

The McCook Tribune.

ELEVENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA. FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 7, 1892.

NUMBER 20.

HO, EVERY ONE

WHO NEEDS

FURNITURE!

Now is the time when you can BUY CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE IN McCOOK. We are here to live and let live. It is to your interest to encourage the man who for the first time SELLS FURNITURE AT REASONABLE PRICES. I will sell to responsible parties on instalments, if desired.

Yours for Fair Play.

A. H. BURDICK.

I have a furniture house in Hastings and can supply most anything on short notice.

Watch OUR Corner

For the Next 30 Days we Will have NEW GOODS arriving daily.

The Largest Stock and Lowest Prices

Will be found. Our Stock of

Mens, Boys and Childrens Clothing

HAS JUST ARRIVED. ALSO:

CLOAKS and JACKETS

for Ladies, Misses and Children at from $1.00 up to $30.00.

FALL STYLES OF HATS.

Our Grocery Department is COMPLETE and We Are NEVER UNDERSOLD.

Give us a chance to sell you goods and you will be satisfied.

C. L. DeGROFF & CO.

SUCCESSORS TO J. C. ALLEN.

THE CASH BARGAIN HOUSE.

E. M. Reid was the guest of his son Frank close of past week.

Roadmaster Josselyn is in the city today on railroad business.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Keim were passengers on 6, this afternoon.

Mrs. Ben Marvin of Holyoke, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Supt. Campbell went west on the flyer, this noon, on railroad business.

Mrs. H. F. Harman and baby are home from McCook.—Oxford Standard.

The pay car is billed for McCook at 4:30, Thursday afternoon, October 13th.

Mrs. A. J. Chambers arrived home, Monday night from a few days visit in Lincoln.

Mrs. Jas. McAlpine arrived home, this noon, from a prolonged visit to relatives in Canada.

Conductor F. S. Granger has purchased the Dixon property corner Manchester and Dakota.

John Stevens, machinist, has purchased the Adam Walrath farm about four miles northwest of the city.

George Pronger, engineer, has commenced building a dwelling house in the northeastern part of the city.

Mrs. S. W. Lee and children returned Sunday from a brief visit with relatives at McCook.—Oxford Standard.

It is rumored that the Duluth, Sioux City and Pueblo people have let contract for grading as far west as Lexington.

Mrs. Crandall, mother of Harry and Frank, arrived in the city last Thursday evening, and is keeping house for the boys.

The busy locomotive earns all that it can get in the way of careful keeping. The average daily earning of a locomotive is about $100.

Bert Caldwell has gone to McCook to accept a position as train dispatcher, a place Bert can fill to perfection.—Hastings Democrat.

Ed. Wiener, the genial stenographer in Supt. Phelan's office, has been promoted to the position of receiver for the Wyoming division.—Alliance Times.

Miss Lulu Stingle was called here from McCook this week by the serious illness of her niece, Ora Burton, who has been added to the list of typhoid fever sufferers.—Oxford Standard.

B. E. Ridgway, who has been working on the section of the B. & M. near McCook has been promoted to the position of boss of a section near Haigler. He is an industrious and reliable young man and deserves the promotion.—Benkelman Bee.

Plumbers from Lincoln are here this week engaged in making extensive improvements in the heating system of the B. & M. hotel. The old furnace being too small will be replaced by improved steam heating apparatus fully adequate to the demands of the establishment.—Oxford Standard.

Marshall Roby, whom we remember as one of Red Cloud's youngsters years ago, and who has been west, returned this week to visit his parents. Marshall has out-grown himself and his friends. He now weighs 235 and is "clear out of sight." He is depot agent for the B. & M. at Atlanta, Neb., at present.—Red Cloud Chief.

A cat recently rode on the truck of a car from Richmond to Indianapolis, a distance of seventy-five miles. At every station Sir Thomas would alight and take a look at the place, but when the whistle would blow he would scamper back to the road and mount the truck again. The railroad company has adopted Sir Thomas as a mascot.

The Red Cloud Railway Employees Club of Nebraska, No. 272, which was organized several weeks ago, held a meeting last Wednesday evening. The officers of the club are F. D. Martin, president; Geo. Hollister, vice-president; John Mahoney, recording secretary; Chas. Milligan, treasurer, and S. W. Foe, sergeant at arms. The above organization is for the purpose of furthering the best interests of the employes and the railroads. The time of meeting will be the first and third Wednesdays in each month.—Argus.

A number of friends dropped in upon Mr. and Mrs. Hulaniski, Monday night, and made merry with them over the tenth anniversary occasion of their marriage, and a very happy evening was enjoyed by all. High five was the ever popular social basis. Refreshments of a dainty and most appetizing character were served at an appropriate interval. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kenyon, O. M. Knipple, Frank Keudlen, Z. L. Kay and Herman Pade, who left a set of silver spoons with the count and lady as a souvenir of the happy occasion.

District Court Filings.

Warren O. McClure vs. H. M. Ashmore, et al, equity, Sept. 22.
Ruth H. Lathrop vs. Wm. Anderson, et al, equity, Sept. 22.
Charles C. Crabtree vs. George Crabtree, equity, Sept. 27.
Aultman, Miller & Co. vs. T. N. Young, attachment, Sept. 29.

