The Bartley correspondent to the Times-Democrat, last week, said that Hill and Bond had organized a camp of Sons of Veterans at that place, but Messrs. H. and B. do not know anything about it. It must have been a secret organization.

Rev. and Mrs. O. T. Moore, of Crawford, Nebraska, are visiting Judge Beck's family this week. They have been attending the General Conference and are now spending some time in this county. Mr. Moore was formerly pastor at Bartley and is a brother of J. C. and Frank Moore of Tyrone.

The Secretary of Agricultural Society desires to call the attention of the farmers to the fact that the state fair offers seventeen premiums on county exhibits, in amounts ranging from $250 for the first to $30 for seventeenth. We expect to make an exhibit and want every one to contribute to the collection, who may have something worthy. Red Willow county can and must come to the front this year.

The Republican Club held their regular meeting on Saturday night, a large number of the members present and several new members added. The following committees were appointed to complete the organization: Executive, J. T. Webber, A. J. Rand, G. W. Roper, J. W. Dolan and I. M. Beardslee; Finance, J. T. Webber, J. J. Lamborn and H. Crabtree; Music W. R. Starr, A. J. Forward and J. B. Mather; on speakers and programme, C. W. Beck, J. S. Phillips and W. Gossard. The next meeting will be on Saturday evening, June 4th, 1892.

Preparations are being made for Memorial Sunday and Decoration Day. The memorial sermon will be delivered by Rev. P. S. Mather at the M. E. church on Sunday the 29th at 11 o'clock, to which all old soldiers and their families are earnestly requested to attend. The services on Monday will begin at one o'clock by organizing and marching to the cemetery and decorating graves of the fallen comrades, after which the oration of the day will be delivered at the high school building by Judge Henderson. Let it be understood that this is not exclusively a Grand Army day, but it is an occasion when all— young and old should join. Bring the children and teach them what these things mean, so when the few remaining survivors of the war are gone, the coming generation may take up the noble work of commemorating the memory of our country's defenders.
