

The McCook Tribune.

ELEVENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 19, 1892

NUMBER 13.

Injured Innocence.

Is shown in the handsome face of our colored friend. He wants you to understand that he

"HAINT SEE'D NO CHICKENS."

But if you will come to the BOSTON : SHOE : STORE, next week, you will see a new line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes which will OPEN YOUR EYES!

WE ARE RUSTLERS

For trade—at the head of the procession—with the right swing, and we propose to

CATCH THAT MAVERICK

The frisky dollar. In all lines of Boots and Shoes there is no dealer in Southwestern that can

ROUND UP BARGAINS

To equal yours respectfully. We are here for business from the ground up, and propose to let you know it. Come and see us.

I WILL

Is the key-note to success. The firmness of our resolution to

LEAD THE TRADE

In Boots and Shoes is symbolized in the noble figure here given. THE BOSTON SHOE STORE has already set the fashion

IN McCOOK

Of making people talk about their goods and prices. A visit to their store will convince you of this.

A Big Drive

Is now being made by us on many lines, but especially on a fine line of

LADIES SHOES.

Ladies will find the selection very desirable, while the shoes themselves are admitted to be

EXTREMELY

COMFORTABLE.

Call at once and get the pick before sizes are broken. These goods will go like ice cream.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Banker Frost of Bartley is with us today. His Honor, Daniel T. Welty, was a city guest, Monday.

G. S. Bishop and C. S. Quick, two leading and influential citizens of Indianola, were up, Saturday, on business connected with the "late unpleasantness."

Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield left, Wednesday morning, for Decatur, Illinois, near which place they will visit a married daughter for the next month or two.

Mrs. Louis Lowman and Miss Sara Lowman left on Sunday for the eastern markets to be absent a number of weeks making extensive purchases of fall and winter goods.

Banker V. Franklin and Attorney A. F. Moore of McCook, had business in this lively little town, Friday last, and made these newspaper headquarters a friendly call.—Hayes Centre Times.

Walt M. Seely, of Bennet, the past eminent patriot and politician, secretary of the Republican state central committee, was in consultation with local lights in the political arena, Tuesday.

Cash D. Fuller, clerk of Chase county, was a delegate to the senatorial convention, Wednesday, coming down Tuesday afternoon and returning home yesterday morning. Mrs. Fuller accompanied him.

Misses Laura and Ada Hobson, two charming young ladies of the well known watch factory town on the farther banks of the more or less classic Coon creek, were in the metropolis, Tuesday on a shopping excursion.

Prof. Peterson, instructor in literature in the state university, has been visiting a few days in the city, guest of Dr. B. B. Davis. The professor was on his return to Lincoln from engaging in some institute work up in Hitchcock county.

Dr. Faulkner of Lincoln is in the city in the interests of the Modern Woodmen order. At the meeting held last evening fifteen new members were taken into the order and more are to follow. The membership has now reached over thirty.

F. N. Merwin, of the Beaver City Tribune, Dr. S. R. Razez, of the Curtis Courier, and D. F. Smith, of the Wilsonville Review, delegates to the 29th senatorial district convention, paid their respects to these newspaper headquarters, Wednesday.

Dr. B. B. Davis was called to Cambridge, Tuesday, to see a man who had been seriously injured by the explosion of a cartridge he was endeavoring to force into a gun. Both eyes were injured by the powder and the shell was only detected from his heart by a convenient rib.

Madge, the three year old daughter of W. C. Bullard, Binney street, obtained half a cup of gasoline Monday and drank it. Happily a doctor was in close call and she was relieved from choking caused by the fumes of the fluid, before becoming insensible.—Omaha cor. Lincoln Journal.

Rev. Sterns, Baptist missionary for western Nebraska, occupied Rev. McBride's pulpit, Sunday at both morning and evening services. The reverend gentleman is an earnest, eloquent speaker and his sermons were greatly enjoyed and appreciated. He has charge of fifty-three counties in his work as missionary.

WE "PASS" NOBODY.

Buy a house from S. H. Colvin on the monthly installment plan and save money.

Mrs. J. D. McAlpine came down from Denver, yesterday, on 6.

Mrs. P. E. McKenna went down to Hastings on No. 6, Wednesday, on a visit.
