

The McCook Tribune.

ELEVENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 24, 1892

NUMBER 3.

Injured Innocence.

Is shown in the handsome face of our colored friend. He wants you to understand that he

"HAINT SEE'D NO CHICKENS."

But if you will come to the BOSTON SHOE STORE, next week, you will see a new line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes which will OPEN YOUR EYES!

WE ARE RUSTLERS

For trade—at the head of the procession—with the right swing, and we propose to

CATCH THAT MAVERICK

The frisky dollar. In all lines of Boots and Shoes there is no dealer in Southwestern that can

ROUND UP BARGAINS

To equal yours respectfully. We are here for business from the ground up, and propose to let you know it. Come and see us.

I WILL

Is the key-note to success. The firmness of our resolution to

LEAD THE TRADE

In Boots and Shoes is symbolized in the noble figure here given. THE BOSTON SHOE STORE has already set the fashion

IN McCOOK

Of making people talk about their goods and prices. A visit to their store will convince you of this.

A Big Drive

Is now being made by us on many lines, but especially on a fine line of

LADIES SHOES.

Ladies will find the selection very desirable, while the shoes themselves are admitted to be

EXTREMELY

COMFORTABLE.

Call at once and get the pick before sizes are broken. These goods will go like ice cream.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Sherriff and Mrs. Banks were up from Indianola, yesterday.

Judge LeFlew was in Omaha, Monday, on some legal business.

A. A. Hatch of Hayes Centre was a business visitor, yesterday.

J. E. Kelley was at the capital city, Monday, on some matters of business.

Dr. S. L. Green was in the capital city, last Friday, on some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McNaul of Wauneta were Commercial guests, Wednesday.

Jack McAdams has joined the cripples and is now carrying his left arm in a sling.

W. J. McGillen was down from his Diamond Tauch, near Imperial, yesterday.

Judge Cochran and H. W. Cole were up at Culbertson, yesterday, on legal business.

O. P. Shallenberger, the Imperial banker, noted our increasing greatness, Tuesday.

W. O. Norval will attend the national prohibition convention at Cincinnati, Ohio, next week.

J. B. McCabe went into Omaha, Monday, to receive treatment from a specialist on his ailment.

L. H. Blackledge, one of Culbertson's rising young lawyers, was a city guest on Tuesday evening.

W. F. Liston, Hayes county's long distance farmer, and wife, were city guests, Wednesday.

C. A. Leach was among the faithful who journeyed to Chicago to see the stuffed prophet renominated.

C. W. Barnes of the Times-Democrat has been at Indianola, part of the week, "dressed in his new suit of clothes."

S. E. Hager and family will spend Sunday on the farm a few miles north of Indianola, going down tomorrow evening.

Bob Williams, the thoroughbred of the Stratton Herald, made final proof on his homestead before the land officials, Monday.

Lorenzo Scott and Joe Phillips start, today, for Red Willow, where they will shear about 1,000 head of sheep.—Alliance Grip of the 17th.

Barney Hofer of the Hayes Centre Times was soliciting advertisements for that county's fair book, last Friday, in which he was quite successful.

Frank T. Wagner was in the city, yesterday, distributing paper in the interest of the Beatrice Chautauqua, which opens June 30 and closes July 16th.

Messrs. Bertram, Burnett and Geiges were over from Oberlin, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, on masonic business, being the guests of Count Hulaniski.

M. L. Thomas, late of the Lincoln Daily Sun, was in the city, Monday, being in the western part of the state looking up a location for a "long-felt want."

C. P. Underwood was up from Danbury, Monday, making some arrangements for the time galore the people of the Beaver Valley will enjoy in that burg on the nation's birthday.

Judge H. H. Benson's meritorious reputation as a speaker is a guarantee that the address he will deliver in Benkelman on the Fourth will be interesting and instructive.—Benkelman Bee.

Col. A. J. Clute, Jr., of the True Democrat, went to Chicago, Monday morning, to attend the national bourbon convention, representing the stalwart democracy of southwestern Nebraska.

Dr. Victor Anderson of Omaha, a young practitioner, has been spending the past week in the city. We understand that he has about determined to locate in our city in the practice of his profession.

Captain Morgan, an old time York county friend of Judge Cochran, made proof on his Frontier county tree claim, Saturday, after which he went on to Haigler, where he has extensive real estate holdings.

W. I. Hardenburg of Iowa spent Thursday looking over the country, and was so well pleased that he invested in a 160 acre farm. He returned to Iowa, this morning, and will work for Red Willow county.

Miss Alice M. Murphy, the re-elected principal of the Oxford schools, on Tuesday left for a pleasure trip to the mountains. She expects to spend the entire heated term in Colorado, dividing the time between Colorado Springs, Denver and other points of interest.—Oxford Standard.

The revised city ordinance are in the press, and will be issued from THE TRIBUNE job rooms in due season.

F. J. TAYLOR'S CIRCUS.

F. J. Taylor's Circus and Menagerie arrived on schedule time and gave two exhibitions in this city. Fifteen hundred attended the afternoon entertainment and about one thousand went in the evening.

The circus was excellent, and the entertainment a clean one. Mr. Taylor gives one of the most honest and creditable circus performances it has been our pleasure to witness, and he is especially to be commended for the absence of the horde of fakirs, confidence men and swindlers that usually accompany shows.—Hebron Journal.

