Republican County Convention.

There will be a Republican County Convention for Red Willow county, Nebraska, held on Wednesday, September 14th, 1892, at one o'clock, P. M., central time, in the court house at Indianola, Nebraska, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate each for the offices of representative, county attorney and county commissioner of the third district, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The various precincts are entitled to representation as follows, (being one delegate at large, and one for each fifteen votes or fraction thereof cast for Judge Post in 1891.)

Alliance	2	Grant	2
Beaver	4	Indianola	6
Bondville	3	Lebanon	4
Box Elder	4	Missouri Ridge	2
Chesman	2	North Valley	2
Danbury	2	Perry	4
Driftwood	3	Red Willow	3
East Valley	4	Terrone	2
Fritch	2	Valley Grange	3
Gerver	2	Willow Grove	21
Total	80

It is recommended that the precinct primaries be called by the precinct committees to be held on Monday, September 12th, 1892, at such hour as may be most convenient.
F. M. KIMMELL, Secretary.
M. N. ESKEY, Chairman.
McCook, Nebraska, August 23d, 1892.

THE Elwood Citizen pertinently remarks that "politicians who cannot discuss questions at issue without letting their passions get the better of their judgment and common sense should be muzzled."

THE farce is played now for all it is worth and the curtain had better be rung down on Mr. Rosewater's performance without further delay. He has forfeited all his pledges and discovers himself a very commonplace little liar, and that is all that has come of these mighty attempts to "harmonize" republicanism and Rosewater in Nebraska. Now let us harmonize republicanism and let Rosewater slide.—Journal.

JUDGE CROUNSE will conduct a clean campaign on square, honest issues. He will not appeal to the ignorant prejudices of the people, but to their reasoning intelligence. His election will mean, not the sanction of all kinds of doubtful legislative experiments, but a continuation of the sound, conservative business policy which has fostered the growth of the state in the past and built up here in a quarter of a century a commonwealth that is the wonder and admiration of the nation.—Journal.

IRREPRESSIBLE Walt M. Seely has metamorphosed himself into a full-fledged editor man by purchasing an interest in the Bennett Union. Walter makes his editorial bow, in part, thusly: We have no apologies to make for once more entering the newspaper field. Why we do so will become plain before the campaign of 1892 closes. We shall endeavor to place the Union among the republican leaders of the state. Politically, it will be republican, but will not hesitate to criticize any candidate or measure before the people. Our friends, as well as our enemies, will readily understand "what we are hear for."

Excursion to Imperial.

A special train of three coaches, baggage car and superintendent's private car, under the guidance of Mr. Frank Harris, steamed out of McCook on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, for the new city of Imperial, the terminus of the B. & M. on the Frenchman.

The first thing that attracted your correspondent's notice, was the commissary department, presided over by Messrs. Al. Lewis, Ed. Allen, George Etter, J. E. Kelley and our own Jim Hatfield, together with several representatives of the fair sex. In this department were to be found liquid refreshments, one hundred feet of bologna sausage, ham, boiled beef, cheese, etc.

Reaching Imperial at 10 o'clock, we were met by citizens headed by the Imperial and Wauneta combined brass band, and escorted to the grand stand, which was decorated with flags. Appropriate decorations were to be seen along the line of march. The meeting was called to order by Judge Burke, master of ceremonies, who introduced the Rev. Ellsworth, who opened the meeting with prayer, after which Geo. W. Waters, of Imperial, made the address of welcome.

Judge Cochran, of McCook, responded, reciting historical data in reference to Nebraska, which tended to convince his hearers that they were fortunate in being residents of this progressive state.

Prof. W. E. Andrews, of Hastings, the gentleman who received the nomination of this district to congress, is one of the most scholarly gentlemen it has been our pleasure to listen to in a long time. His description of Imperial "Rome on the banks of the Tiber," and comparison of the new city of Imperial near the Frenchman, was a masterpiece of word painting. If the people of the district elect him to congress they will be represented by a gentleman of culture and attainments, that no other district in the state can match.

General Hastings, in his inimitable manner, expressed his pleasure at being present. He renewed old acquaintances and made many new ones.

Tom Majors, Nebraska's lieutenant governor, was the next speaker, and whatever community Tom goes into or wherever he speaks, his stock goes up.

Judge Crouse, Nebraska's next governor, like the preceding speakers, being limited to a five minute talk, had not the opportunity to display his oratorical powers. His appearance and appropriate remarks, together with his courteous manner, made a favorable impression, and many friends.

Hon. A. G. Humphrey of Custer county spent his five minutes in giving a statistical account of the number of bushels of corn, wheat, oats and other cereals raised during the year 1891 in Nebraska showing the amount the state was enriched thereby, which figures and statistics, if presented to the farmers of our eastern states, would cause such an increase of immigration here as would greatly augment our population and treble the price of our land.

Mr. Bartley and Senator Kountz, the last speakers, had little difficulty in presenting to the people of Chase county the advantages of the extension of the B. & M. R. into their section. On the labor saved in hauling thirty or forty miles to market, a saving on a ton of coal alone being $3.00. Two weeks ago before the advent of the road, every ton of coal cost the consumer $10.00. Now it can be had for $7.00, and with encouragement for still further extension of the road this commodity may be reduced 33 per cent more.

Ample accommodations were provided by the citizens of Imperial to serve the thousand and more people present. After dinner a ball game was witnessed between Wauneta and Lamar, resulting in a victory for Wauneta. The score stood 21 to 6. For Wauneta, Lovell Clyde and Wm. C. Bulger were pitcher and catcher.

After reaching McCook, at 10 o'clock, a vote of thanks was tendered to the B. & M. R. R., and to Frank Harris as their representative, for his assiduous care for our comfort on the journey.

The twenty-third annual reunion of the "Society of the Army of the Cumberland" will take place on the battle field of Chickamauga, with headquarters both at the Park Hotel at Crawfish Springs and Chattanooga, September 15th and 16th, being the week before the national encampment at Washington. Half fare arrangements have been secured with the leading railroads of the country, and negotiations are in progress to procure tickets which will allow attendance upon both reunion and the national encampment.
