Big Barbecue at Shelbyville, Ind.—McKinley and Frye's Kansas D-tea Canceled—People's Party Headquarters Moved to Topeka—Senator Mills Seriously Ill—Political Notes.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Sept. 29.—The Democrats of Eastern and Central Indiana held a grand barbecue here today. At the fair grounds, enclosed in a quarter mile of rope and guarded by half a hundred special policemen, were sixty tables, each forty-eight feet long. Ten beefs, twenty calves and 2,000 loaves of bread were used for the feast. After the parade General Stevenson addressed the crowd. Congressman Warner of New York, Senator Turpie, and other distinguished Democrats made addresses.

Cleveland's Plans. BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., Sept. 29.—Mr. Cleveland said last evening: "I shall leave for New York on the Fall River boat Thursday evening. I have no idea as to when I shall return to Gray Gables. My plans are very unsettled, but I shall not attend any meeting that I know of now. There is one thing, however, of which I am sure, and that is that I shall not mingle in any political complications."

McKinley's Kansas Dates Canceled. TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 29.—The Republican national committee has canceled Senator Frye's appointments in this state and it is probable that Governor McKinley cannot be secured. Foraker and Filley are the only speakers of national reputation outside the state whom the central committee have certainly secured.

CAUSED A SENSATION. Dr. Schroeder's Remarks on the Pope's Temporal Power Criticized.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 29.—A speech made last night by Dr. Schroeder of the Catholic university of America regarding the temporal power of the pope has caused a sensation among the great number of German Catholics who are now in the city attending the German Catholic congress. He is severely criticized by some who say that the remarks made by him will cause dissension in the Catholic church and do harm to the Catholic cause. Irish Catholics especially object to the remarks.

The remarks of Dr. Schroeder were directed to the subject of the pope's temporal power. He demanded its restoration and said absolutely that there was no compromise to be made with the so-called liberal element of Catholicism.

"When Rome has spoken the cause is ended," thus spoke Archbishop Corrigan before the Young Men's Catholic society about Catholicism, which he practically declared was a dead issue. He spoke in reference to reports that the views of Catholicism were held by the congress and that the German reunion was a step in the direction of the separation of Catholics according to their nationalities. It had been said that the archbishop favored the plan fathered by Cahensly, but his utterance left little doubt as to his present views.

The resolutions which were presented at the secret session to-day are said to be of the same purport as Dr. Schroeder's speech. Dr. Hagen, chairman of the committee on resolutions, is guarding these resolutions carefully and will not give out anything for publication.

The priests' society went into session at 11 o'clock to discuss many questions on organization. This afternoon the young people's societies met for the last time.

A British Warship to Rescue Sealers. OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 29.—Notwithstanding the denial from London that a British man-of-war had been sent to Siberia to secure the release of Canadian sealers supposed to be held prisoners there by the Russians, H. C. Tupper, minister of marine, says the man-of-war is now on the way there.

Paderewski Seriously Ill. PARIS, Sept. 29.—Paderewski, the pianist, is seriously ill with rheumatic fever in this city.

THE world of music suffered a distinct and positive loss in the death of the popular musical director, Patrick S. Gilmore. While not a great musician he was highly successful as a director, coupling with his musical attainments shrewd business tact and excellent judgment as to what the public desired. Therefore, while not ranking as a musician with Thomas or Damrosch or Seidl or Sousa, he acquired greater popularity than either and made for himself a unique place among the musical directors of his time. The Gilmore concert had a character and quality peculiar to itself and Gilmore was the most picturesque of conductors. His aim was to please the people, and in this he was pre-eminently successful. The thorough musician and the exacting critic found more pleasure in listening to the Thomas orchestra in its best days, and the Marine band as now constituted is unquestionably a superior organization to the Gilmore band, but the last appealed to the popular taste and hence has been uniformly successful. With the great mass of people the lighter and livelier music will always be first in favor, and it was the admixture of the classical and the plain or simple music, each rendered with care and conscientiousness, which gave the Gilmore concerts their popularity with all classes. It was a characteristic, also, of these entertainments that they nearly always included one or more national airs which appealed to the patriotism of the people. That Patrick Gilmore rendered a very great service to the cause of musical culture cannot fairly be questioned, though the stickler for the purely classical will very likely be disposed to deny him his rightful place among those who have contributed to the popular taste for and appreciation of higher music. He will be missed by the audiences who found attendance upon his concerts a source of pleasure and education.—Bee.
