

But it looks as if it would be in it soon, and the sooner your foot is in one of our $3.50 or $4.00 Shoes the more fortunate it will be. Because we know this shoe, we want you to know it; because it wears as no other shoe will wear, we want you to wear it. It is absolutely the cheapest thing in shoe-leather and there isn't any limit to the satisfaction that it gives. No matter what you pay, you get no better when you get the best—it is a luxury in footwear and not a high-priced luxury at that. It isn't trying to those who try it. Try it.

It is now alleged that there is a woman in the case of young Fox, who left the city on last Thursday night. The woman is a well known character with whom it is stated young Fox has been on intimate terms for a year or more past, and upon whom he has been "blowing in" his wages.

The tastes of a girl differ according to her age. At sixteen she wants a dude with toothpick shoes and a microscopic mustache; at twenty a chief justice with piles of tin; at twenty-five she'll be satisfied with a member of Congress; at thirty a country doctor or preacher will do; at thirty-five a mechanic or laborer will be welcome to come and take her.

Promptness at meals is a virtue of which absence has caused deep anguish of spirit to countless long suffering housewives. The tardiness at breakfast from indulgence in a last nap, or at luncheon from a too protracted shopping expedition, or at dinner from an over extended round of calls, may seem a trifle to the delinquent, but Harper's Bazar reminds sinners in this respect that to the housekeeper it means injury to the food and disturbance of her own peace of mind. The habit of always being ready when a meal is announced should be especially binding upon a guest. For one who is receiving the hospitality of a home, to require it by disregarding its customs is the extreme of ill breeding. Conformity to the rules of the house in this respect, should be observed by all visitors, while the duty of being always ready on time when invited to take a drive or to go to some entertainment would seem too obvious to be mentioned were it not that one sees this unwritten law so constantly violated.

We clip the following from a Pennsylvania paper touching the short story to be issued by W. S. Kimmell, formerly with THE TRIBUNE: The new Democratic paper to be known as the Somerset Vidette is now a positively assured fact. The material has been purchased, and will be here this week. The proprietors and their friends have been hustling for the last few weeks, and expect the first number to be issued on Saturday, Oct. 1st next, with a fair list of subscribers and a good show of advertising. The paper will be eight pages, and with new material is expected to be a typographical success. The price will be only one dollar and fifty cents.—Meyersdale (Pa.) Commercial.

Arbuckle dwelling on north Madison street, and has rented his fine farm a short distance north of the city to Mr. McGrath and another gentleman from Hebron, Thayer county.

The Workmen and Degree of Honor held a very pleasing and enjoyable social session, Monday evening. The programme prepared was interesting in kind, and the manner of its presentation and rendition was altogether acceptable and gratifying. Then there were refreshments spread with the usual bounteous hand, and this feature never lacks appreciation. The order has almost reached the 200 mark in membership and the attendance upon business occasions is always large and the keenest interest is manifested.

The county fairs held in Nebraska this year have awakened great interest and have been attended by many thousands of people. The reports indicate that the exhibits have been unusually large and excellent. The friendly rivalry created among the farmers by these annual exhibitions has a wholesome effect in stimulating them to renewed endeavors to improve the products of their lands and increase their variety, while a valuable educational influence is exerted by intercourse and interchange of ideas. The county fair is a useful institution in many ways and deserves encouragement.

The grand fall openings of the past week indicate most unmistakably and conclusively that the dry goods men of McCook know just how to cater to the every want and whim of our discriminating, fashionable people; who in turn have shown by their presence in large numbers, and by their critical inspection, and spontaneous utterances of surprise and delight, that they appreciate the efforts put forth so cleverly and lavishly to display the latest and most seasonable productions in their respective lines.

J. ALBERT WELLS. As per announcement on last Friday and Saturday, the magnificent store of J. Albert Wells was thrown open to the public for the purpose of giving an opportunity to all to inspect his large and superb stock of dry goods, carpets, millinery, etc. Mr. Wells in his display in all departments exceeded all previous efforts as to richness and selection and quantity.

