THE Falls City Journal passed its 25th mile stone, last week. The Journal has few equals among Nebraska weeklies, and THE TRIBUNE wishes it long life and continued prosperity, recognizing it to be a genuinely "good thing."

THE republicans of Nebraska are to be congratulated on the result of the Clay county contest. That there was no material advantage gained by the irregularity in the ticket in question, if the duplicating of the names may be called an irregularity, is beyond dispute. It would have been an unfortunate thing for the republicans of the state if a republican supreme court had decided to interfere with the returns from Clay county on a technical irregularity. Any interference on the part of the supreme court with the other departments of the state government is to be deprecated, especially at this time republicans cannot afford to go into a senatorial contest handicapped by any suspicion of trickery or injustice. The supreme court has done the right thing. Let it continue to keep its hands off.—Call.

THE TRIBUNE warns its readers against two noted incendiaries now in our midst. The lives of the desperate characters are set forth in detail, and their special methods of work, and also the places where they may usually be found. Their names are Mr. Ash Pail and Mr. Stove Pipe.

An exchange says that a Japanese doctor never dreams of asking a poor patient a fee. There is a proverb among the medical fraternity of Japan: "When the twin enemies, poverty and disease, invade a home, then he who takes ought from that home, though it be given him, is a robber."

It is the opinion of some of the most eminent physicians in the east that an epidemic of the "grip" threatens to visit the United States again this winter. The disease has already become widely prevalent abroad, which gives warrant for apprehending that it will become epidemic here. The danger should suggest to everybody to use every precaution to protect their health.

It seems the Republican was in error last week in saying that Hon. Jacob Wiggins was after the Registership of the McCook land office. It is the Receiver's office that Mr. Wiggins aspires to, but the Republican had just as well be frank with the old gentleman and end the suspense once for all, by telling him he will never get there. Another fellow with a pole as long as a clothes-line has already knocked that persimmon into his basket.—Hayes Centre Republican.

It is the aim of the TRIBUNE to continue a useful paper not only in chronicling the news of McCook and Red Willow county but also to labor to build up the interests of the valley's finest. It strives to be a useful medium to the men who are interested in the affairs of today and in whose hands are the great social and business interests of this busy world. It wants to be an aid to the business man, the farmer and the laborer. It has no hobbies to ride, no enemies to punish. We are not after enemies but friends.
