

Des.	Sec. Amt.	Lot.	Blk.	Am.
Des. 1	100	101	101	100
Des. 2	100	102	102	100
Des. 3	100	103	103	100
Des. 4	100	104	104	100
Des. 5	100	105	105	100
Des. 6	100	106	106	100
Des. 7	100	107	107	100
Des. 8	100	108	108	100
Des. 9	100	109	109	100
Des. 10	100	110	110	100
Des. 11	100	111	111	100
Des. 12	100	112	112	100
Des. 13	100	113	113	100
Des. 14	100	114	114	100
Des. 15	100	115	115	100
Des. 16	100	116	116	100
Des. 17	100	117	117	100
Des. 18	100	118	118	100
Des. 19	100	119	119	100
Des. 20	100	120	120	100
Des. 21	100	121	121	100
Des. 22	100	122	122	100
Des. 23	100	123	123	100
Des. 24	100	124	124	100
Des. 25	100	125	125	100
Des. 26	100	126	126	100
Des. 27	100	127	127	100
Des. 28	100	128	128	100
Des. 29	100	129	129	100
Des. 30	100	130	130	100
Des. 31	100	131	131	100
Des. 32	100	132	132	100
Des. 33	100	133	133	100
Des. 34	100	134	134	100
Des. 35	100	135	135	100
Des. 36	100	136	136	100
Des. 37	100	137	137	100
Des. 38	100	138	138	100
Des. 39	100	139	139	100
Des. 40	100	140	140	100
Des. 41	100	141	141	100
Des. 42	100	142	142	100
Des. 43	100	143	143	100
Des. 44	100	144	144	100
Des. 45	100	145	145	100
Des. 46	100	146	146	100
Des. 47	100	147	147	100
Des. 48	100	148	148	100
Des. 49	100	149	149	100
Des. 50	100	150	150	100

The Trial Begun.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Sept. 22.—The trial of Chancellor Creighton commenced yesterday afternoon at the Congregational church before a jury of fifteen fellow ministers, presided over by Bishop Warren. The prosecution has three attorneys on hand and the chancellor two. The line of defense is to be malice and spite work. One startling revelation however was sprung yesterday, to the effect that the $50,000 advertised to the world as a gift from Jacob Haisch to the Nebraska Wesleyan is not a gift, but a loan at 6 per cent, which may be foreclosed on thirty days' notice in case of non-payment of interest. A number of witnesses were examined in the afternoon and the testimony was said to be of a damaging character to the chancellor, the exact nature of which could not be learned. The chancellor's opponents however promise some great surprises in the way of damaging evidence, and the outcome is looked to with much interest.

Tried to Rob the Car.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 22.—A second attempt was made to rob the Benson motor car last night and a couple of shots were fired. About 11 o'clock a suspicious looking character boarded the car at Clifton Hill and rode out about half a mile, where he jumped off on the roadside and some distance from any house. On the next trip, half an hour afterward, he repeated the performance and the motorman, Jerry Grell, began to think he would like company. On the next trip Superintendent Cone and Harry Clappitt were on the car and kept watch. Near Frahm's saloon the fellow was seen and hailed. He fired his revolver and plunged off through the weeds with Clappitt and Cone in pursuit. He escaped in the darkness and the car went on to Clifton Hill. On its return the passengers thought they saw the would-be robber in Joe Rorolos' saloon and went in to investigate. When the fellow saw them he again ran for it and a charge of shot was sent after him, but he again made his escape.

Column Day.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 22.—Superintendent Goudy is sending out the preliminary outline of the official program for the observance of Columbus day in this state on October 21. The celebration of this day is recommended by not of congress, and by the proclamations of President Harrison and Governor Boyd. It is the wish of the managers of the World's fair that the exercises on the day be of a uniform nature and to this end an official program has been prepared. The program will be rendered in every school in America simultaneously with the dedicatory exercises on the exhibition grounds at Chicago. The preliminary outline being sent out will enable teachers and school officers to commence their preparations for the event. For obvious reasons the full text of the program will not be sent out until a short time prior to the day itself.

Attempted Suicide.

GRESHAM, Neb., Sept. 22.—William Rasp, a well-to-do farmer living five miles northeast of here, attempted to commit suicide last night by drinking strychnine. He sold his farm last week for $7,000. Someone told him that he sold too cheap; that he should have received $1,500 more for it, and it so preyed on his mind that he became partly insane. He got hold of a bottle of strychnine, but before he could take any of it his wife got it from him. Dr. Holbrook administered the proper medicines and at last accounts the patient was better.

Impeachment Trial Promised.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Sept. 22.—George Wilcox has filed a complaint against County Surveyor Baldwin for maladministration of office and the prospects are that the county will soon experience its first impeachment trial. The chief specification is that Mr. Baldwin, in the capacity of county surveyor, pulled up and removed and changed the mound stake put up by the government surveyors and established another corner between four sections.

Had Each Other Arrested.

