

The McCook Tribune.

ELEVENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA. FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 9, 1892.

NUMBER 16.

Injured Innocence.

Is shown in the handsome face of our colored friend. He wants you to understand that he

"HAINT SEE'D NO CHICKENS."

But if you will come to the BOSTON SHOE STORE, next week, you will see a new line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes which will OPEN YOUR EYES!

WE ARE RUSTLERS

For trade—at the head of the procession—with the right swing, and we propose to

CATCH THAT MAVERICK

The frisky dollar. In all lines of Boots and Shoes there is no dealer in Southwestern that can

ROUND UP BARGAINS

To equal yours respectfully. We are here for business from the ground up, and propose to let you know it. Come and see us.

I WILL

Be the key-note to success. The firmness of our resolution to

LEAD THE TRADE

In Boots and Shoes is symbolized in the noble figure here given. THE BOSTON SHOE STORE has already set the fashion

IN McCOOK

Of making people talk about their goods and prices. A visit to their store will convince you of this.

A Big Drive

Is now being made by us on many lines, but especially on a fine line of

LADIES SHOES.

Ladies will find the selection very desirable, while the shoes themselves are admitted to be

EXTREMELY

COMFORTABLE.

Call at once and get the pick before sizes are broken. These goods will go like ice cream.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Sheriff Banks had official business in the city, Wednesday.

Albert Radtke is also taking in the state fair, this week.

Supt. J. H. Bayston was in the city, Monday, on school work.

J. A. Wilcox followed the crowd to the state fair, Tuesday evening.

Register Lindsay's eldest child is seriously ill with summer complaint.

Mrs. F. M. Kimmell arrived home, Tuesday night, from visiting relatives in Iowa.

Miss Alice Murphy will teach in Fruita, Colorado, during the ensuing school year.

Judge Benson sojourned over Sunday, up on the Dundy county ranch, near Haigler.

Mrs. A. L. Lewis departed on 2, Tuesday, for St. Joe, to be absent a month or longer.

Miss Augusta Hunt opens a school in the Jacob Ball district on Monday morning next.

Mrs. M. A. Northrup departed this week for Chicago, expecting to be absent about a year.

Mrs. J. T. Bullard and Miss Josephine were passengers on 6, Tuesday, for Lincoln and Omaha.

County Clerk Roper was among the out-of-town people that thronged the commercial center, Saturday.

Mr. Crawford, a brother of Mrs. J. H. Moore, accompanied them home from Pennsylvania, close of last week.

Prof. Jones who has been in the city a week or two on a visit to friends, departed for Omaha, Tuesday afternoon.

Banker O. Frost of Bartley gazed with undistinguishable astonishment and pleasure upon our growing greatness, Saturday.

H. L. Merriman, of the firm of Merriman & Frank, of Stockville, was a business visitor in the blooming metropolis, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meeker went in to Lincoln, Tuesday morning, to view the transcendent attractions of the state fair.

Miss Ella Daley, of Peoria, Illinois, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Matt. Lawler, for past few weeks, left on 6, Sunday, for home.

J. E. Cooper has been appointed city agent of Wells-Fargo at Hastings. He was up Tuesday packing his goods ready for shipment to that place.

Mrs. Ernest Mehring, sister of Mrs. Will Archibald, and Mrs. M. H. Ellis, sister of Mrs. James Kilpatrick, departed on 6, Saturday, for Chicago.

Miss Minnie Johnston presided with conscious dignity and grace at a charming little "dove convocation," Tuesday evening, at the Commercial House.

Mrs. M. Y. Starbuck and Miss Louie returned home, close of last week, from a delightful visit of a few weeks duration to Salt Lake City relatives.

Host Johnston of the Commercial was a passenger for Lincoln, Omaha and St. Joe, Tuesday evening, to take in the several exhibitions and fairs.

Col. Joe Wells dropped in upon us, last Friday night, fresh from Gotham's glory, full of vim for the fall and winter campaign in his father's mercantile establishment.

Mrs. George Hunt and daughter Miss Susie are back from Lincoln. Miss Susie's eyesight, we are happy to note, has been materially improved by the treatment received.

Jim Hatfield, Joe Reizenstein and E. R. Curtis went to Lincoln, Sunday afternoon, on the stock special, and have been drinking in the sights at the state fair during the week.

S. H. Colvin went in to Lincoln, Wednesday night, to witness the scenes at the state fair. He will also attend a meeting of the committee having the matter of Nebraska on Wheels No. 2 in charge.

W. C. Wheeler of Sheboygan Falls, Wis., purchased the M. Y. Starbuck farm, Tuesday. It is located two miles north east of this city and a fine property. He will take possession and erect a frame residence thereon this fall.

Charles O'Brien arrived home, Saturday night, from his extended visit east on his wedding trip. Mrs. O'Brien did not arrive here until Wednesday night, stopping a few days in the eastern part of the state to visit relatives.

