TENNYSON'S LIFE EBBING.

The Venerable Poet Laureate of England
-lowly But Surely Passing Away.
LONDON, Oct. 6.—Lord Tennyson is dying quietly and peaceably as though he was falling to sleep, is the report which has just come from the home of the venerable poet laureate of England. The destroying angel is, however, asserting its dread power slowly, as though loath to take from the earth the spirit of the greatest of living singers and it may be hours before dissolution will come.
The bulletins from the sick room, which are very few because the poet requested as little publicity as possible, are delivered to the newspaper men by Hallam Tennyson. The people of the village of Aldworth know nothing about the poet's condition for he has never made friends with any of them.

AS DEADLY AS THE CHOLERA.

Influenza Playing Sad Havoc With the People of Peru.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Peruvian advices are that influenza is making fearful ravages in Lima. Some days the number of deaths was thirty. The mortality returns for three days during last week show ninety deaths. The streets are almost deserted and funeral processions are to be seen at nearly every hour in the day. It is estimated that over 30,000 persons have been attacked with the disease in Lima.
The epidemic also prevails in the Pachicamac, Cieneguilla, Huayam and Manchay valleys.

Indiana Gerrymander Cases Delayed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 6.—The Indiana supreme court yesterday refused to advance the suits to test the gerrymander acts of 1885 and 1891 without further consideration. The court ordered that inasmuch as the case was one of great importance to the people in the entire state, the attorney general should not appear in their behalf. As the attorney general is Green Smith, the Democrat who kept Lieutenant Governor Robertson out of office, the action is taken by politicians to mean that there will be no decision until after election.

Episcopals in Council.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 6.—The Protestant Episcopal triennial convention opened this morning in Emanuel church. The sixty-six bishops entered by the front door, each wearing, in addition to his white surplice, a robe denoting his rank of office in the church. They walked two and two down the center aisle and took their seats on either side of the chancel facing the altar. The opening sermon was delivered by Bishop Wilmer of Alabama. Bishop John Williams of Connecticut officiated at the celebration of holy communion, assisted by Bishop Neely of Maine.

Weaver May Be Warmly Received.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 6.—General James B. Weaver, People's party candidate for president, has an appointment to speak in Pulaski, this state, Saturday. He was in command at Pulaski during the war and many people of that county hold that he was cruel and unkind during that time.
Citizens have held a meeting to adopt measures to insure Weaver a respectful hearing, but some of the conservative citizens feared that there would be trouble and an effort was made to have him withdraw, but it failed.

Peace Reigns Supreme.

CULBERTSON, Neb., Oct. 6.—Six hundred armed citizens, representing the entire male population of Trenton and this place, laid down their arms today, and the Hitchcock county seat war was at an end. This was the result of the information that the state troops were preparing to move on the county with Gatling guns.
General Virquain wired Acting Governor Majors that peace had been restored and the records returned. He has dismissed the military and released the trains.

Sued for Funeral Street Car Use.

ATCHISON, Kan., Oct. 6.—The Atchison street railway company has sued John A. Martin post, G. A. R., for $36.50, with interest, for cars used to convey veterans to the cemetery to attend the burial of ex-Governor John A. Martin, October 4, 1899. W. L.
Challiss, president of the street railway company, is the father of Mrs.
Martin and probably on this account the old soldiers thought they would not have to pay the bill. They will fight the case.

Central Protective Officers Chosen.

OLATHE, Kan., Oct. 6.—The Central Protective association of Kansas and Missouri closed its seventh annual meeting at this place last night. Butler, Mo., was chosen as the place for the next meeting, and W. S. Connor, of East Atchison was re-elected president; B. L. Stine of Rosedale, vice president; W. H. Smith of Atchison, secretary, and Sid Simmons of Independence, Mo., treasurer.

Cleveland to Come West.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Ex-President Cleveland will be seen in Chicago this month. Word was last night received that he had decided to reconsider his refusal of the invitation to the exposition dedication and was preparing a letter of acceptance. This report was confirmed by Director General Davis who had received a promise that Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland would be here October 21.

Gladstone Not Against Sunday Concerts.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Mr. Gladstone was asked for his opinion of the aims of the Sunday concert society, the object of which is to provide pleasures for the people. In reply the prime minister has written a letter saying that while he never did indorse such things he has no severe censure for those who do.

Drought in Eastern New Mexico.

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 6.—The long continued drought in the eastern part of the territory is causing considerable suffering. Never before was the water so scarce in Lincoln county.
The water supply of the United States troops at Fort Stanton is so far reduced that it has been necessary to prohibit bathing.

FIRE AT UNIONVILLE, MO.

West Side of the Square Destroyed by Flames With a Loss of $30,000.
UNIONVILLE, Mo., Oct. 6.—A destructive fire visited our city early yesterday morning and laid in waste the brick blocks on the west side of the square. The fire originated in the kitchen of the Barnum house and before it was discovered that large structure was enveloped in flames.
The lower story of the building was occupied by Beller & Stahl, grocers, and H. T. Mairs, drugrist. The flames next attacked Sweet's harness establishment, a large two-story brick, which was soon in ashes. From thence to the large hardware and furniture establishment of H. R. Bradfield & Co. it wended its way and soon consumed it. The aggregate loss will probably amount to $30,000, with insurance to cover the amount for about $25,000.

St. Louis' Gala Night.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 6.—To the stirring notes of nearly 1,000 musicians, amid all the glories of a matchless autumn night, the moon and stars rivalled by the almost 100,000 electric gaslights of St. Louis' fall illumination of the streets, the Veiled Prophet, mystic guardian of the Mound City, escorted by a magnificent pageant of twenty-two gorgeous floats, made his fifteenth annual appearance here last night, greeted by a throng of over 500,000 loyal subjects gathered along the route of the parade.

Young in Years, Old in Crime.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., Oct. 6.—Floyd Graham, alias Will Davis, the burglar captured at Sedalia last week, yesterday plead guilty of robbery in the first degree and was sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary. He confesses being an old hand at the business and is but 20 years old.

Wayne MacVeagh.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—Wayne Mac-Veagh, who was attorney general under President Garfield, is out in a lengthy letter to a Boston club in which he gives his reasons for voting for Cleveland. He believes the Democratic position on the tariff is the correct one.

A Parsons Young Lady Lawyer.

PARSONS, Kan., Oct. 6.—Miss Fannie Cooper, of this city, made application before the Labette county district court for admission to the bar yesterday. She is a most talented young lady and is the first woman in the state of Kansas to practice law.

Michael McArdle, the Atchison county, Kan., farmer who shot and killed Alexander Perry, his hired man, a year ago, was found guilty of murder in the second degree.
