INDIANOLA ITEMS.

Election is over.
Precinct returns coming in.
Somebody is in the soup.
Politics are very uncertain.
Election here was very quiet.
C. H. Russell came home to vote.
Box Elder did nobly for the cause.
Geo. H. Purdum came down from McCook to vote.

If we are left, we can stand it as well as the other fellow, as we all have to live under the same administration.

License was issued on November 7th for the marriage of Mr. E. G. Packer of Indianola to Miss Blanche Dutcher of Bondville, also for Mr. Theodore H. Colling and Miss Mary Yunker, also of Bondville.

Valley Grange.

The beautiful is with us again.
H. D. Kenney expects to start to Iowa soon.

John Allam was calling on friends in this neighborhood, Tuesday.

Ed. Benjamin and family drove to Hayes county Thursday, returning Sunday.

W. P. Grimes, Will Critser and Charlie Boatman each hauled a load of lumber for the new school house today.

I must close and go and vote—a No. 1 republican ticket it will be. November 8th.

Chicken Stuffed With Chestnuts.

From the New York World.
Draw and clean the chicken as usual. Roast one quart of large chestnuts; when done remove shells and smash. Put one-half of the chestnuts in a bowl; add a teaspoonful of butter; a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper; mix and fill the chicken the same as with bread crumbs. Lard the breast thickly with salt pork; place the chicken in a baking pan, add a half a cup of water and a half a teaspoonful of salt; roast in a quick oven fifteen minutes. When done, dish, remove the strings and skewers, garnish with parsley. Put the remaining chestnuts in the pan in which the chicken was roasted, mix well, add a half pint of stock, stir until it boils, add salt and pepper to taste and serve in a boat. Chickens may also be stuffed with oysters or potato stuffing.

STATE CONVENTION.

Nebraska Young Men's Christian Association, Hastings, Nov. 17 to 20.

The 13th annual state convention of the Nebraska Young Men's Christian Association will be held at Hastings, Nov. 17 to 20, and a cordial invitation is extended to all members of associations, college students, railroad men, commercial travelers, pastors, business men and teachers, and a special invitation to young men from towns where there are no associations. Mr. J. R. Motte, international college secretary, of New York City, L. Wilber Nessor, general secretary, of Chicago, and Rev. A. J. Nathan, "the converted Jew," will be present from abroad and will take part in the sessions of the convention. Some forty of the leading workers in our own state will take part on the program. The program will include reports from the field, Bible addresses and a thorough discussion of methods of work among young men, Bible study and personal work, work for young men in foreign mission lands, the consideration of unoccupied fields, and many other items of interest. Special conferences will be held for college men, officers and directors, for committeemen, on district work, for college men and for delegates from unorganized towns. Delegates should send their names at once to F. I. Carruthers, general secretary Y. M. C. A., Hastings, Neb. Free entertainment will be furnished also. There will be a rate one and a third fare on the certificate plan on all railroads in the state. For credentials and further information address A. Nash, state sec'y, Omaha, Neb.

Credentials from towns where there are no associations should be signed by the pastor. This is the young men's gathering of our state and our town should be well represented.

Nebraska Republican.

The republicans of Nebraska have reason to congratulate themselves upon the outcome of the contest in this state.

The democratic plot to capture the electoral vote of Nebraska by throwing the bulk of the democratic vote to the Weaver electors has miscarried. There can be no doubt that Nebraska will cast her electoral vote for Harrison, although the plurality may be comparatively small.

Lorenzo Crouse has been triumphantly elected governor of this state by at least 12,000 plurality, and all the republican candidates on the state ticket are doubtless elected by pluralities ranging from 10,000 to 12,000.

Returns so far received indicate that both houses of the coming legislature will be republican by a small majority, insuring the return of a republican to the United States senate. This is most gratifying, because unexpected. The most extravagant estimate of republican strength in the next legislature was a membership of from 62 to 65.

It is now certain that at least three of the six republican candidates for congress have been elected, with a possibility of the election of five members.

In view of the tremendous odds against which the republicans of this state had to combat, coupled further with the fact that they were left entirely to their own resources, the splendid victory achieved is a source of supreme satisfaction to every republican in the state.—Bee.

Municipal Business.

The city council met in regular session, Wednesday evening, present Mayor Brewer, Clerk Warren, Attorney Cordeal, Councilmen LaTourette, Menard and Spickelmier. Bills as follows were allowed:

B. C. Cutlip,	$ 18 00
McCook Electric Light Co.,	170 50
A. E. McManigal,	40 00
J. H. Dwyer,	52 00
Barnett Lumber Co.,	46 03
W. M. Anderson,	3 25
F. D. Burgess,	50 21
J. A. Lipps,	50 00
W. C. Bullard & Co.,	45 85
Lincoln Land Co.,	300 00

On request of Vance McManigal part of his land in section 30-3-29 was set out of the city limits.

An ordinance was passed changing the boundary line of the city of McCook, in that part of the city which includes part of the south half of the southeast quarter of section 30-3-29. Adjourned.

The Loss Adjusted.

We are pleased to announce that the insurance men have adjusted the loss and the store of J. Albert Wells is now open to the public, although repairs are being made. The decorators and painters are at work on the south side which will be placed in good shape in a short time. Longer time will be required on the north side where the most of the damaged occurred.

The period of mourning at Washington for Mrs. Harrison, so far as external observance is concerned, will be necessarily brief. The cabinet ladies have decided to limit the time to thirty days. It is one of the exactions of official station that private grief will not wait upon public duty. The White House is not a habitation dedicated strictly to the uses of the home and family. It belongs to the people and its occupant is the servant of the people. And thus the sense of sorrow which the president would fain cherish and keep alive in form as well as in spirit must yield to the necessities of his responsibilities as a public figure, and the social obligations which his position imposes must be resumed in obedience to a demand which cannot be set aside, even though to obey must wound the tenderest sensibilities of the heart.

Preparations are under way for a dance to be given in the Menard opera house tonight by the young men of the city.

The democratic ratification, Monday, promises to be a rouser.