In dry goods, carpets and kindred lines the variety and excellence of the lavish display was marvelous and elicited many words of praise. It shows substantially that Mr. Wells has been open-handed as well as discriminating in his purchases in this line.

In the millinery department the effective work of Miss Cory in the eastern markets was conspicuous in the richness, variety and tastefulness of the exhibition. The profusion and splendor of "loves of bonnets" and a multitude of other dainty and useful things is beyond the ability of the reporter to fully describe.

The dress-making department over which Mrs. Lewis presides with acknowledged ability was represented splendidly in the form of several elegant productions of the dress-making art, which were thoroughly admired.

On Saturday evening Prof. Reizenstein's orchestra added a delightful element to an occasion which has never been excelled in the history of McCook. L. LOWMAN & SON.

The autumn opening of this well and favorably known firm was held on Monday, when their large establishment was arrayed in gala attire for the reception of their numerous friends and patrons. Anticipating a brisk business, this fall, their purchases embraced a larger and finer and more carefully selected stock in all departments than usual. It was superb throughout and a credit to the good taste and judgment of the buyers.

Their dry goods department was replete with stylish and fashionable articles. The extent of their display in this respect doubtless exceeded all previous efforts, in quantity and in varied elegance. It was highly creditable.

In the millinery department there were everywhere evidences of the tastefulness of Miss Walsh, the new head of this department, in a profusion of handsomely trimmed hats, and other charming things belonging to that line, all showing artistic conception and careful workmanship.

Perhaps Miss Rowell's department—dress-making—never appeared to better advantage. A number of elegant creations of the dress-maker's art were on exhibition, accentuating the skill and rare taste of Miss Rowell and the efficiency of her assistants. There were many warm words of praise.

As is their custom each visitor carried away a pretty souvenir of the occasion—a neat cup.

The successful outcome of the county fair this fall must be very gratifying to the promoters of the same, as well as to the people of Red Willow county. The exhibits were of unusually fine quality.

General Van Wyck addressed a fair audience in the opera house, last evening, in his thoroughly characteristic, able manner.

TO RAISE WINTER WHEAT.

The Experiment Station to Make a Distribution of Seeds.

LINCOLN, Sept. 19, 1892.—To the Farmers of Nebraska: The state experiment station has determined to make a distribution of seed winter wheat composing of the following varieties, viz: Extra early red, Hickman, Landreth's white, Tuscan island red and ironclad. The distribution will be made in quantities of twenty pounds each, and will be delivered to the express office in the city of Lincoln, neatly sacked, free of charge. The receiver must pay the charges from that point, which is the only expense to him.

The wheat will be sent out in the order of reception of orders until all is gone; it is hoped, however, that packages will reach nearly all counties in the state, as we are prepared to send out about 750 packages. No person can receive more than one package.

In order to facilitate the distribution, which is unavoidably a little late, we ask the newspapers of the state give as wide publicity to this as convenient at once for the benefit of their readers.

The wheats named were sown late last fall (October 1 to 5) and have with one exception, the ironclad, made an average of forty bushels to the acre.

Very respectfully,
C. L. INGERSOLL,
Professor of Agricultural University of Nebraska.

H. H. NICHOLSON,
Director Experiment Station.

Main's Show.

Saturday was a great day for Seneca, for on that day the great consolidated shows of Walter L. Main pitched their tents and gave two performances that elicited the most enthusiastic applause. It was the best show that has visited Seneca for years, and the best part of all was the fact that there was not the usual accompaniment of fakirs, dead-beats and gamblers. Such things are not allowed by Mr. Main. The procession took place during a heavy shower, which prohibited the use of the handsome costumes worn on such occasions. The exhibitions were grand, and were appreciated by immense crowds. Every feature advertised was produced, and when Walter L. Main comes this way again he will have to bring along larger tents to accommodate the people.—Seneca (Kansas) News.

Send for catalogue and information to ALEXIS C. HART, Franklin, Nebraska.
