy and pride to yourself.

Audiences are patient and long suffering, and there being no other source of amusement at the time, may linger with you throughout, but this must not always be taken as evidence of your success. Upon mounting the rostrum you should not appear frightened or allow your features to assume an unnatural appearance. Act as if you had risen among friends. With ease and grace let the words of eloquence flow till a crowd, enraptured, lean with craned necks to catch jewels of thought, original, unique, convincing and logical.

Do not dwell to long upon the early history of your country. Avoid as much as possible repeating that which you know to be familiar. If tempted to drop into poetry, do it gracefully and at the right time.

If you are opposite in your political views to the administration, do not enlorge our present prosperity too much, as later at the same place you may be called to denounce the present situation of affairs.

If you are conversant with your country's history—a man of broad gauge views and wide scope of knowledge—you need not commit your piece to memory. If not you should follow a well beaten track, for a new departure will find you floundering to get back where you are best acquainted. If your speech is written, take your eyes off the paper occasionally, even if you are not so eloquent, for by so doing you are not so apt to be accused of plagiarism.

Avoid anything political and let the postal, telegraph and governmental management of railroads alone, as your language will be construed as having a political bearing.

If you have never been a soldier you must state that age forbade it, before you enter upon a fulsome eulogy of your country's defenders.

What you know about practical farming in the west will be a hit well received and of practical benefit to your hearers.

Let Jay Gould and Chauncey M. Depew alone, as they are not posing before the country for political preferment, and are not especially intermingled with the country's prosperity.

Too careful precision of utterance may cause you to fail in your point. Pointed remarks are best even if you rush ahead at break-neck-speed and your words are commonplace. Ill timed gestures will break the force of your effort.

As you approach the peroration, let your impassioned soul become aglow with earnestness, soul absorbing, self consuming. Let your sentences be epigrammatic, terse, beautiful.—Oberlin Herald.

THE FAMOUS.

June 26, 1891.

WILL the enterprising lot of ducks who have put the Republican party of Nebraska "in the hole," get her out again?

It is estimated that the wheat crop of the United States will reach 550,000,000 bushels, which will give us about 200,000,000 bushels for export. Good times ahead.

"If," says the Arapahoe Mirror, "the Independent organs reflect the sentiments of the voters of that party Judge Cochran seems in a fair way to capture the Independent endorsement. We said it."

BANKSVILLE BUDGET.

T. W. Benjamin was a visitor at Banksville, Tuesday.

Frank Wivines is passing around in Gerver and Grant, this week.

The Dry Creek celebration is a settled fact. Let everybody celebrate.

Fine weather for killing weeds and the corn responds to the tickling of the cultivator.

This (Wednesday) is the school meeting day in Nebraska. District No. 51 was only represented by two families, this year. ONSERVEN.

La Grippe Again.

During the epidemic of la grippe last season Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, proved to be the best remedy. Reports from the many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad after results. We ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in la grippe or any throat, chest or lung trouble. Trial bottles free at A. McMillen's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00. 44ts.

We Caution All Against Them.

The unprecedented success and merit of Ely's Cream Balm—a real cure for catarrh, hay fever and cold in the head—has induced many adventurers to place catarrh medicines bearing some resemblance in appearance, style or name upon the market, in order to trade upon the reputation of Ely's Cream Balm. Don't be deceived. Buy only Ely's Cream Balm. Many in your immediate locality will testify in highest commendation of it. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price 50 cents. 6.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble. "John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: 'Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man.' J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: 'Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at A. McMillen's drug store.'
