

The McCook Tribune.

ELEVENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 30, 1892.

NUMBER 19.

Injured Innocence.

Is shown in the handsome face of our colored friend. He wants you to understand that he

"HAINT SEE'D NO CHICKENS."

But if you will come to the BOSTON : SHOE : STORE, next week, you will see a new line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes which will OPEN YOUR EYES!

WE ARE RUSTLERS

For trade—at the head of the procession—with the right swing, and we propose to

CATCH THAT MAVERICK

The frisky dollar. In all lines of Boots and Shoes there is no dealer in Southwestern that can

ROUND UP BARGAINS

To equal yours respectfully. We are here for business from the ground up, and propose to let you know it. Come and see us.

Boston SHOE STORE.

I WILL

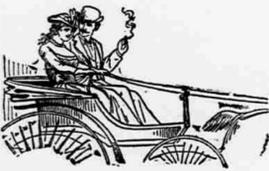

Is the key-note to success. The firmness of our resolution to

LEAD THE TRADE

In Boots and Shoes is symbolized in the noble figure here given. THE BOSTON SHOE STORE has already set the fashion

IN McCOOK

Of making people talk about their goods and prices. A visit to their store will convince you of this.

A Big Drive

Is now being made by us on many lines, but especially on a fine line of

LADIES SHOES.

Ladies will find the selection very desirable, while the shoes themselves are admitted to be

EXTREMELY COMFORTABLE.

Call at once and get the pick before sizes are broken. These goods will go like ice cream.

Boston SHOE STORE.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

C. J. Ryan went down the valley, Sunday on 6, on some business.

L. W. McConnell arrived home, yesterday, from his trip back to Illinois.

P. A. Wells has been threatened with an attack of typhoid fever, and is still quite ill.

Rev. William Gill of Arapahoe conducted Episcopal services in the Lutheran church on Sunday.

Ed. Hall is here from Illinois, on a visit to McCook friends, coming on Wednesday's excursion.

Mrs. S. H. Colvin arrived home, Monday noon, from visiting relatives and friends in eastern Nebraska.

J. W. Hupp was over from Lebanon, Thursday, and remained over the evening to hear the Andrews-McKeighan debate.

John C. Gaumill was down from Frontier county, Saturday, to participate in the republican rally of that evening.

F. H. Gensecke of Benton county, Iowa, has purchased H. G. Dixon's farm, the northeast quarter of section 15-4-30.

Clarence Barney, the painter, came in from Chicago, the first of the week, and says he is going to remain with us permanently.

Mrs. Jos. Reizenstein took her daughter Eva to Omaha, Wednesday morning, to secure specialist treatment for her eyes.

Miss Hiteaman left on 6, Tuesday, for her home in Davenport, Iowa, after quite a protracted visit to her brothers Lloyd and Roth.

Col. J. D. Gage of Franklin and Major E. H. Marshall of Bloomington were with the throng at the Republican rally, Saturday night.

Frank H. Selby of Cambridge beamed down upon the rally, from among the gallery gods over his gold-rimmed eye-glasses, Saturday night.

L. H. Woodyard, special correspondent of the Carrollton Republican, is here from Bosworth, Missouri, looking over the county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Marsh and daughter of Sutton who were guests of S. H. Colvin, early in the week, left for home Tuesday morning.

Mrs. D. L. Griggs left for Chicago, yesterday morning, to secure treatment and instruction for her deaf son. She expects to be absent two years.

I. A. Sheridan was up from Indianola, Tuesday, arranging with Postmaster Troth the details for the Andrews-McKeighan joint debate of last night.

W. S. Fitch is in Peoria, Illinois, this week, attending the Illinois state fair with an exhibit from Red Willow county. He left on last Saturday morning.

S. H. Colvin had the pleasure of entertaining his uncles, Messrs. Marion and Justus Ritchie, prominent lumbermen of Plattsmouth, fore part of the week.

E. J. Mitchell has purchased the Indianola Courier. Consideration $1,300. THE TRIBUNE welcomes the Colonel into the fold and herewith offers congratulations.