BELLEVUE, Neb., Sept. 22.—War broke out at Fort Crook yesterday between Andy Cox, a sub-contractor, and George McMillen, a grader, ending in a fight in which Cox got decidedly the worst of it. Cox had McMillen arrested for assault and battery. He pleaded guilty, paid a fine and retaliated by having Cox arrested for provoking the assault by the use of vile and abusive epithets applied to the assaulting party. Cox was found guilty and paid a fine.

Prisoners Nearly Escaped.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Sept. 22.—Prisoners in the county jail here came near escaping last night. They sawed off an iron bar that enabled them all to get out of the corridor. They were all felt pretty certain of escape after getting out of the cells, for they wrote a note to Deputy Sheriff Campbell saying they disliked to leave him, but had concluded to do so.

Severe Hall Storm.

PIERCE, Neb., Sept. 22.—A severe hail storm occurred here yesterday afternoon about four o'clock lasting twenty minutes. Some of the stones measured over eight inches around.

West Point Neb., Sept. 22.

Between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening hail fell as large as walnuts. There was no wind and little damage.

A Farmer Drops Dead.

BEAVER CITY, Neb., Sept. 22.—G. M. Miller, an old settler and prominent farmer, dropped dead on his farm in Richmond precinct yesterday afternoon. He was at work and was supposed to be in usual health. Heart disease is ascribed as the cause.

He Refused to Testify.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 6.—The investigation of the charges made by Mr. E. C. Rewick concerning alleged mismanagement of the hospital for the insane at this city was commenced by the board of Public Lands and Buildings at the office of the secretary of state yesterday. Quite a number of interested spectators were on hand to listen to the interesting developments that were promised.

Mr. Rewick was requested to inform the board what he knew about the charge he has made against the board. He claims to do so, stating that he will not give his testimony to a proper court, but not to a board like the one which confronted him. He has charged, he said, that the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has been derelict in the performance of duties and he did not think that the members of the board were the proper parties to sit in judgment upon their own shortcomings. Much time was spent in investigation, during the forenoon. The afternoon session was brief but more to the point. Frank R. Norrissey took the stand long enough to request the board not to close the investigation until Governor Boyd had returned from the east, stating that the governor possessed evidence which bore strongly upon the question at issue. The vouchers referred to by Mr. Rewick as having been tampered with were produced by Secretary Allen and placed in evidence. The board then decided to take a recess until Oct. 12, pending the return of Governor Boyd.

Nebraska Fires.

CLAY CENTRE, Neb., Oct. 6.—Fire broke out in the rear of Harverson's barber shop about 3 o'clock yesterday morning and burned all the buildings on the north side of the square to Martin's grocery store. The total loss is probably about $10,000.

Tobias, Neb., Oct. 6.

A one-story frame house located in the eastern part of Tobias, owned and occupied by Joseph Nidolk as a residence, burned yesterday morning. The fire caught from a defective chimney and the flames gained strong headway before the family, who were at breakfast, were aware of the fire.

Held to the Federal Court.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 6.—Hurtzel McGeorge, the man arrested at Red Cloud Sunday by Deputy United States Marshal Melick on the charge of interfering with the United States mails, was brought before United States Commissioner Billingsley yesterday afternoon. The prisoner is charged with having opened a letter containing a money order for $25. The complaining witness was E. O. Filbey, who testified that he had given the letter containing the money order to McGeorge on September 12th, with the request that he place it in the mails. He swore that the letter had been opened, the money abstracted and the letter placed in another envelope and then mailed to the address. The envelope in which the letter was finally received by the party to whom it was addressed was directed in handwriting that bears a striking similarity to the chirography of the prisoner. McGeorge was held to the federal court in the sum of $500 and in default of bail was committed to jail.

A Narrow Escape.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 6.—Last night Mrs. Mary Glassman, a widow living four miles west of Omaha, arrived in the city and put up at the Pacific house. She was accompanied by a young man, Hardwig Gottspinn. Both are Germans. Both were shown to their respective rooms by a clerk, and given explicit instructions how to use the gas. They left a call for early breakfast, wishing to go into the country to see about the purchase of a farm. Mr. Gottspinn arose at 6 o'clock and after inquiring where Mrs. Glassman's room was, went to awaken her. There was no response to his rap and he and a clerk went up to the room, entered it and found Mrs. Glassman unconscious from the effects of gas. Physicians were called and the woman is thought to be out of danger, though not entirely conscious.

New Hall Dedicated.

WESTERN, Neb., Oct. 6.—The new Masonic hall at this place was dedicated yesterday afternoon. Grand Master Davidson and a number of other grand lodge officers were present, as well as many visiting brothers from Wilber, Swanton, Daykin and DeWitt. A banquet was served at the Commercial hotel last evening, Masons and their wives partaking.

Near Death's Door.

OMAHA, Oct. 6.—Mayor Miller of South Omaha passed a restless night at the hospital, all the time unconscious. This evening the wounded man was still alive, but the hospital surgeon offered no encouragement to the friends who hoped that the wound might not prove fatal. There is no hope for the man.