THE TRIBUNE will add features this fall which will make it worth subscribing for. Try it one year, and if it doesn't suit you, you needn't pay for it.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

A. W. Corey went down to Hastings, Sunday on 4, on a horse deal.

Mrs. B. B. Davis is home from her visit to Minneapolis, Minn.

Prof. Valentne's mother is expected to arrive in our city, Monday.

George Fentress' family came up from Red Cloud on Tuesday evening.

John Weintz came in from Denver on 6, today, on a visit to his parents.

Dr. B. B. Davis was called to Cambridge, professionally, Sunday evening.

Dr. Rice has moved up on Melvin street, two doors south of the school house.

L. Blanding will leave for his homestead in the Indian Territory, overland, first of next week.

J. S. Kikendall of North Valley precinct was the guest of his brother-in-law, H. H. Berry, Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. E. Johnston will leave for Juniata, tomorrow on a visit to relatives, of two or three weeks.

Miss Nora Strond went down to Hastings, Saturday morning, to interview an oculist concerning her eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jacobs are the parents of fine twin boys, that put in an appearance, Wednesday morning.

Miss Mae McArthur arrived home, this noon, from Lincoln where she has been visiting for four or five weeks.

Rev. W. C. Stevenson went down to Beatrice, this morning, to participate in the state convention Y. P. S. C. E.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hupp, of Lebanon, were with us a brief while, yesterday, leaving on 5 for Trenton, last evening.

Banker O. Frost was up from Bartley, Saturday, viewing Red Willows next county seat and present metropolis with pride.

Postmaster Troth arrived home, this noon, from Minden, where he went to hear the Andrews-McKeighan debate, last evening.

James Fraser, who is now employed in a mercantile establishment at Blue Hill, greeted his McCook friends over Sunday.

Mrs. Hamm and Miss Flora arrived in the city, yesterday on 4, from Yuma, Colo., where they have been living for past few years.

Mr. Charles Benjamin of Danforth, Iroquois county, Illinois, is visiting his brother E. N. Benjamin of Valley Grange precinct.

Mrs. Alivida Bolt, of Red Oak, Iowa, gave the family of her brother J. A. Elwood a pleasant surprise by coming in to spend a few weeks with them.

Rev. A. W. Coffman returned home, Monday night, from the West Nebraska conference at Kearney. He will have this charge for the ensuing year.

J. E. Cochran arrived home from Baltimore, Wednesday night on 3. The Judge says that the more he sees of the east, the more he thinks of the west.

Hon. John C. Gammill, republican nominee for state senator of this district is in the city, today. Mr. Gammill is making an aggressive fight and winning friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Young left on Sunday for St. Louis, where it is claimed he will enter the employ of the Hecker hardware company as commercial tourist.

Inspector Harlan of the U. S. land office was here in a business capacity, Saturday, finding everything in shipshape in the McCook office, it goes without saying.

Rev. Castle, formerly of the McCook M. E. church charge, now of the northern Ohio conference, was at Bartley, first of the week, being out west renewing old friendships.

Register J. P. Lindsay, J. E. Kelley, A. D. Gibbs, M. H. Bacon and Charles Weintz were among our people that attended the republican rally at Cambridge, last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield arrived home Sunday noon from a protracted visit in and near Decatur, Illinois, where they formerly resided and where their married daughter now lives.

Mrs. J. H. Ludwick returned home, Monday night, from Lincoln, where she has been consulting Dr. Dayton, the specialist, who gives her much encouragement that the baby will have a partial use of his eyes at least.

Mr. Leach, the architect, spent part of Saturday and Sunday in the city on his way from Boise City, Idaho, where he has been located for the past year or two, to Wymore, Nebraska. He expects to open an office in McCook in the spring.

Frank Stillman from near Decatur, Illinois, last week purchased the L. J. Starbuck farm of 1,200 acres, just east of the city. He is of the rustling tribe of Eli, and will be a valuable addition to the successful farmers of Red Willow county. His purchase is one of the choicest ranches in the Republican valley.

The Delinquent tax list has delayed us a few hours, this week.

Services at the Methodist church on next Sunday morning and evening at usual hours by the Rev. A. W. Coffman, whose many friends will be pleased to learn of his return to this charge for the ensuing conference year.

The farmer who does not put in winter wheat this fall, says the Tecumseh Journal, is not profiting by the successful experiences of his brethren and other parts of the state. It is being demonstrated that winter wheat is one of the very best paying crops that a farmer can raise in Nebraska.

FALL 1892.

CARPETS.

CARPETS.

CARPETS.

BRUSSELS

BODIES,

VELVETS,

TAPESTRIES.

INGRAINS

UNIONS,

ALL-WOOLS,

THREE-PLY.

China Mattings,

Ko-Ko Mattings,

Oil Cloths in

All Widths.

Smyrna Rugs,

Moquette Rugs.

Art Squares,

Carpet Paper,

Stair Pads.

J. ALBERT WELLS, - McCook, Neb.