Mrs. Allen of McCook, a sister of Mrs. Caldwell, who is now visiting at Mr. Stuckey's, in company with her daughter Miss Alma, arrived here Monday to visit her sister and the family of Mr. Stuckey.—Fairmont Signal.

E. M. Woods of Danbury, Republican nominee for representative, spent a few hours in McCook, Saturday, making the acquaintance of our people. It is a pleasure and satisfaction to know that he left a favorable impression with all who met him.

Ben S. Baker, the well known U. S. district attorney, will speak at Bartley on October 8th, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The date should be remembered and Ben should be accorded a large hearing, as he will ably discuss the issues of the day and campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Berry and son of Indianola, Iowa, were the guests of H. H. Berry, from the close of last week until Monday noon, when they left for the mountains on a visit. Mr. Berry is a leading lawyer in Indianola, Iowa, and a cousin of our fellow townsmen.

Mrs. Tom Wilkinson returned home, fore part of the week.

Tom Wilkinson is putting in his days of grace improving and beautifying the home.

Mrs. L. V. Stayner is away on a month's visit in the east, leaving the close of last week.

J. D. McAlpine is down from Denver, helping on the pay rolls as is his monthly custom.

A. J. Jackson has been papering, painting and otherwise improving the home during the absence of his wife in Plattsmouth.

Engineer Holliday has been keeping out of mischief during his vacation by painting his dwelling, barn etc., to good advantage and improvement.

Conductor J. J. Curran's family joined him at Republican City, Wednesday morning, being passengers on No. 2. They carry with them the regrets of warm McCook friends.

Brakeman Guiltner met with an accident, Tuesday afternoon, in which he sustained a fracture of the lower bones of his left arm. The train was broken in two sections, and coming together just as he was climbing up a box car he was thrown from the train with above result.

The landseekers have come in to possess the land, and scores of them are scouring the country over in quest of choice farms.

The keenly anticipated Andrews-McKeighan joint debate has passed into history, and with it go a train of most highly gratifying remembrances to the Republicans of McCook and southwestern Nebraska. In the first place the demonstration made by the Republican clubs of Holdrege, Cambridge, Benkelman, Haigier, Max, Hayes Centre and McCook, preceding the debate, was unparalleled in point of numbers and enthusiasm in local annals. There were perhaps over 500 voters in line, led by the uniformed brass bands of Cambridge and McCook, and the uniformed martial bands of Benkelman, Holdrege and Hayes Centre; and together with their torches and banners galore, they made an inspiring scene, unbounded enthusiasm prevailing all the while.

The attendance exceeded expectations and the wigwam provided in the open space north of the Commercial House was entirely unequal to the task of accommodating the applauding hundreds present.

As to the merits of the debate our independent friends doubtless entertain other and different convictions than do the Republicans. But the latter have every reason to feel proud and gratified at the splendid defence made of Republican doctrines and principles and policy by their admirable and able champion and standard bearer, Hon. W. E. Andrews, who gave most convincing and entertaining proof of his ability to cope with the wily and practiced veteran Congressman McKeighan, who has met in Mr. Andrews a gentleman, scholar and debater pre-eminently worthy of his steel.

The Republicans of this part of the district will go away from this debate with a confidence immensely strengthened, for their leader has in their hearing given most vigorous evidence that their trust has not been misplaced, that he is able to maintain their cause with dignity and power.

The ladies of the Congregational church realized a neat sum out of their supper, last evening, and assisted largely in feeding the crowd which thronged to hear the debate.

As usual both sides won—or think they did—which is not altogether undesirable, as all can feel happy.

When it comes to banners galore the Holdrege Republican club is strictly in it.

It was the largest and most intensely enthusiastic political gathering ever held in southwestern Nebraska. A genuine ovation to Andrews.

There were about 150 members of Dundy county Republican clubs in the procession, headed by a martial band from Benkelman.

One of the prettiest features of the procession was the martial band of small boys in uniform from Hayes Centre.

The Holdrege Republican club in uniform and with a martial band made a fine showing.

The Cambridge brass band headed over 100 members of the Cambridge Republican club.
