The rain, Sunday night, was worth thousands to Red Willow county. It fell alike upon the just and unjust, Indianola and McCook.

There is one thing that attracts more attention than the county seat fight and that is the daily game of checkers on Leland hotel corner.

Rev. C. D. Gearhart, of Onida, Ill., preached at the Congregational church, Sunday morning and evening. His hearers were well pleased with him and he may locate here and take the pastorate of this church.

The county convention was fairly represented, considering the busy season and the small amount of business to be done, and as the editor will have a full report, it will not be necessary to give the particulars here.

What a glorious rain and how I did sleep.

Mrs. Rogers has just returned from a visit in Iowa and reports the crops very much inferior to those of Nebraska.

Jim Troy and Henry Goodenberger and families attended the Sunday school convention and picnic at Ash Creek, Saturday.

Let us all work for the court house. It will not only enhance the value of our lands, but be so handy for our young men who are contemplating matrimony.

SLEEPY JIM.

The rye crop is being harvested all along the line and will be a very good crop.

C. F. Babeock and B. F. Troxel were parading the country about Banksville, Saturday.

John Rowland and C. F. Elliott have each invested in a Buckeye binder and Peter Wesch takes the McCormick.

Melbourne must have let his rain slip away from him for we at Banksville have had three bountiful rains in the last week. One Tuesday night, one Friday night and an old drencher, Sunday evening.

Some parents hold before their children a bugbear of some kind to frighten them into submission. An Indian, bear or ghost often serving the purpose as long as the poor little innocent knows no better. Just so Indianola attempts to hoodwink the full grown intelligent farmer of Red Willow county by holding before him an imaginary bugbear, the awful picture of McCook going back on her pledges and voting to bond the county for $50,000, when the following table will show that the vote of the precincts at present, leaving out McCook, is nearly three to one.

A cock and bull story about Edison is now going the rounds. It is to the effect that Tom has invented an electrical engine of some sort by which a town can be totally destroyed at a distance of thirty miles. The tale is that he has sold his invention to the German government. Edison can hear of a good customer for a local right by addressing either Minneapolis or St. Paul.—Journal.

In the contest of Florence McAniff and William J. McMillen, transferee, vs. Nathaniel Ralerson, from McCook, Secretary Noble, Thursday, decided that a hearing be had so that there may be a readjudication of the entire issue.

The state business men's association is agitating the matter of another advertising train. Nebraska has hardly gotten through taking care of the influx of immigrants brought by the other train.

Read McCook's guarantee. It is business-like, and is certainly entitled to more consideration than Indianola's claims and bald assertions.

Make Noble your family grocer and many other blessings will fall to your lot, besides having the best groceries on your table that the market affords.

GENUINE BARGAINS!

Has the actual difference in the way CLOTHING is put up ever occurred to you? If it has not, a visit to the various places where clothing is sold will convince you that there is a vast difference between "slop-shop hand-me-downs" and clothing (not things) made of good material and nicely put together. Here is where we have always made a strong point and the fact that we are selling Men's and Boys' Suits and Pants, trimmed, lined and sewed equal to any tailor made suits, at prices as low, and often lower, than the "slop shop" stuff explains in itself why we are doing so large a clothing business. We have put forth an extra effort this spring, and you will find our tables loaded down with the prettiest line of MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S SUITS to be found on this market, and if you are looking for good, honest goods at the lowest prices, we ask you to carefully inspect this department. And in Hats, Shirts, Suspenders, Overalls, Jeans, Pants, Socks, Ties, Night Shirts, etc., we have just what you want and at a price that will meet your views.
