

CABROLL, Iowa, July, 1889.

I was suffering ten years from shocks in my head, so much so, that at times I didn't expect to recover. I took medicines from many doc-tors, but did not get any relief until I took Pas-tor Koenig's Nerve Tonic; the second dose re-lieved and two bottles cared me.

THE late General James Shields illustrated the truth that the heart and soul are not always to be judged by the appearance of the tenement they inhabit. The world before this been turned upside down by men of five feet six inches, by chronic invalids and by those whose makeup was "lame and unfashionable." A fiery and even our heart's blood if we will give invincible valor has often burned it, and sometimes takes it whether we in those whose bodies, as has been said, were hardly sufficient to contain their souls. There was something of this discrepanay, as it only thing left to us is to accept it and may be called, between body and make the best of it. soul; looks and deeds; the casket and the contents, in General Shields. No allusion to this singular contrast should be construed as reflecting on General Shields, the whole man, body and soul. General Shields was not "heroic" in looks, but in life and action.

THE testimony of Mr. C. B. Coxe, a Pennsylvanian who is said to be familiar with the coal question, before the house committee appointed to investigate the anthracite deal, was to the effect that there is no profit in the business at present and ever since the war people who have invested in it have failed to realize a fair rate of interest on their money. This testimony exactly agrees with that cinct, Red Willow county Nebraska, on and cattle raising must soon become a of the coal barons themselves and the 29th day of November, 1892, one it is not easy to believe that Mr. black gelding, horse supposed to be 14 Coxe is in every way a disinterested years of age, weight about 1,300; no witness, as he stated to be. Wanted-Sunshine. From the New York Ledger.

It's a curious fact that the world hasn't the slightest use for us when we that it cares for and our worst it will not have under any circumstances.

Some years ago a lady who had met with more mishaps and reverses than often fails to the lot of mortals, invited an acquaintance whom she had not met

"Oh, well, I will come around sometime when you get your affairs al straightened up. It gives me the blues to see you so full of mishaps and trouble. When it's all clear sailing again let me know, and I will come just as I used to."

It was a sort of brutal and cold blooded answer, but it voiced the senti ment of the world exactly.

The world doesn't want us when we are in trouble, it doesn't want to come near us. It has no special sympathy to give us, but is an insatiable monster and is ever demanding. It will take

We all know people whom we instinctively shun because their entire conversation is a recital of their misfortunes. They are depressing and trying to the nerves; and, after all, we cannot blame the world so much, for, as individuals, we are quite as much worried by them is in the community at large. There are two classes of people who are comfortable and comforting to have about. Those who are too easy going and others who have self control and philosophy sufficient to keep their misfortunes to themselves.

Winter Novelties for Ladies,

A pretty walking costume is a pleasing picture, but a beautiful Ball Dress is a poem. Never before has a winter-season presented a wider range of fascinating styles as are wit nessed this year. The taste of historical costumes is increasing as we go on, and indeed dressmaking, at the present time, absolutely requires some knowledge of the costumes of the past. Such knowledge is especially needed in Ball Dresses, as the latter more closely resemble their historical models. It is also in evening receptions that one sees those revived styles, such as the Henri II., the Regence, the 1845, etc., which do not ap-pear on the street in their pristine garb. In the McDowell Fashion Magazines, published at 4 West 14th street, New York City. They furnish every needed information in a most practical manner. "Paris Album of Fashion" and "La Mode de Paris" are invaluable, and and they each only cost $2.50 a year, or 30 cents a copy. "La Couturiere," price $3.00 or 30 cents a copy, gives the most practical styles in Paris. A premium book, "Dressmaking Simplified" is given with each year's subscription for one of these journals. "La Mode' is the greatest magazine of fashion for family use, costing only $1.50 per annum, or 15 cents a copy. If you cannot get these journals from your newsdealers send to the publishers direct

A NEW YEAR'S PRESENT. What to Give-To Whom to Give-And How to Give.

Everybody is going to make somebody a holiday present. What shall it be? to which one of my many friends shall it be? are questions not easily answered by many people. To enable everybody to make a present which may prove to be of great value to all, and is an appropriate gift to nearly everyone in this catarrah-stricken land, and at the same time cost only a few moments time and a postal card, is the purpose of The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, O. Send the address of as many of your friends as you believe will appreciate the gift to the above drug company and they will mail a copy of the new Illustrated Ils of Life free and post-paid-a beautiful, useful, truthful, helpful treatise on ca tarrh in all stages, coughs, colds, con sumption, bronchitis, and all of the climatic diseases of winter. This offer holds good until January 30, 1893.

The Call Leads the Procession. We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of The Call in another column. Since its reduction in price The Call is the cheapest daily in Nebraska, and its spicy and independent policy is too well known to need comment from us. In reducing the price of The Call so as to put it within the reach of everybody, the management have placed themselves a decided step in advance of all other publishers in the state. This is an era of popular prices for the newspaper, of the procession. Keep Your Cattle.

While cattle are not paying the farmer all that they should pay it is not entirely a good plan to go entirely out and indifferent to take or hold trouble, of the cattle business. It should be kept in mind that the range cattle are gradually and surely being narrowed each year. The crop farmers are fast crowding the great cattle ranches of the west and reducing the area of the Taken up by the subscriber on his grazing grounds. Irrigation in Coloraenclosed lands in Willow Grove pre- do and Wyoming is assisting in this good paying industry. A filthy habit once contracted is hard > to control or leave off. We notice many many small boys are trying to assume a a robust style of manner far in advance of the real status of the case and in violation of physical law as well. The habit of smoking cigarettes or cigars by mere boys is not only filthy, but detrimental to health as well, and should be frowned down by older people. In fact, the law regarding the use of tobacco by minors should be remembered and observed by those who sell cigars, cigarettes or tobacco. Section 245 of the Nebraska criminal code says that Rochester, N. Y. any person selling to a minor under the age of sixteen years shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall pay a fine of not less than $25 for each offense or stand committed. Now let the law be observed, and a better lot of healthy young men will be the result of the observance.
