

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

The only Pure Cream of Tartar Powder.—No Ammonia; No Alum.
Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard

C. J. Ryan has purchased the Coupe residence on north Melvin street.

B. F. Troxel sold the northwest quarter of 5-2-30, yesterday, to J. W. Eller of Trumbull, Nebraska.

Howe Smith is having a dwelling built over on Monmouth street, occupying the lot where stood the old building association residence which was destroyed by fire a few years ago.

W. H. Davis, who is devoting his time to the enterprise, says that the A.O.U.W. Temple project is coming along swimmingly, considerable stock having been subscribed for already.

This week, John Gerboth sold his half-section a few miles east of McCook to Benjamin Baker from Jefferson, Iowa. C. J. Ryan made the deal, and the consideration was $4,000.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society will give a social entertainment next Thursday evening, March 2d, at the residence of A. W. Coffman. Cake and coffee will be served. No admission. All friends are cordially invited to be present.

Elder H. H. Berry officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Kincaid at Box Elder, yesterday afternoon. The deceased died on her 21st birthday, and a husband and two small children are left to mourn her untimely death.

Messrs. Pickrell who bought the Russell place, Love who has land a few miles southwest of the city, Holbrook and son-in-law who purchased the Eneyart farm northeast of the city, all from Colvin, arrived here last night with their goods, implements, etc., to be on hand to commence spring operations on their farms in vigorous style. All welcome.

OUTING SHOES.

It long ago seemed as though shoes could never be better and never be cheaper, but they are better now and cheaper now than they ever were before. The great every day favorite is our men's and ladies' shoe. It is as much a boon to the pocketbook as it is to the feet. It won't wear you out to wear it out. You don't need to take care of it; it takes care of itself. It will give you solid comfort for the simple reason that a better shoe for knockabout purposes has never been produced. If prices never appealed to you before, the price of this shoe will, for it costs only $2.50. It will look nicer and wear longer than any shoe on earth.

Milt Eskey was up from Bartley, Thursday.

D. W. Bush was up from East Valley Wednesday.

Charley Overman was over from Danbury this week.

Walter Devoe and J. L. Horton were over from Lebanon, Thursday.

There were four persons examined for teacher's certificates on Saturday last.

Remember the teachers' meeting at Bartley, on Saturday next, Feb'y 25th.

Rev. James Lisle is at Bartley, this week, assisting Rev. Boucher in a revival.

Sheriff Banks transacted quite a large amount of real estate business on Monday.

F. H. Selby, the leading attorney of Cambridge, was in our city Monday on legal business.

Mrs. Mollie A. Nichols, of Lebanon, made eight year proof on her timber claim before Judge Beck, Thursday.

W. O. Bond moved into his new residence, on Monday last, and now has one of the finest houses in the city.

The W. C. T. U. occupied the evening hour, on Sunday last, and gave a very nice service at the M. E. church to a large audience.

The Odd Fellows have a special meeting, on Saturday evening, February 25th, and all members of the order are requested to be present.

J. A. Curlee and Charles Hopt were up from Bartley, Monday, on business. They were accompanied by E. J. Laughlin of Dundy county.

Mr. Hiram Doty, an old schoolmate of ye scribe, came in from eastern Iowa this week looking for farm land. He will probably invest in Red Willow dirt.

Rev. D. S. Morris, of Bondville precinct, was in the city Friday last to consult with parties here in regard to putting down a well on his homestead.

Mrs. P. S. Mather entertained her Sunday school class, last Friday evening, at her home. The class consists of about 18 girls. An excellent supper was served.

Married, at the residence of C. W. Beck, county judge, Monday evening, February 20th, Judge Beck officiating, Mr. Harry O. Kiegg and Miss Ida J. Fox, both of Haigler, Nebraska.

William Colling, who was adjudged insane about a year ago and sent to the hospital at Lincoln, has been discharged from that institution as recovered. We are glad to see Mr. C. home again and looking so well.

Mrs. J. C. Happersett and daughters Clara and Josie arrived in town, Thursday evening, to join Mr. H. and Alice who arrived here some weeks ago. The family are now all in our city and will occupy the Bishop house.

Mr. Charles E. Wood, of Benkelman, is now one of the Courier staff, and has the reputation of being a number one printer. We extend a welcome to Mr. Wood and hope that his influence may not make the Courier any the less clean and readable.

As previously announced the public school gave an entertainment and supper at the school building, Wednesday evening, February 22d. The program was good, and the supper excellent, and everyone had a nice time. The receipts were about $90.

Russell Loomis brought some nice carp and catfish to town, Thursday, for which he found ready sale. He has a large fish pond on the Willow, some eight miles north-west of this city, and says that he could take out at this time at least 3,000 pounds of marketable fish, and expects to have many tons of them next year. The fish are delivered in town alive and are much nicer than the stale stock often seen in market.

The Bartley correspondent to the Times-Democrat of last week spoke of one of their citizens stopping at a certain place north of that town, filling up with firewater, and later of being thrown out of a wagon and nearly killed, and closes by saying "shame on temperance." We would like to ask what temperance has to be ashamed of. Shame on the outlaw who would run such a place in opposition of law, and the people who will uphold such things and are ready to fight for evils of this kind when temperance people do try to do some good.

Pat McDonnell is building a neat dwelling in the eastern part of the city.

We received a card from Paris Henderson saying that he arrived at his destination, Saturday last, and is very well pleased with their present home. They were given a cordial welcome by the church and Odd Fellows lodge. They are at Harveysville, Kansas.
