Modern Fashions and History.

The present season opened with a rich display of new styles, and what makes them particularly attractive is the fact that, for the greater part, they are derived from a historical source. Thus the Louis XV and Louis XVI, pretty conceits are seen by the picturesque Directoire and Empire Costumes, and the graceful fancies of the 1830 period—all these, to be sure, in their modern modifications and relieved by the artistic touch of our contemporary taste. A great freedom of selection is, consequently, afforded to every lady, for no single leading style will prevent her from following her natural taste. To fully understand the past origin of the varied Modes of our coming season, and the development into their present adaptations, no surer guides could be obtained than the McDowell Fashion Journals. "Paris Album of Fashion" and "La Mode de Paris" are great favorites and sell, each, for 35 cents a copy, or $3.50 a year. "La Couturiere" has a wide success, being 30 cents a copy, or $3.00 a year. "La Mode" is the best Home Fashion Journal, costing only 15 cents a copy, or $1.50 per annum. They are supplied by newsdealers, or by applying directly to the house, at No. 4 West 14th Street, New York City.

The Call Leads the Procession.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of The Call in another column. Since its reduction in price The Call is the cheapest daily in Nebraska, and its spicy and independent policy is too well known to need comment from us. In reducing the price of The Call so as to put it within the reach of everybody, the management have placed themselves a decided step in advance of all other publishers in the state. This is an era of popular prices for the newspaper, and The Call is, as usual, at the head of the procession.

The farmers of Iowa probably are not more trustful of strangers and unsophisticated in the ways of this wicked world than those elsewhere, but it is a remarkable fact that they have allowed lightning rod swindlers to bunco them out of from $20,000 to $30,000 during the past summer and are still signing their names with singular freedom to swindling contracts. Not only farmers, but all other people should refrain from signing papers presented to them by traveling strangers, whom they know nothing about. The wonder is, not that these sharpers should practice such nefarious schemes, but that they should be able to find anybody to practice them upon in an age when newspapers are in the hands of all classes of people. It is clear that the citizens of this great republic are paying too much for their lightning rods.

North Divide Nubbins.
Several jobs of threshing to do here and there.
Bense Gockley is picking corn on the Cain farm.
The Christmas tree question is being talked over again.
It has been rumored that the "Nubbins" were about gathered.

The North Divide literary society is about to organize again.
Fred Carter is said to be taking the lead with that Leader sheller.

Chas. Mundy, that staid old "judge" of literary fame, is now Will Johnson's right hand man.

Will Rider has purchased the place formerly owned by Ham Cain, and will build thereon soon.

Herr M. Mohler is putting up buildings on his timber claim and will move there the coming spring.

We are told that the climate at Ex Commissioner Bolles' ranch on the "crick" no longer agrees with him.

The J. M. Henderson farm will be occupied by Fred Carter whom we will be pleased to have nearer in our midst.

Everyone seems to be gathering corn just now, and those chaps who always did hustle, can be seen early and late.

That donation or pound party for the new minister was quite a success. Rev. Meyart was formerly located at Palisade.

Geo. Mohler is helping A. F. Reeves manipulate that new corn sheller which was purchased by the latter recently. Here's success to you lads.

It may not be generally known nor believed that the writer has taken unto himself the arduous duty of raising a boy. Our kind friends however, have a little book telling all about it.

James Robinson expects to erect a dwelling house on his farm, and with that object in view has been negotiating with that all around peer of political preceptors and jack plane pusher, W. M. Boilins.

Those North Divide cribs that have been empty for these many months are now fairly groaning under their weight of king corn, so much so in fact that the new one put up by Uncle Billy Johnson has almost collapsed.

LITERARY NOTE.