Recaptured.

THEFTON, Neb., Oct. 6.—Edward Thompson, who broke jail here day before yesterday, was captured last night at Dunning and returned to Sheriff Crow, who proceeded to chain him down in his cell. He will be guarded hereafter, and close watch placed over him to see that he gets no outside assistance.

NERVOUS DEBILITY

cured by the use of

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Tones the system, makes the weak strong.

Cures Others will cure you.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by G. M. Cheney, druggist.

No religion can do you a bit of good that does not make you to try to do good to others.

There can be no health for either mind or body so long as the blood is vitiated. Cleanse the vital current from all impurities by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine recruits the wasted energies, strengthens the nerves, and restores health to the debilitated system.

No man is pure in his heart who is not pure in his politics.

The formula of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is well known to the medical profession, and universally approved. The reputation of the firm guarantees excellence and uniformity in the medicine, and the world's experience for nearly half a century has fully demonstrated its value.

The only truly brave people are those who are not afraid of truth.

There is no excuse for any man to appear in society with a grizzly beard since the introduction of Buckingham's Dye, which colors a natural brown or black.

A public speaker should only tell the truth, but does he? It is feared not.

Wisdom's Roberting

Is meeting with great success everywhere, and is rapidly supplanting every other preparation of a like nature.

There is a great deal of selfishness that claims to wear the robe of Christ.

Canada to Cape Horn.

Every druggist in this vast territory keeps an ample stock of this medicine, and it affords them the best satisfaction of anything he sells.

There are no promises of help in the Bible for lazy men.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Chamberlain's Eye & Skin Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Eye, Tetter, Sore Throat, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Pruritic Scatches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cures have been cured by it after all other treatments had failed. It is put up in 25 and 50 cent bottles. For sale by George M. Cheney, Nov. 20-17-18.

First Publication September 23, 1892.

LAND OFFICE AT McCOOK, NEB.

August 1, 1892.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Register or Receiver at McCook, Nebraska, on Saturday, October 8, 1892, viz:

EGBERT H. EVERIST; P. E. D. S. No. 6589 for the S. E. 1/4 Sec. 25, T. 1, N. of R. 28, W. of the 6th P. M. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: George B. Morgan, Joel H. Dolph, James W. Leisure and Seth T. Parson, all of Danbury, Nebraska. J. P. LINDSAY, Register.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between Edward B. Bowen and Edwin L. Laycock, under the firm name of "Bowen and Laycock," is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Edwin L. Laycock continuing in business, Edward B. Bowen retiring. All outstanding debts owing to the firm will be paid to Edwin L. Laycock, who will pay all legal obligations against said firm. Dated McCook, Nebraska, September 25th, 1892. EDWARD B. BOWEN, EDWIN L. LAYCOCK.

BUY MACHINE OILS

—OF—

L. W. MCGONNELL & CO.

STATE OF NEBRASKA,)
 Red Willow County,) ss.
 Notice is hereby given to all persons having claims and demands against the estate of Sidney W. Ford, deceased, late of Red Willow County, that the time fixed for filing claims against said estate is six months from the 15th day of September, 1892. All persons are required to present their claims with vouchers to the county judge of said county, at his office therein, on or before the 15th day of March, 1893, and all claims filed will be heard before the said judge on the 15th day of March, 1893, at one o'clock, p. m.
 Dated September 15th, 1892.
 CHAS. W. BECK, County Judge.
 All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to Justin A. Wilcox, executor of estate.

First publication Sept. 23, 1892.

PROBATE NOTICE.

STATE OF NEBRASKA,)
 Red Willow County,) ss.
 Notice is hereby given to all persons having claims and demands against the estate of Sidney W. Ford, deceased, late of Red Willow County, that the time fixed for filing claims against said estate is six months from the 15th day of September, 1892. All persons are required to present their claims with vouchers to the county judge of said county, at his office therein, on or before the 15th day of March, 1893, and all claims filed will be heard before the said judge on the 15th day of March, 1893, at one o'clock, p. m.
 Dated September 15th, 1892.
 CHAS. W. BECK, County Judge.
 All persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to Justin A. Wilcox, executor of estate.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, A resolution was adopted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska at its twenty-second session thereof, and approved April 4th, A. D. 1891, proposing an amendment to Section One (1), of Article Five (5), of the constitution of said state, and that said section as amended shall read as follows, to-wit:

SECTION 1. (Officers).—The executive department shall consist of a governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, auditor of public accounts, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, commissioner of general lands, commissioner of public lands and buildings and three railroad commissioners, whose powers and duties shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first named eight (8) officers shall hold office for the term of two years from the first Thursday after the first Tuesday in January thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors of the state at large, and their terms of office shall be such as may be prescribed by law. The first election of said first eight named officers shall be held on the Tuesday next after his election, and until his successor succeeds the first Monday in November, 1892, and each succeeding election shall be held at the same relative time in each year thereafter. The three last named officers or railroad commissioners shall be elected by the electors