This well known circus and menagerie will exhibit at McCook, Saturday, July 9th.

WE "PASS" NOBODY.

Engineer Holliday is entertaining his father from Beatrice.

Supt. Campbell came in on No. 1 Wednesday, from a business trip to Hastings.

Buy a house from S. H. Colvin on the monthly installment plan and save money.

Mrs. G. W. Conner is visiting at the home of her parents in Falls City, going down on Saturday last.

Frank Harris returned from Galva, Ill., Tuesday noon. The family will be absent a few weeks longer.

Oyster brought No. 3 with eight cars up from Oxford, last evening, in 57 minutes, a distance of 55 miles.

Mrs. Cook, (mother of Mrs. T. G. Rees,) who has been in poor health, for some time past, is improving, THE TRIBUNE is pleased to learn.

Nebraska State Convention People's Party, Lincoln, June 30th. Fare one and a third rate for the round trip. Tickets on sale June 27th and 30th.

Mr. Jeffries Wynman and Miss Helen MacKey, were married in Boston, June 7th. The groom is well known among the McCook railroad men.

The Burlington will ballast 90,000 yards of its road this year with gumbo or burnt clay. The first ballasting will be done near Sutton and Holdrege.

Chautauqua Assembly, Beatrice, June 30th to July 16th. One fare for the round trip. Tickets on sale June 29th to 30th. Limit for return July 17th.

The Eating House is receiving a thorough overhauling by Mr. Trammell. Four painters and decorators are now at work, and everything is being placed in ship shape.

National Convention Prohibition Party, Cincinnati, Ohio, June 29th to 30th. One fare for the round trip. Tickets on sale June 26th to 27th. Limit for return July 7th.

Southwestern Conference for Bible Study, Eureka Springs, Arkansas, June 29th to July 3d. Fare one and a third rate for the round trip. Tickets on sale June 26d to July 3d, inclusive.

Nineteenth Annual Conference Charities and Corrections, Denver, June 23d-July 3d. Fare one and a third rate for the round trip. Tickets on sale June 20th to July third inclusive.

Annual Convention Nebraska Christian Sunday School Association, Hebron, June 28th to 30th. Fare one and a third rate for the round trip. Tickets on sale June 25th to 30th inclusive.

Clayton Keim, of Lincoln, was in Benkelman, Monday, on business. His leg which was broken last fall in a railroad wreck has not yet thoroughly healed and he still walks on crutches.—Benkelman Bee.

Triennial Meeting Grand Lodge Nebraska Bohemian Benevolent Association, West Point, Nebraska, June 24th to 27th. Fare one and a third rate for the round trip to Lincoln. Tickets on sale June 21st to 27th inclusive.

Wednesday night, No. 3 ran into the rear of No. 5, on the sidetrack at Akron, but fortunately without doing any great damage. Failure to turn the switch back, we understand, caused what came near being quite a serious accident.

A daughter of James Powell, keeper of the west end section house, died yesterday morning from the after effects of scarlet fever. The funeral took place this afternoon, Rev. A. W. Coffman of the Methodist church conducting the same, interment being made in the city cemetery. Mr. Powell and family have the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow and affliction.

On occasion of the National Educational Annual Convention at Saratoga, N. Y., July 12th to 15th, the Burlington Route, from July 3d to 9th, inclusive, will sell round trip tickets from all stations in Nebraska to Saratoga at one lowest first-class fare, plus two dollars (membership fee N. E. A.) Tickets are good for return passage from July 15th to 21st; an extension of time limit until September 2nd can, however, be obtained by depositing tickets at the office of the joint agent of terminal lines, 309 Broadway, Saratoga. The Burlington Route will run special Pullman sleeping cars and reclining chair cars from Lincoln and Omaha through to Saratoga, leaving Lincoln at 2:40, P. M. and Omaha, at 4:45, P. M., July 9th. A folder giving all particulars, may be had upon applying to J. Francis, general passenger and ticket agent, Omaha, to whom, or to local agent B. & M. R. R., requests for reservation of berth should be addressed.

To accommodate Christian Endeavorers and their friends along its line who desire to attend the national convention Y. P. S. C. E. at New York, July 7th to 10th, the Burlington Route will on July 4th run a special train from Omaha through to New York, via Chicago and Niagara Falls, leaving at 11:40, P. M., after arrival of all trains from the west. A rate of one fare for the round trip has been authorized and will be open to the general public. Tickets good to return at any time within thirty days from date of purchase, will be on sale at dates to be announced later. Tickets on sale July 3d to 5th. The low rates in force, the through car facilities at the disposal of travelers by the Burlington Route, and the delightful season of the year combine to make this an unequalled opportunity of visiting the east. Remember that you can purchase tickets from your station through to New York. Full information may be had upon application to the local agent of the B. & M. R. R., or by addressing J. Francis, general passenger agent, Omaha, Nebraska.

BIG REMNANT SALE OF THE YEAR 1892.
AT J. ALBERT WELLS.
Hundreds of Remnants To Be Sold Regardless of Cost.
THIS SALE EMBRACES ALL KINDS OF GOODS.
J. ALBERT WELLS.
McCOOK, NEBRASKA.