"Christmas Stories of All Nations" for the distinguishing feature of the December number of Romance, nearly every country which celebrates the greatest of festival-days being represented in this remarkable collection. Here are stories of Christmas angels, and stories of Christmas beggars; stories with a laugh in every line, and stories which touch the fount of tears; but all of them pure, strong and fascinating. There is also a variety of other tales for those who do not care for the Christmas element, among them a true ghost story, a brilliant society sketch, the history of an interesting cat, and a vivid picture of a southern protracted meeting. Among the contributors to this most interesting issue are George Ebers, Marion Harland, Francois Copee, Lucy C. Lillie, Berthold Auerbach and Alphonse Daudet. The number is another testimony to the judgment and taste of the Romance's editor Mrs. Kate Upson Clark. This magazine is issued by Romance Publishing Company, Clinton Hall, Astor Place, New York, at 25 cents a number, or $2.50 a year; and the Christmas number will be sent free to subscribers for 1893.

Dr. John W. Scott, father-in-law of President Harrison, whose life closed at the White House Tuesday afternoon at the great age of 93 years, led an exceptionally fortunate existence. He was born of a good family in the United States of America, which is a piece of good fortune to begin with; he received a good, and for the time, a superior education; he was enabled to follow the promptings of his conscience and become a minister of the Gospel, and later to become an eminent teacher. Children were born to him and he saw them all, with one exception, grow to be men and women. He was given a tall and robust frame and so survived the shock of years that he considered himself in his physical prime at 60 and lived on in unabated mental vigor for 33 years. He experienced the sad condition inevitable with extreme age, that of outliving those nearest and dearest to him, but, save this, few lives have ever been more full of happiness than his.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osgood,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kitchel,
Conway, Ark.

The Centaur Company, 71 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. Archer, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular product, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

THE total vote of New York shows an actual loss of 23,000 votes as compared with 1888, where a gain of 150,000 was expected. Either there were many voters who remained at home or that state is rapidly losing population.

THE republican party in Nebraska has just won a signal victory, and yet it can throw away all the fruits of that victory by a few unwise acts precipitated by the boodle element of the party.

DO YOU WANT TO ADOPT A BABY? Maybe you think this is a new business, sending out babies on application; it has been done before, however, but never have those who have done it, been so successful as those who have done it this time. Everyone will exclaim, "Well, that's the sweetest baby I ever saw!" This little black-and-white engraving can give you but a faint idea of the exquisite original.

"I'M A DAISY."

which we propose to send to you, transportation paid. The little darling rests against a pillow, and is in the act of drawing off its pink sock, the mate of which has been pulled off and flung aside with a triumphant coo. The flesh tints are perfect, and the eyes follow you, no matter where you stand. The exquisite reproduction of this greatest painting of Ida Waugh (the most celebrated of modern painters of baby life) are to be given to those who subscribe to Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893. The reproductions cannot be told from the original, which cost $100, and are the same size (17x22 inches). The baby is life size, and absolutely lifelike. We have also in preparation, to present to our subscribers during 1893, other great pictures by such artists as Percy Moran, Maud Humphrey, Louis Deschamps, and others of world-wide renown. Take only two examples of what we did during the past year. "A Yard of Paradise," and "A White House Orchid," by the wife of President Harrison, and you will see what our promises mean.

Those who subscribe to Demorest's Family Magazine for 1893 will possess a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides a Magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject matter, that will keep everyone posted on all the topics of the day, and all the facts and different items of interest about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion Magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and we give you, free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose. Send in your subscription at once, only $5, and you will really get over $25 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York. If you are unacquainted with the Magazine, send 10 cents for a specimen copy.

THE absence of the American flag is often commented upon unfavorably by travelers in the south. It is generally held to be an evidence of the lingering disloyalty of that section. Northern people will be very glad to hear that the confederate veteran's association of Atlanta has decided to march hereafter under the stars and stripes. The men who have reached this determination are not to be commended for it particularly, but the members of similar associations in the south who have not passed on so far towards reconstruction are open to severe criticism. If the people of the south are really in earnest in their expressions of loyalty, the best way for them to show it is to follow the lead of these Atlanta veterans and give "old glory" a chance to flutter in the southern breeze.

THE astonishing fact concerning the wheat crop of Minnesota and the Dakotas is that it will exceed all estimates. The figures have been placed at 85,000,000 to 100,000,000 bushels, but the increase is so rapid in every section that it now seems probable that it will reach to the enormous amount of 135,000,000 bushels. This is certainly an agreeable surprise.

THE public debt was increased $43,000,000 last year.