Mrs. C. T. Brewer was at home to a number of lady friends, Monday, to tea. The guests were Mrs. Vina Wood, H. P. Sutton, S. P. Hart, Samuel Strasser, Archie Altschuler, Geo. E. Johnston, H. H. Troth, A. L. Lewis, Roby.

O. P. Smith of monument fame is in the city on business connected with his recently acquired interests here—the Rogers business house on lower Main. He reports the Smith monument scheme as a sure and stupendous winner, and it now requires all his time.

Commissioner Samuel Young came up from Bartley, Sunday, and together with Chairman Bolles, of the board, took 6 for Lincoln, the same afternoon, to see the never-fading grandeur of the state fair, and to arrange for the payment of the costs made in the mandamus case by our Indianola friends and co-travelers through this vale of tears.

William Lewis of Gray, Audubon county, Iowa, has purchased the N. A. Frame place up in Four-Thirty. His son will move onto and improve the farm. Mr. Lewis reports finding this country better than it was represented to him, and is very much taken with the soil, inasmuch that we would not be surprised to see him come out and locate here himself in the not distant future.

WE "PASS" NOBODY.

Mrs. W. S. Perry returned home on 6, Saturday.

Mrs. C. E. Pope and Mrs. Soliday went in to the Lincoln fair on Wednesday.

The Russian employed in the car cleaning gang was pinched by the cars, yesterday.

Buy a house from S. H. Colvin on the monthly installment plan and save money.

Miss Etta Hamilton returned on 5, Tuesday, from a visit to her sister Mrs. John Lewis at Holyoke.

In order to facilitate watering trains an additional hydrant has been placed just west of the depot building.

Engineer and Mrs. Oyster are looking after the welfare of another daughter who made her debut into their home, Saturday.

Engineer and Mrs. J. H. Moore arrived home, last Friday night, from their extended visit to Pennsylvania relatives.

Harry Tyler was up from Orleans, Sunday, looking after a dwelling house he has under construction on north Manchester.

Under the new arrangement of September 1st passenger conductors run both east and west from McCook, same as freight men.

Conductor Curran takes the Orleans and St. Francis run on Monday morning. The family will remain here a week or so before removing to Republican.

Frank Carruth went down to Plattsmouth on 6, Tuesday night, to take charge of his jewelry establishment there during the temporary absence of his son.

A grand benefit concert will be tendered Engineer Frank Reid in the opera house on the evening of October first, and a splendid programme is promised. A crowded house should greet the performance.

A new time card, supplement to No. 32, goes into effect at 2 o'clock, Sunday morning next, on the Orleans-St. Francis line. The branch will now have both passenger and freight service. The supplements are the product of THE TRIBUNE job rooms.

THE TRIBUNE heartily congratulates Jack Curran upon his promotion to the regular passenger run between Republican City and St. Francis, only regretting that it necessitates the removal of himself and family from our midst, as Republican City will be their future home.

A meeting of considerable importance to railroad trainmen is to be held in Chicago on September 28. The delegates will be men of practical experience in railroad matters, and the subject to be considered is the adoption of safety appliances. This has now become a matter of immediate concern to the railroad companies, on account of the bill providing for the substitution of improved couplings and brakes on all railroads. It is to be hoped that an effective system can be found by which the great death-rate among railroad men may be lessened.

Supt. Valentine was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Longnecker, close of last week. He was accompanied by the elder son of Mr. Longnecker on his return home, Saturday.

C. T. Brewer accompanied his shipment of cattle to the Omaha market on Sunday night; gazing upon Nebraska's peerless fair on his homeward way.

G. B. Berry took in the state fair the early part of the week; also visited briefly over in Iowa.

Mrs. E. G. Nettleton will be at Burlington, Vermont, until the close of the year at least.

Mrs. Louis Lowman and Miss Sara arrived home from Chicago, close of last week.

Col. Ed. Webster of Omaha was conspicuous on our streets, yesterday afternoon.

Harsh fate had done for her its worst, And to her anguish seemed to scoff; I found the gentle maid had burst Her left suspender button off.

Those who have been delighted from time to time by the splendid tenor of Frank S. Reid will learn with regret that he is still confined to his bed and likely to be for some weeks, by the unfortunate accident of July 27th. In order that he may know that during the tedious hours of his imprisonment that his friends have not forgotten him, a grand benefit will be tendered to him on Saturday evening, October 1st, at the opera house. Our local musicians will all participate, both the vocalists and the instrumentalists, and every effort will be made to render a programme worthy of the occasion. F. H. Spearman, Arthur Jackson and H. P. Sutton will look after the programme while George Berry, Tom Haley and Frank Hawksworth will take care of the business arrangements. Reserved seats will be placed on sale immediately at fifty cents each at the McCook Book & Stationery store. We bespeak a generous attendance on the part of his many railroad friends and the music loving public.

This week C. F. Babcock sold the G. Floyd Clark place of 600 acres, just east of the Hatfield ranch, to Peter C. Voge of Holstein, Iowa.
